UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED
31ST MARCH 2025
TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT

The trustees present their annual directors' report and the unaudited financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2025 which are also prepared to meet the requirements for a directors' report and accounts for Companies Act purposes.

Objects of the charity

The objects of the charity are:

- 1 To promote educational and training opportunities in the city of Sheffield and elsewhere (the area of benefit) with special emphasis on providing access to such opportunities for people who are, by reason or economic disadvantage, otherwise unable to gain such access.
- 2 The advancement of citizenship in particular through the provision of training and advice so as to develop the capacity and potential of individuals to participate fully in society.
- 3 To relieve unemployment in the area of benefit by the provision of advice and training to unemployed individuals concerning employment and self employment and the provision of cv writing, job search and job club facilities for them

The area of benefit is the city of Sheffield and elsewhere

Public benefit

The trustees consider that they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Charities Commission and that the statement of the background, history and position to date demonstrates that the charity delivers public benefit.

Background, history, client group and position to date

Hadfield Institute (formerly the Yemeni Economic & Training Centre) was established in 1994 with Urban Programme money, following a survey of the needs of the community in Sheffield, which was itself the result of a unified voice and pressure from the Yemeni community. Since then, it has delivered a range of training and employment initiatives, specialising in English as an Additional Language combined with vocational training, in particular IT. 'Hadfield' reflects the history of both the steel industry and Yemenis in Sheffield: Robert Abbott Hadfield, a founder of Hadfield's steel company and world-famous metallurgist was born in the centre's front building and many Yemeni steelworkers worked at Hadfield's at some point. 'Institute' reflects the values of the organisation which are essentially the same as those upheld by the Women's Institute and Working Men's Institutes in the British tradition of education – mutual help and learning, truth and justice.

The majority of the Yemeni community first settled in Sheffield during the 1950s encouraged by the British Government of the day. Many found employment in the steel industry during the period of labour shortage. At that time, the fact that they lacked the ability to write English was no barrier to getting jobs. Initially, many Yemeni men settled in Sheffield and later brought their families to join them. It is estimated that during the heyday of the steel industry over 20,000 Yemenis lived in Sheffield.

Background, history, client group and position to date (continued)

Following the severe decline of the steel industry in Sheffield which caused widespread job losses in the community, the Yemeni community – with the development of the Attercliffe centre – was one of the first driving forces to establish a Community Literacy Campaign in the city. The successes of this initial campaign led to longer-term programmes centred on literacy and capacity building projects. The charity continues to work ‘hand in hand’ with Aspiring Communities Together to provide a number of essential services to the Yemeni community across Sheffield although Hadfield Institute serves an increasingly diverse client group with beneficiaries being drawn from all sections of communities in surrounding neighbourhoods and further afield. The organisation seeks to work in partnership with other organisations to deliver services and continues to provide capacity-building support to small community organisations. The current range of activities reflects the diverse client base. On the one hand, members of black and minority ethnic communities who continue to experience disproportionate disadvantage in the labour market are helped with information, advice and careers guidance and basic IT skills. We also offer Chartered Management Institute, management and leadership qualifications at higher levels and English courses for dependants of international students.

Review of activities and future plans

Hadfield Institute has continued to support and serve the communities it works within. A strong community-led approach remains central to its success, and over the past year the organisation has made important adjustments to ensure it can continue delivering vital services in a challenging environment. The ongoing cost of living crisis has significantly impacted the communities we support. In response, Hadfield Institute has focused on strengthening its provision to meet increasing demand, particularly around food support, family wellbeing, and access to services.

Our BAMER Parents Support Network continues to be a key programme, supporting parents of vulnerable children. This work is led by our Team Leader and supported by a dedicated group of volunteers who play a vital role in delivering culturally appropriate and trusted support within the community. We are supported by six volunteers who contribute significantly to the delivery of our Holiday Activities and Food (HAF) programme and our Food Pharmacy initiative. Their commitment has been essential in enabling us to meet growing demand and maintain consistent support for local families. The need for these services has increased considerably over the year. We continue to support a diverse range of community members, including individuals from different ethnic and cultural backgrounds, single parents, elderly residents, asylum seekers and refugees, parents of vulnerable children, students, and individuals in employment who are nevertheless struggling with the ongoing cost of living crisis. Advocacy remains a core part of our work. We continue to empower individuals to make informed choices, while also encouraging pathways into volunteering and work placements to build skills, confidence, and independence.

During the year, partnership working has further developed. Our collaboration with MADPro Ltd has enabled the delivery of alternative provision for children who have been permanently excluded from mainstream education, providing a safe and supportive base within Hadfield Institute. Food-related initiatives continue to be an important area of development. Our “Fix Your Food” approach is evolving, and while progress is gradual, we are actively exploring how best to support communities through sustainable food solutions. This includes ongoing work linked to food access, education, and long-term community resilience.

We have continued to strengthen partnerships with key organisations including Aspiring Communities, ISRAAC, Firvale Community Hub, Reach Up Youth, and others. These partnerships are vital in enabling joined-up support and maximising impact across the communities we serve.

The organisation is also actively exploring its role within the wider Sheffield Food Strategy, particularly in relation to “food growth” and sustainable sourcing, to help address food insecurity and rising living costs. Supporting children and families remains a priority. Through Holiday Activities and Food (HAF) programmes, delivered during school holidays, we have continued to promote healthy eating, physical activity, and wellbeing. These programmes also provide essential support to families during peak financial pressure periods.

Review of activities and future plans (continued)

In addition, our Finance & Contracts Manager contributes strategically to the wider sector through their role on the FareShare Yorkshire Board, helping to share best practice and strengthen food distribution models. This work supports the sustainability and development of our Food Pharmacy initiative, which remains a key element of our community support offer.

Financial review

Total income for the year reduced to £115k due to a fall in service level agreement income, with grants being consistent with last year. Expenditure, however, increased to £163k, mainly due to premises maintenance with the boiler replacement being a significant cost. There were also increases in light and heat and water costs.

There was net expenditure for the year of £48k which has reduced the charity's fund balances to £493k at 31st March 2025. The charity's free reserves at the year end were £121k (2024 - £163k).

Investments

The charity has no investments other than current bank accounts.

The property held is not investment property but is there to provide suitable facilities to carry out the charity's activities. Incidental income is generated by the occasional rental of rooms and facilities.

Reserves policy

Our reserves policy meets the organisation's needs in terms of its ability to pay for commitments such as rent and rates on buildings and staff-related costs for example redundancy, as well as providing cashflow for activities, projects and services. The policy is reviewed annually and is set to ensure that Hadfield Institute can meet contractual liabilities should the organisation have to close, to meet unexpected costs like breakdown of essential office machinery, staff cover, and legal costs defending the charity's interest, also to replace equipment that wears out. Above all, it ensures that the charity can continue to provide reliable, quality services and within this context minimises recruitment, staff training, staff induction and marketing costs by avoiding the need for redundancies caused by financial crisis.

The current policy is that:

- 1) Reserves be maintained at a level which ensures that a minimum of three months' running costs of the organisation's core activity could continue during a period of unforeseen difficulty.
- 2) A proportion of reserves be maintained in a readily realisable form given that the Hadfield Institute estate consists of two buildings used for a range of education, training and community activities and facilities must be available for use in a state which complies with health and safety requirements.
- 3) Money must be available to fund the staff required to deliver projects and services to beneficiaries.

Risks associated with each stream of income and expenditure are taken into account. These have proved to be high in the last six years, with income falling by up to 50% in certain years. The level of reserves has been set after consideration of Hadfield Institute's planning, budgeting and forecasting cycles over a ten-year period and takes into consideration that the organisation's accreditations and knowledge base will assist it to win contracts when the market improves.

Risks

The charity has no investments other than current bank balances and has therefore no risk in this area. Property is owned and rented and risk in this area is minimised by suitable insurance. The main risk is that of the charity not obtaining new contracts in the future.

Incoming resources

The main sources of income in the year were from grants and rental income.

Charitable status

A feature of the unrestricted income earned from fees is that much of the income is returned to beneficiaries in the form of free crèche places and assistance with public transport costs, without which the beneficiaries concerned would not be able to attend English courses.

At the present time, there is not sufficient unrestricted income to return additional benefit other than by retaining certain members of staff to continue to deliver services and a limited amount for donations to individuals and groups in cases of hardship. However the Trustees have particular plans to offer one free place to an eligible individual for every nine fee-paying places on management and leadership courses.

Governing document

Memorandum and Articles of Association incorporated 22nd September 1992, as amended by Special Resolution dated 8th November 1992, Special Resolution dated 16th August 2006 and Special Resolution dated 2nd March 2007.

Organisational structure

Day to day control is exercised by the Board of Trustees which is the accountable body for Hadfield Institute. The Executive Director reports to the Chairperson on a regular basis and monthly and quarterly to the full Board. The Board has extensive experience and understanding of the communities it serves and the programmes that Hadfield Institute delivers. Skills and experience include community development, regeneration, finance and recruitment and health and safety issues. In addition the Board keep in touch and up to date with issues relating to charity law and all other legal requirements.

Day to day financial management is undertaken by a small team of accounting and administration staff under the direction of the main trustees.

Trustee recruitment

Trustees are recruited from suitably qualified or experienced members of the local community. New and replacement trustees are appointed by the trustees and the wider community.

Training and induction of new trustees is provided by the Chairperson who provides a history and rationale of the organisation and outlines the general responsibilities of all trustees and the particular responsibilities attaching to the roles of Chairperson Secretary and Treasurer. Trustees are informed of and encouraged to attend sessions run by Voluntary Action Sheffield or other appropriate training provider.

Volunteers

The charity uses volunteers in various roles and their expenses are reimbursed. The use of volunteers provides additional resources to the charity and, importantly, provides volunteers with skills development and work experience and so fulfils part of the charity's objects.

Related parties

The charity is in close association with the Aspiring Communities Together, a registered charity sharing some premises, financial management staff and with some trustees in common.

Trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also directors of Hadfield Institute Limited for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for the year. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP 2019 (FRS 102);
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared taking advantage of the small companies exemption of section 415A of the Companies Act 2006.

The report of the trustees was approved by the board on 30th April 2026 and signed on its behalf by

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF
HADFIELD INSTITUTE LIMITED

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the company for the year ended 31st March 2025 which are set out on pages 8 to 16.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your company's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1 accounting records were not kept in respect of the company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
- 2 the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- 3 the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- 4 the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

HADFIELD INSTITUTE LIMITED
UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED
31ST MARCH 2025
PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Hadfield Institute is a company limited by guarantee registered in England and Wales. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member of the charity. The address of the registered office is given in the charity information on page 5 of these financial statements.

The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102. These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard application in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued in October 2019, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), the Charities Act 2011, the Companies Act 2006 and UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

The charity has applied Update Bulletin 1 as published on 2nd February 2016 and does not include a cash flow statement on the grounds that it is applying FRS 102 Section 1A.

The following is a summary of the more important accounting policies used by the charity.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis as the trustees believe that there are no material uncertainties.

Income

All income is accounted for as soon as the charity has entitlement to the income, there is certainty of receipt and the amount can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Income is only deferred when:

- The donor specifies that the grant or donation must only be used in future accounting periods; or
- The donor has imposed conditions which must be met before the charity has unconditional entitlement.

Grants receivable

Grants in respect of revenue items are written off to the income and expenditure account in the period to which they relate. Grants in respect of specific projects are credited to a restricted fund, against which relevant expenditure is charged.

Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised when a liability is incurred.

- Costs of charitable activities comprise all costs incurred in the pursuit of charitable objects of the charity. These costs comprise direct costs and an apportionment of overhead and support costs.
- Governance costs comprise all costs incurred in the governance of the charity. These costs include costs related to the statutory audit or independent examination together with an apportionment of overhead and support costs.

Value added tax

The charity is not registered for VAT. In these financial statements, expenditure is shown inclusive of VAT, where appropriate

UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED
31ST MARCH 2025
PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Allocation of overhead and support costs

Overhead and support costs have been allocated as direct expenses or apportioned on an appropriate basis between charitable activities and governance costs. Apportionment is largely driven by the nature of grant claims which need to reflect some apportioned costs.

Depreciation

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Leasehold land and buildings	- 1% straight line on cost
Office and computer equipment	- 33.3% straight line on cost
Furniture and fittings	- 15% straight line on cost
Motor vehicles	- 25% straight line on cost

Debtors

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount due after any discount offered.

Creditors

Creditors are recognised when the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably. Creditors are normally recognised at their settlement amount after allowing for any trade discounts due.

Fund accounting

Funds held by the charity are either:-

- Unrestricted funds - these are funds which can be used in accordance with the charitable objects at the discretion of the trustees.
- Designated funds - these have been set up to identify those unrestricted funds that are not free funds in that they represent the net book value of capital assets attributable to the charity's own reserves or unrestricted funds earmarked by the trustees for specific purposes
- Restricted funds - these are funds that can only be used for particular restricted purposes, imposed by the donor or through the terms of an appeal.
