Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Trust are to advance education in the practice and study of Yoga and Vedanta and religious education for the benefit of the public.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

There were several public programmes at the centre throughout the year as well as at other venues such as various Hindu Mandirs and for other study groups in the UK. As ever Sunday morning provided an opportunity for members of the public to attend group meditation and talks with the facility to join Satsangas, Spiritual Discourses, online now available. The weekly hatha yoga classes continued throughout the week again mostly with an online facility, which has proven a successful format since the Covid Restrictions. Public talks were also provided at various venues by invitation. The annual summer residential retreat was held on the Purnima, full moon, weekend of July incorporating the Gurupurnima Puja & celebration. Counselling was available for and to individuals, couples and families as well Hatha Yoga students and Meditation practitioners and for the general public throughout the year. All trustees are aware of the guidance issued by the Charity Commissioners in relation to the trusts and charities public benefit guidance.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Hatha Yoga teachers offered classes on-line, in person on-site and outside programmes. The mediation hall was open for use every day with evening and morning sessions. The online classes enabled students from much further afield to join talks and yoga classes from the comfort of their homes. Various celebrations and public religious worship were held throughout the year as per our usual annual programme including Mahashivaratri, Bhagavatpada Jayanti, Gurupurnima and a Christmas Puja & celebration which was held the Sunday before Christmas and on Christmas day itself. Weekly Sunday morning programmes were held from 10 – 11.30/12 noon.

Throughout the year the ashram's resident teachers gave spiritual guidance to guests and visitors from around the UK and from abroad covering approximately 850 hours. This was given by phone, online and on site, via the telephone, video calls and in-person. We continue to provide online services after the successful setting up of it during Covid restrictions. The centre offered some 430 days of retreat throughout the year in the form of group retreats and long and short personal retreats. This years' Spiritual Confluence was attended by participants from around the UK. Regular refurbishment and maintenance works of the centre and its grounds were ongoing throughout the year, with some retreat guests offering Seva, Service, during their stays.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees aim to maintain free reserves in unrestricted funds at a level which equates to approximately three months of unrestricted charitable expenditure. The trustees consider that this level will provide sufficient funds to respond to applications for grants and ensure that support and governance costs are covered.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
