Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Out of Afrika 2023–2024: A Year of Hope, Growth, and Lasting Impact.

Over the past year, Out of Afrika has made significant strides in empowering disadvantaged and orphaned children and youth in Kenya.

We supported students throughout their academic journeys by ensuring access to education, providing essential school supplies, and offering mentorship to help them thrive. Several students achieved their dreams of progressing into higher education, while others continue to advance with our ongoing support.

Beyond education, we responded to the needs of vulnerable families through food parcel appeals, bringing relief and joy during festive seasons and difficult times. These initiatives strengthened our role as a source of hope and stability in the community.

We also championed the empowerment of girls and women by celebrating their achievements and reinforcing our commitment to gender equity across our programs.

Despite wider national challenges and unrest, we remained steadfast in providing stability, hope, and opportunities for the children and families we serve. Our resilience, combined with the unwavering generosity of partners and donors, has ensured that hundreds of lives continue to be transformed.

From education to humanitarian aid, and from gender empowerment to community resilience, Out of Afrika's work this year has been a testament to our mission of building brighter futures through compassion, opportunity, and lasting impact.

Chair's Statement – Out of Afrika 2023–2024

The past year has been one of resilience, growth, and lasting impact. At Out of Afrika, our mission to empower disadvantaged and orphaned children in Kenya through education and community support has remained at the heart of everything we do.

Thanks to the generosity of our donors, corporate partners, and grant-makers, we supported students at all levels of education, from providing school supplies to celebrating those who progressed to higher education. Alongside this, our Christmas and Easter Food Parcel appeals brought much-needed relief to vulnerable families, ensuring dignity and hope during difficult times.

Our commitment to gender equity has also been strengthened, with renewed focus on empowering women and girls within our programs. Despite the wider challenges facing Kenya, including political and social unrest, we continued to provide stability and opportunity to the children and families we serve.

Every pound raised has been carefully directed to our charitable objectives: education, humanitarian relief, and capacity building. We maintain a prudent and ethical approach to financial management, ensuring that resources are maximised for impact while safeguarding the sustainability of our work.

This year has shown what is possible when compassion meets opportunity. We are deeply grateful to all who have supported us, and we look forward to building even brighter futures together.

Other optional information

Thank You for Walking With Us

This past year has been a journey of hope and transformation. With your support, Out of Afrika has kept children in school, celebrated students progressing to higher education, and provided vital food parcels that brought relief and dignity to families in need. Together, we have created opportunities where there was once only struggle and built resilience in communities facing many challenges.

Looking ahead, we are committed to deepening our impact by expanding education, skills development, and mentorship opportunities for young people. We also plan to grow vocational training and strengthen our partnerships, ensuring sustainable change for generations to come. None of this would be possible without your generosity. Thank you for believing in brighter futures — and for being part of the change.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/ members of	Charity Name Out of Africa
On accounts for the year ended	31 st October 2024	Charity no (if any)	1082316
	Set out on pages One and two <small>(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)</small>

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act), as amended by s.28 of the Charities Act 2006) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 43 of the Act, as amended),
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, as amended), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:
 - proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); and
 - accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
