I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 29 / 09 / 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The Trustees have considered the major risks facing the charity and have taken steps to mitigate those risks.

Related Parties

The charity is one of three charities set up by the Worshipful Company of Tylers and Bricklayers ("the Company"). As such, the Trustees are, from time to time, guided by the Court of the Company.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are to promote the crafts of tiling and bricklaying and to further education in the crafts of tiling and bricklaying in such ways as the trustees shall in their discretion determine and in particular and without prejudice to the generality to the generality of the foregoing by

- promoting and financing courses for studying the crafts of tiling and bricklaying;
- awarding scholarships, exhibitions, bursaries or maintenance allowances to enable any persons to undertake training in the crafts of tiling and bricklaying on such conditions as the trustees shall determine;
- providing funding for a lectureship in the crafts of tiling and bricklaying tenable on such conditions as the trustees shall determine;
- presenting awards for tiling and bricklaying either in a new building or in the restoration or improvement of a previously existing building so as to encourage the study of the crafts of good tiling and of good bricklaying and the pursuance of excellence in the crafts of tiling and bricklaying
- and by such other charitable purposes as the trustees shall from time to time determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 17(5) of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Commission

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the year, the charity received income of £41,605 (2021: £30,153) including legacies of £20,000 (2021: £10,000). Expenditure totalled £23,720 (2021: £11,810) so an underlying surplus (excluding investment movements) of £17,885 (2021: Surplus £18,343) was made this year.

The usual prize-giving events which did not take place in 2021 were able to go ahead in the 2022 year, with some additional prizes having been awarded to make up for the year missed due to the pandemic.

The Trustees believe that they have adequately been able to meet the charitable objectives during the year.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's reserve policy is to maintain a sufficient level of unrestricted reserves necessary to generate the income required to run the charity on a day-to-day basis.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None – there is a small deficit on the Montgomery Fund, but this is simply a timing issue as the Montgomery Trustees reimburse the annual costs to the charity after the events has taken place.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Principal Sources of Funds

The main funding sources are income from investments and voluntary donations from members of the Company.

Investment Policy

The Trustees review the investment strategy and the investments and are happy with the suitability of these in accordance with the Trustees Act 2011.

The Trust Deed authorises the Trustees to make and hold investments on behalf of the charity.
