REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MAY 2024

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Significant activities

Mandir Activities

For the convenience of the devotees, the Mandir is open daily from 8:00 am to 1.00pm, and 4.30 pm to 8.30 pm. On festival days, the temple is open all day. With two priests in full time employment...

This year some of the festivals we celebrated are Maha Shivratri, Holi, Baba Balak Nath day, Janamashtami, Ganesh Visrjan, Ram Naumi, Navarates, Karva Chauth, Dussera, Tulsi Vivah and Diwali. There is a large gathering at every occasion and devotees were very happy for the facility provided.

In this year we introduced 108 Hanuman Chaalisa Paath and Chandi yagya and large number of people attended and participated and highly appreciated by devotees.

There was an increased uptake in religious Vedic marriages been celebrated in the temple premises as well as numerous other activities including mundan sanskar, havan yajans, birthdays, anniversaries, and other various blessings. Our priest also officiates at religious ceremonies away from the temple at the devotees homes or businesses. All these activities supplement our income and allows us to give a better service to the community.

Hindu Awareness

This year we have continued with the lecture series which are open to all. Maa Bageeshwari Didi, Shri Shivakant Ji maharaj, Sadhvi Suhridiya Ji were invited this year. In the next financial year, we are arranging for several schoolers to visit the mandir.

This provided an opportunity for educational discourse and improving understanding of Hindu principles amongst the community. These spiritual discourses are open to all communities.

Marriage Registration

The Hindu Cultural Resource Centre (HCRC) is now registered to facilitate registration of marriages and there is a growing trend in the community utilising this new facility.

Bhandara (Community Meal)

On Tuesdays and Sundays after prayers (Aarti) Bhandara is served to the congregation of up to 300 devotees on Tuesday and 200 devotees on a Sunday. Food ingredients such as flour, lentils, sugar, milk cooking oil to name are generously donated by the devotees. Vegetables are sourced from the local shops. These vegetarian meals are prepared by unpaid volunteers and our staff on occasions provides a saving for the centre. This prasada is mainly for consummation on the premises.

On most of the religious festivals, the kitchen is fully manned by the volunteers and prepares meals all day long.

Repairs and fitting

Fire alarms and emergency lights repaired and serviced.

Bhajan Mandali

Members of the Bhajan Mandali are dedicated and devoted people, who sing the praises of the lord in the temple as well as in the homes of the devotees. They go to the homes of devotees for Jagrattas, Bhagwati Chowki and any other religious function. They are also a major source of income of the temple. These selfless and tireless people are the epitome of devotion for the temple and the standard bearers of our cause. They are the harbinger of peace, prosperity for the devotees and to the visitor of the temple. May God reward them for their devotion and Sewa.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
