The Patsy Bloom Charitable Trust

for the year ended 31 December 2025

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objectives of the charity are the promotion of all or any purposes which are charitable according to English law; generally for the relief of persons of the Jewish faith who are in need, or suffering sickness or disability or distress.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in to have regard to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit, "Charities and Public Benefit". The charitable purposes of the charity are set out in its constitution and these are achieved by considering grant applications received and once a consensus has been reached making donations to the chosen registered charities.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial review

Income received from donations was £50,000 (2024 - £10,000) and in addition income was received from property investments of £54,766 net (2024 - £54,101 net)

Donations of £98,270 (2024 - £30,368) were made and total support and administration costs of £1,449 (2024 - £8,717) were incurred.

The charity continues to invest funds for the future and at 31st December 2025 the net assets of the charity were £906,416 (2024 - £918,785)

Principal funding sources

The principal funding sources of the charity are currently by way of cash reserves and property income.

Investment policy and objectives

There are no restrictions on the charity's power to invest. The investment strategy remains that of maintaining a firm capital base so that it can make an enduring contribution to its charitable aims through donations. The Trustees consider the income requirements in the medium term.

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds, which are the free reserves of the charity, at a level which is sufficient to cover management, administration and support costs and respond to emergency applications for donations which arise from time to time.

FUTURE PLANS

The Trustees expect the charity to continue its activities outlined above in the foreseeable future and attempt to maintain the level of donations at the current level.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The Patsy Bloom Charitable Trust is a registered charity : Charity Registration Number 1054034, and is governed by a Trust Deed dated 12th March 1996.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The Trustees who have served during the year are set out on page two and all of those Trustees have continued to serve since the year end.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Induction and training of new trustees

The existing Trustees are already familiar with the work of the charity, having in the main been involved with it for many years.

A new Trustee would be invited to attend short meetings to familiarise him/her with the charity and the context in which it operates. This would be led by the Chair of the Trustees and cover :-

1. The obligation of Trustees
2. The main documents that set out the operational framework of the charity
3. Resourcing and the current financial position as set out in the accounts
4. Future plans and objectives

Risk management

The Trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks which the charity faces and confirm that systems have been established to enable regular reports to be produced so that the necessary steps can be taken to reduce these risks.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Patsy Bloom Charitable Trust

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Patsy Bloom Charitable Trust
I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of The Patsy Bloom Charitable Trust (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report
As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement
I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements
The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income
All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure
Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Investment property
Investment property is shown at most recent valuation. Any aggregate surplus or deficit arising from changes in fair value is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities.

Taxation
The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting
Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
