Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (e.g. trust deed, constitution)	Trust Deed dated 20 December 1992
How the charity is constituted (e.g. trust, association, company)	Trust
Trustee selection methods (e.g. appointed by, elected by)	Elected by the Board of Trustees at the Annual Meeting

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees.
- The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works.
- Relationship with any related parties.
- Trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Trustees communicate and speak regularly and meet informally, as often as practicable, and all attend the annual general meeting, usually in late June (or early July) of each year, either at the University of Oxford or Cambridge, or in London, to select the Noon Scholars for the coming academic year; to review past selections; and to ensure that the management of the trust and its portfolio holdings remain effective and efficient.

The Trustees have discretionary powers to enable them to further the objectives of the trust, while remaining obliged to observe the Statutes of the Trust.

The Trustees have identified any major risks to which the charity is exposed as the volatility of the stock market and currency levels. In order to minimise these, the investment managers invest the charity's funds in medium risk investment vehicles which nevertheless give a good return without unnecessary risk to the capital. Advice is regularly sought from the investment managers, currently Rathbone's, to ensure that the investments are managed in an effective and desired manner.

The Trustees seek to protect, and to grow, the core fund, using the income generated each year to support new scholars and to cover the minimal administration costs.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objectives of the Trust are to advance the education of persons born, domiciled or normally resident in Pakistan, by the provision of bursaries, scholarships and other financial support, to enable such persons to pursue courses of higher education, currently deemed to include the natural, the applied, and the social sciences, and humanities, at universities and similar institutions situated in the United Kingdom, currently deemed to be Oxford and Cambridge.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

In the year 2023-24, grants totalling £99,483 (2022-23 - £85,749) were paid to Cambridge and Oxford to provide partial support for students.

Grants were paid during the year as follows:

Cambridge – £38,000 (2022-23: £49,750)

Oxford – £61,483 (2022-23: £35,999).

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- Policy on grantmaking
- Policy programme related investment
- Contribution made by Volunteers

The Trust seeks to enable, cooperate with and boost, other bodies that similarly also aim to support Pakistani scholars.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the presentation laid down in the Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting by Charities 2005. It is the Trustees' policy to distribute the available income in accordance with the objectives laid down in the Governing Deed.

Income for the year ended 31 March 2024 was £58,423 (2023: £60,122). Grants of £99,483 (2023: £85,749) were made, and the trustees were delighted to provide support for six able candidates to study at Oxford and Cambridge, bringing the total number of students supported since 1994 to over 220. It is worth noting, however, that tuition fees continue to rise year and year while matching available support is harder to pin down.

Management and administration costs of £21,012 (2023: £20,289) were paid during the year. These included management fees to the investment bankers, office overheads, alumni project work, and website support. There was no meeting and reception costs this year due to Zoom, nor any new publications.

At the year end, management fees of £4,206 for the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 March 2024 were outstanding. These were paid on 1 April 2024 but are not included in the management fees of £16,479.

Management fees of £4,055 were paid on 1 April 2023 in respect of the period from 1 January 2023 to 31 March 2023. These are included in the accounts to 31 March 2024.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

It is the policy of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds at a level which equates to at least six months unrestricted expenditure. In practice, the running costs of the Trust are relatively low as the income is derived from investments returns and the main area of expense is the board meeting for the making of grants under the charity's charitable objectives. The Trustees aim to keep the unrestricted reserves at about £7,000, as this figure is deemed to be sufficient to cover the day-to-day running expenses, allowance for office costs, and including all legal, professional and admin support fees, as well as any emergency funding requirements which may arise. Careful consideration is also given to the level of restricted reserves, as it is out of these that the Trust makes its annual charitable scholarship grants. Advice is sought from the investment managers, (Rathbones'), to ensure that at no time are the investments subjected to unacceptable levels of risk, which could possibly jeopardise the Trust's long term charitable objectives.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising).
- How expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity.
- Investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Trustees have unrestricted powers of investment. However, investment decisions have been delegated to the investment managers, Rathbones, under the supervision of a Finance Working Group including now two leading trustees. Paul Flather and Ehsan Mani (Hon. Treasurer) together with former trustee, Haroon Ahmed, who has kindly agreed to continue in this role though he has demitted from being an official trustee.

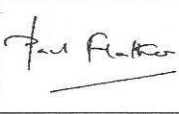

This Subcommittee hosts a meeting at least once a year – equivalent as a second board meeting of the trustees. Its deliberations, and the views of the investment brokers, are reported fully and discussed by the board. At the AGM of the trustees a further formal presentation is made by the investment brokers and is fully discussed and reviewed by all the trustees.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view, and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
