The Soteria Trust staff consists of the founding director, 1 full-time administrator/PA, 1 part-time administrator, accounts manager (1 day/week). Soteria uses voluntary workers as and when needed and occasionally seeks professional advice. The trustees delegate the day to day running of the charity to the director and meet regularly. New trustees to be appointed in the future are required to contribute in three specific areas: work, wisdom and wealth (directly and/or indirectly).

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objectives: the advancement of the Christian faith and religious/moral education and the provision of charitable works in the UK and abroad. The provision of educational scholarships and sponsorships to the poor to secure employment. The provision or maintenance of schools or colleges.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Andy Economides spoke and trained at 'events' across the UK and overseas. Throughout the year Soteria Trust continued to oversee the development of the Soteria Business School in Ibadan, Nigeria, West Africa.

Public Benefit: Soteria Trust operates for public benefit through;

1. Teaching at Christian church services and events in the UK and overseas.
2. Training in Christian discipleship, outreach and mentoring church leaders in the UK.
3. Provision of a secretarial and business school at Ibadan, Nigeria, targeted especially at needy young people.
4. Provision of children's sponsorships at Prospect School, Ibadan, Nigeria and Scholarships at the Soteria Business School, Ibadan.

All events and church services are open to anyone to attend, and although voluntary collections are taken at some services, donations are not compulsory. An honorarium or fee is usually charged for Soteria's attendance at training events, designed to contribute towards the Trust's costs. No admission fees are charged to participants for attendance at such events, and the fee is paid directly by the sponsoring body. The business school in Nigeria does charge individual fees for education and in some cases provision of accommodation and food. However, these fees are low by comparison with fees charged by similar institutions in Ibadan, and some scholarships are awarded to students who could not otherwise afford the fees, with the scholarships funded mostly by UK donors.

The Trustees are not aware of any harm caused by the Trust which needs to be balanced against benefits. The Trustees have had regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Charity Commission.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Grant-making policy: Soteria provides for its own charitable works and as such does not encourage others to apply for grants. However, grants are considered by the director. Educational scholarships/sponsorships or other requests for help is asked for mainly from abroad to the director for a decision and is at his discretion. The director may consult the trustees for advice.

Specific investment powers: The Trust Deed allows trustees investment powers as written in section 4.2 of the Deed: Power to invest, and vary the investment of, any money for the time being comprised in the Trust as the Trustees think fit and investments shall be taken to include the laying money for or towards the alteration, improvement, repair or decoration of the property, the acquisition of assets which do not produce income and the purchase of property with a view to its being used for any charitable purposes.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Soteria Trust completed three extensive charity trips to Ibadan, Nigeria (12 February – 6 March, 11 – 26 June, and 11 – 28 November) to develop, improve, and assist with the three educational projects, Soteria Business School (SBS) and Soteria Church. Soteria Charity Trips to Nigeria: Revd Andy Economides and Olalekan Adejumo completed two trips together (12 February – 6 March and 11 – 26 June 2022). Andy Economides did another charity visit to Ibadan, Nigeria from 11 – 28 November. Extensive time was spent at Prospect School with the sponsored children reading letters from their UK sponsors and replying. On return to the UK, the replies were posted to their sponsors in the UK.

In Nigeria, parents and children were interviewed and consequently awarded 7 new scholarships for children to attend Prospect School. Andy and Lekan spoke at various churches, SBS, and secondary schools during these visits.

The new Provost, Mrs Tomi Adedeji, was appointed at SBS in December 2022 and is making changes and improvements to the running of the school and the education provided with improved financial controls.

A survey was completed by all students in June at SBS. Strengths and weaknesses were highlighted, and appropriate action taken.

Sponsorship Programme: Soteria Trust provides schooling to Nigerian children from 4-18 years and scholarships for young people 16-30 to study at SBS. Soteria Trust also sponsors the 28 staff (full-time & part-time) at the Soteria School. All three different programmes are provided for by individuals that give each month to Soteria Trust. The programmes are growing.

Soteria Business School (SBS): Soteria Trust provided many sponsorships for needy young people (costing £16,679) to study at the Soteria Business School (SBS), Ibadan to gain qualifications to secure employment and/or further study. 85% of the student population were on scholarship. SBS has 28 staff funded from UK sponsors. SBS is affiliated to Chichester College. SBS also ran ATS1, & 2 and sponsorships are awarded each year. Soteria Trust's objectives for the SBS in Africa is to run and develop the school resulting in needy young people receiving sponsorships. This is being achieved. Soteria Trust donated £29,845 for operational costs to do this.

Prospect Children's School, Ibadan, Nigeria. Soteria Trust raised (through many individual sponsorships) and awarded Prospect Children's School educational scholarships totalling £13,144. At Prospect 76 children are sponsored through individual sponsorships.

Rescuing Children, Nigeria: Soteria Trust provides schooling at New Life School in Ibadan for 8 teenagers rescued from the dangerous North and from poverty. Once these and other children complete their secondary education, they will continue their education at the Soteria Business School on scholarship with feeding and living in the dormitories.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

It is the policy of the charity that unrestricted funds which have not been designated for a specific use should be maintained, if possible, at least to a level equivalent to between three and six months' expenditure. The trustees consider that the strength of the trust is the large number of regular (small) monthly gifts by bankers' order. The trust is not generally relying on large donations, which would make the trust more vulnerable.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F

Other optional information

The Soteria Business School in Africa needs more than £53,000 per year to operate properly. Soteria Trust manages the financial giving to the school in Africa carefully throughout the year. Soteria Trust needs new partners. Historically large one-off gifts to Soteria Trust for the school has been and continues to be vital to the school being established and continuing.

The Soteria Trust teams, sometimes with professional volunteers each year to the Soteria School is a key factor to the well-being and success of the school.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 / 01/ 2023

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law), you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("the 2006 Act").

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited for this year under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the 2011 Act"). In carrying out my examination, I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act).

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; or
- the accounts do not accord with such records; or
- the accounts do not comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
