Trustee selection methods
(eg. appointed by, elected by)

There has to be at least 3 and no more than 5 trustees in number and it has to include the Chief Imam of the mosque maintained by the trust.

The power of appointing new trustees is vested in the surviving or continuing trustees including the founder or his agent for the time being.

In selecting persons to be appointed as trustees, the trustees take into account the benefits of appointing a person who through residence, occupation, employment or otherwise has special knowledge of the area of benefit or who is otherwise able by virtue of his or her personal or professional qualifications to make a contribution to the pursuit of the objects or the management of the charity.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- 1) The advancement of the Islamic religion and in particular to provide a mosque and other facilities.
- 2) The advancement of education and in particular to establish and support a religious school (both residential and non-residential)
- 3) To provide or assist in the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation.
- 4) The relief of poverty and sickness.

Receipts and Payments Accounts for the year ended 31st December 2022

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity:

- holds classes;
- donates to organisations;
- provides buildings/facilities/open space.

Charity commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them, consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP;
- Make judgments and accounting estimate's that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the charities act 2011 and the charity (account and reports) regulations 2008. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity was able to raise funds to help them fund their charitable objects. They have been able to advance the Islamic religion through classes, assisting in the provision of facilities for recreation and other leisure time occupations such as Giyarwin refreshments.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.
