There are regular weekly study circles for men, women and children. These include classes on Quranic sciences and commentary, and Tenets of Belief of the Islamic faith. These classes are led by the local Imams and invited guest teachers. Every month we invite a national or international guest speaker to attend the centre to give a talk or seminar and these are very well attended, with over 100 delegates attending from all over Greater Manchester.

During the weekend we have Arabic learning classes and our ladies have their own circles which act as a platform to discuss religious matters as well as any social issues they may be facing.

Non-Muslims are welcome to attend any of the centre activities as long as they conform to the expected behaviour and dress code within the mosque.

In recent years we have specifically invited our Non-Muslim neighbours to the Masjid on numerous occasions to better our relationship with them and to socialise with them. We invited our Non-Muslim friends and neighbours to participate in our celebration and feast for Eid-ul-Adha. We also took part in a nationwide initiative of welcoming non-muslims to Mosques as part of the "Visit My Mosque" day held during 2020. Since Mar 2018, we have teamed-up with the Myriad Foundation to help distribute food to the needy in the local area.

The centre has also been active in liaising with Manchester City Council and Greater Manchester Police (GMP) on community cohesion work. Members of the trust and the Imam have been instrumental in developing and delivering an 'Islamic Awareness Course' suitable for personnel within the public sector who come into contact with Muslims in the public arena, for example the Police, Prison Service, NHS, Council, Senior Managers and Policy Makers.

In addition the centre has welcomed several high profile dignitaries over the year, from both the local British community and the wider worldwide Muslim community

There are times during the course of the year when the centre is busier than normal. These listed below:

(a) Friday

Friday is the holiest day of the week for Muslims and special prayers are offered around early afternoon on this day.

(b) Ramadhan

The month of Ramadhan is the period when members of the Muslim community are fasting during the day. The normal prayers are attended by above average numbers and special prayers are offered in the evenings. Food and light refreshments are provided for the attendees in the evening every night of Ramadhan. During the last ten days of Ramadhan the centre is open 24 hours of the day.

(c) Eids

The Eid festival is celebrated twice every year by the Muslim community and once again the centre plays its full role in serving the need of the community. The first Eid is celebrated at the end of Ramadhan to mark the passing of the holy month and the second one is held approximately two and half months later to celebrate the end of the annual pilgrimage to Mecca, the Hajj. On Eid days due to the large numbers attending the centre for special morning prayers; we hold three separate prayers to accommodate the extra attendees. The first prayer in Urdu is held at 8.30am, the second in English is held at 9.30am and the third in Arabic is held at 10.30am.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Zakaria Masjid & Tablighi Centre's Trust

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025 which are set out on pages 7 to 15

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view", and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or
- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

In accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102), general volunteer time is not recognised; refer to the trustees annual report for more information about their contribution.

On receipt, donated professional services and donated facilities are recognised on the basis of the value of the gift to the charity which is the amount the charity would have been willing to pay to obtain services or facilities of equivalent economic benefit on the open market; a corresponding amount is then recognised in expenditure in the period of receipt.
