THE FOLLY FELLOWSHIP

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

31 MAY 2024

A year ago we were still reeling from the impact of Covid which claimed the life of our beloved Rita Boogaart. Not long afterwards her husband Pieter also succumbed. In my last Report we had received their legacy of over £100,000. I can now tell you that in the months that followed that legacy increased by some £130,000. We welcome members' recommendations for the use of these funds.

Just before the end of our last financial year we gathered in good numbers for a tour of the Cotswolds' splendid follies, some of which were the creations of members. A year later we visited more delights in Hertfordshire and a little later the marvels of the Bristol area. We rounded off the summer with a magnificent Garden Party and a season-ending trip to the Paris surrounds. The Trustees as ever have to thank our outings organisers for these wonderful occasions.

As ever our superb webmaster organized ever more Zoom talks which continue to be popular, well attended and can also be seen and heard after their initial broadcast.

I have to report continuing problems of vandalism of Browne's Folly in the outskirts of Bath. Many efforts have been made to counter this but the vandals are well organized and determined. We have experts in our ranks who have devoted time without end to trying to preserve this distinguished structure and continue to do so.

The Journal was to have been edited by an experienced member who suddenly died and a successor was unable to produce a planned issue but we now have the prospect of not just one but two Journals over the coming two years.

We will also continue to protect, preserve and promote follies, grottoes and garden buildings and look forward to members' loyal support and that of like-minded bodies.

THE FOLLY FELLOWSHIP
DIRECTORS' AND TRUSTEES' REPORT

31 MAY 2024

The trustees present their report and the accounts of the charitable company for the year ended 31 May 2024.

Legal and administrative information set out on page 1 forms part of this report.

Structure, governance and management

Trustees

All the directors of the company are also trustees of the charity, and there are no other trustees. The trustees who served during the year are set out on page 1. In accordance with requirements of the Articles of Association, the trustees are appointed for a maximum period of three years, and retiring trustees are eligible for re-election.

Appointment of trustees

The trustees are recruited in order to ensure that the expertise of the board members will enhance the development of the charity. Recruitment to the board of trustees has generally been achieved through word of mouth and therefore they are already familiar with the practical work of the charity.

Organisation

The charity is organised so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs.

Risk

The trustees have discussed the charity's position with regard to risk, and continue to review the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and have established systems to mitigate those risks.

Objectives and activities

The charity's objects are to protect, preserve and promote for the benefit of the public the historical, architectural and constructional heritage existing in and around follies, grottoes and garden buildings. The charity undertakes the publication of 'Follies', the international magazine for follies, grottoes and garden buildings together with the publication of 'The Follies Journal'. The charity also holds several events each year at folly sites in and outside the UK.

Achievements, performance and future plans

These are described in the Chairman's report on page 2.

Financial review

The statement of financial activities shows a net surplus, before unrealised losses on investments, for the year of £137,158 (2023 deficit £1,558) and reserves totalling £279,268 (2023 £141,950).

The directors have established a policy whereby the free reserves (being the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in tangible fixed assets) held by the charity should be between three and six months of the resources expended, which equates to £5,000 to £10,000 in general funds. At this level the trustees believe they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. The free reserves at 31 May 2024 amounted to £251,994 (2023 £114,835).

DIRECTORS' AND TRUSTEES' REPORT

31 MAY 2024

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

Company law and law applicable to charities in England and Wales require the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the company's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year.

In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in operation.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the company and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities Act 1993, the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting by charities 2005 and the governing document. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE FOLLY FELLOWSHIP

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 May 2024 set out on pages 6 to 10

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees, who are also the charitable company's directors, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year, under S43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under S43 of the Charities Act 1993, to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under S43(7)(b) of the Charities Act 1993, and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and the seeking of explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- a) to keep accounting records in accordance with S386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities (revised 2005) have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
