Appointment of Trustees

As set out in the Articles of Association, at every annual general meeting a trustee shall retire from office by rotation. The trustee to retire by rotation shall be the longest serving trustee since their last appointment. If the Charity does not fill the vacancy the retiring trustee shall be deemed to have been reappointed.

No person other than a trustee retiring by rotation shall be appointed or reappointed a trustee at any general meeting unless he is recommended by the trustee; or not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days, before the appointed for the meeting, notice has been given to the Charity of the intention to propose for appointment or reappointment together with a notice by that person of his willingness to be appointed or reappointed.

Risk Management

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the charity, and are satisfied that systems and procedures are in place to mitigate the exposure to the major risks.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Charity Objectives And Aims

The Charitable Company is established to further those purposes both in the United Kingdom and abroad recognised as charitable by English Law. The charity's main objects for the year continued to be to provide charitable relief for poor people in the UK, Israel and the USA and such other charitable purposes as the trustees decide, with particular reference to charitable purposes benefiting Jewish people and institutions.

In furtherance of the aforementioned objects, the Charitable Company receives income from charitable receipts and investments, which it utilises in the provision and distribution of grants and donations that fall within the objectives of the Charitable Company. No change is envisaged in the immediate future.

Public Benefit

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities and setting the grant making policy for the year.

Volunteers

The charity has no volunteers other than the trustees.

Grant Making Policy

The Trustees are approached for donations by a wide variety of charitable institutions. The Trustees consider all requests which they receive and make donations based on the level of funds available to charities whose purpose fall within the objects of the Charitable Company.

In making grants and donations, the Trustees use their personal knowledge of the relevant institutions, their representatives, operational efficiency and reputation. The Trustees monitor the application of the grants and donations by meeting with representatives of the institutions and obtaining information as to the utilisation of funds.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE RABBI
MOSHE & LEAH DERMER FOUNDATION
YEAR ENDED 30 APRIL 2025

I report to the trustees on my examination of the financial statements of The Rabbi Moshe & Leah Dermer Foundation ('the charity') for the year ended 30 April 2025.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND BASIS OF REPORT

As the trustees of the company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the financial statements do not accord with those records; or
3. the financial statements do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the financial statements have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

THE RABBI MOSHE & LEAH DERMER FOUNDATION
COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEAR ENDED 30 APRIL 2025

1. General information

The charity is a public benefit entity and a private company limited by guarantee, registered in England and Wales and a registered charity in England and Wales. The address of the registered office is New Burlington House, 1075 Finchley Road, London, NW11 0PU.

2. Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in compliance with FRS 102, 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland', the Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (Charities SORP (FRS 102)) and the Companies Act 2006.

3. Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, as modified by the revaluation of certain financial assets and liabilities and investment properties measured at fair value through income or expenditure.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the entity.

Going concern

There are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue as a going concern.

Judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

There are no judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported.

Foreign currencies

Foreign currency transactions are initially recorded in the functional currency, by applying the spot exchange rate as at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rate ruling at the reporting date, with any gains or losses being taken to the statement of financial activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees to further any of the charity's purposes.

Incoming resources

All donations are recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities (SOFA) of the Charitable Company when the charity has unconditional entitlement to the resources. Donations represent voluntary amounts received during the year.

All other income is recognised on a receivable basis.

Resources expended

Governance Costs

Governance costs include costs of the preparation and audit of financial statements and cost of any legal advice to Trustees on governance or constitutional matters and is recognised on an accrual basis.

Liability Recognition

Creditors are recognised as soon as there is a present obligation committing the entity to pay out resources, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount can be measured or estimated reliably.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments are classified and accounted for, according to the substance of the contractual arrangement, as either financial assets, financial liabilities or equity instruments. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities.

The Charity has financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value.

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount due. Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid. Creditors and provisions are recognised where the company has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably. Creditors and provisions are normally recognised at their settlement amount.

4. Limited by guarantee

The charity is a company limited by guarantee and has no share capital. The members of the company are the Trustees named on page 1. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £10 per member of the charity.
