RCCG Kingdom Life Assembly Doncaster

Charitable activities and public benefit report

Charity number 1106286
Activities through 15 October 2026 and forthcoming programme

Serving Doncaster through faith and community

RCCG Kingdom Life Assembly Doncaster is a Christian charity based at The Kingdom House, 27 Shotton Walk, Doncaster. The church combines worship, Bible learning, prayer and fellowship with practical community support, including a food bank held at its premises on Wednesday evenings and Sunday mornings. Its programme brings together religious activities with opportunities for families, young people and volunteers to participate in community life.

This report presents the church's ongoing food bank, selected programmes publicised between April and October 2026, and the forthcoming October health programme, alongside a separately dated account of earlier community work. It describes the activities offered and the ways in which they seek to benefit people in Doncaster and those joining through online services.

Our charitable purposes

The charity's registered purposes concern the advancement of the Christian faith in accordance with its statement of faith, and the relief of poverty. The Charity Commission register identifies the general public as beneficiaries and Doncaster as an area in which the charity operates. [1]

The food bank gives practical expression to the charity's purpose of relieving poverty by providing food support to the local community. Worship, teaching, outreach and access to religious events further the advancement of the Christian faith. Family fellowship, youth participation and voluntary service provide associated opportunities for people to form relationships, share interests and support one another.

Public benefit in practice

The church's public benefit includes practical help with food needs, access to Christian teaching and worship, opportunities for spiritual encouragement, and engagement beyond the church building. Invitations to friends, families, colleagues and neighbours extend participation into the wider community. Online access and the offer of free transport to a regional worship event provide additional ways for people to take part.

The programme reflects a local church seeking to put its faith into practice through learning, service and relationships. These opportunities are the focus of the public benefit account that follows.

The activity account draws on church notices, newsletters, programme flyers and the church's account of its food bank. Historical activities are drawn from the Doncaster report for 2013. [2–5]

1 Community food bank and practical support

Regular food support at the church premises

RCCG Kingdom Life Assembly Doncaster operates a community food bank at its premises at The Kingdom House, 27 Shotton Walk, Doncaster. Sessions take place on Wednesday evenings and Sunday mornings, providing a regular point of access to food support for local residents. [4]

The church reports attendance of approximately 30–50 community members, representing different age groups. This reflects engagement with people across the local community and the role of the church premises as a place where practical assistance can be accessed.

Relieving hardship through food provision

The food bank directly supports the charity's purpose of relieving poverty. Providing food assistance is a practical response to the needs of people experiencing difficulty meeting everyday food costs. Its immediate benefit is access to food, helping ease pressure on household resources.

Regular Wednesday evening and Sunday morning sessions give the service a recurring place in the church's community programme. The two time slots provide different opportunities for residents to attend, alongside the church's wider activities.

Supporting people across different age groups

The reported attendance spans different ages. This gives the food bank a community focus, bringing people with a range of circumstances into contact with a local source of support. The service contributes to the charity's wider commitment to care for individuals and families through practical action.

Food provision can also create opportunities for conversation and neighbourly contact. Its central purpose remains the provision of food support, with the wider social value arising from a regular and approachable community setting.

Public benefit

The identifiable public benefit is practical assistance with food needs for members of the local community. The food bank connects the charity's stated purpose of relieving poverty with an ongoing service delivered from its Doncaster premises.

The attendance range is an approximate figure reported by the church. It is not presented as a total of unique beneficiaries or multiplied into an annual number of people supported. [4]

2 Worship prayer and Christian learning

Sunday worship and fellowship

Sunday worship is central to the church's religious programme. The 2026 newsletters publish a Sunday service from 10.00 am to 12.30 pm, bringing together prayer, praise, Bible teaching, hymns and fellowship. The order of service includes a welcome to first-time visitors, helping new attendees become familiar with church life. [2]

Recent publicity includes Sunday services on 19 and 26 July, the August thanksgiving service on 2 August, a special service on 30 August and the September thanksgiving service on 6 September. These services provide opportunities for people to worship together and explore the Christian faith.

Easter programme in April 2026

The Easter 2026 flyer advertised a Solemn Assembly on Friday 3 April, from 3.00 pm to 6.00 pm, with hymns, prayer and Bible teaching, and an Easter Sunday Thanksgiving Service on 5 April, from 10.30 am to 1.00 pm. An outreach programme titled Let's Go A Fishing was also publicised. The flyer listed contributions from the church's voices, drama group and children's and youth department, offering opportunities for different generations to participate in religious celebration and outreach. [5]

Online participation

Service invitations provide access through Zoom, Facebook and YouTube. These channels offer an alternative for people who cannot attend the church building and allow family and friends to follow religious services remotely. The combination of physical and online participation broadens the ways in which people can connect with the church.

Bible study

Wednesday Bible study offers a regular setting for learning from scripture and considering its application to daily life. The published programme runs from 7.00 pm to 8.30 pm. Notices cover twelve separate Wednesday dates between 22 July and 14 October 2026. [2]

The monthly newsletters extend that learning through devotional articles, hymns and prayer material. August's theme was Victory, September's was Holiness, and October's was Health and Healing. These themes reflect the church's religious teaching and provide material for personal reflection as well as shared discussion.

Prayer and special worship programmes

The published Friday prayer programme runs from 7.00 pm to 8.00 pm. Nine separate regular Friday prayer dates are represented in notices between July and October 2026. These gatherings offer a shared setting for prayer and spiritual encouragement.

Special Success and Breakthrough Nights were advertised for 28 August and 25 September. The August programme carried the theme I Am More Than Conqueror. September's theme was Lord Let the Joys of Holiness Be My Portion, with a physical meeting at the Doncaster church and an additional online option. [2]

Benefit to participants

Worship and learning give people opportunities to practise their faith, reflect on personal conduct and participate in a community of shared belief. Prayer and fellowship offer spiritual encouragement, while online provision supports continued contact for people attending remotely.

3 Community outreach and access

Taking religious engagement into the community

The church's outreach publicity invited people to take part in evangelism and prayer walks in local residential areas. The purpose was to share the Christian message, pray for the community and create opportunities for conversation beyond the church premises. [2]

The August outreach was advertised for Saturday 8 August 2026 at 2.00 pm, with participants meeting at the church before visiting the area identified on the flyer as Methley and Chevet House. The invitation welcomed both people experienced in evangelism and those taking part for the first time.

The September outreach was advertised for Saturday 19 September 2026 at 3.00 pm. Participants were again invited to meet at the church, with Silverwood House named on the flyer. Both invitations placed local engagement at the centre of the activity.

The public benefit sought through these programmes is access to religious conversation, prayer and an invitation into church community life. They also offer volunteers a practical setting in which to serve their neighbourhood and develop confidence in engaging with others.

Regional worship and shared participation

The church promoted participation in wider RCCG religious programmes, including online access to the annual convention in August and a workers' rally in September. Sharing these opportunities connects the local congregation with the wider faith community and makes additional religious teaching available to participants.

Publicity also invited families, friends, colleagues and neighbours to God Be Praised 2026 at the Hope Centre, Bernard Road, Sheffield, on 10 October 2026, from 4.00 pm to 8.00 pm. The programme was described as an evening of worship, praise, prayer, teaching and fellowship. [2]

Free transport offer

Free bus transport from RCCG Kingdom Life Assembly in Doncaster was offered for the Sheffield event. Notices provided a local pick-up point and advance booking arrangements, with seats subject to availability. This was a practical offer to reduce travel costs and make participation easier for people wishing to attend.

The church's role described here is the promotion of participation and the local travel offer. The concert was a regional event held in Sheffield.

Connecting with a wider public

Together, local outreach, online services and travel support show several ways in which a church can extend religious participation beyond its building. The emphasis is on creating opportunities for contact and involvement, including for people joining through personal invitations or remote access.

4 Children young people families and volunteers

Youth and family participation

Kingdom Youth Aerobics Day was advertised for Saturday 8 August 2026 from 8.30 am to 10.00 am in the park beside the church at 27 Shotton Walk. Parents were invited to join the young people. The activity brought an emphasis on physical exercise into the youth programme and offered an opportunity for shared participation across generations. [2]

This type of activity creates a setting in which young people and adults can spend time together around a common interest. The intended benefit is participation, movement and social contact alongside the church's spiritual programme.

Resources for children's learning

An August notice offered age-related children's religious manuals for the 2026–2027 programme. These resources were intended to support children's Christian learning. The notice specified a charge for the manual and delivery. [2]

Couples fellowship and family occasions

Couples were invited to join a fellowship communication group in July 2026. This provided a channel for shared discussion and contact within the church's family fellowship. A church wedding on 1 August was also shared through an online link, allowing remote participation in a significant religious and family occasion. [2]

These activities make space for relationships and family life within the church community. Their value lies in opportunities for fellowship, shared celebration and ongoing contact.

The contribution of volunteers

The church's communications identify a range of ministry and support groups, including children's and youth teachers, ushers, music teams, transport, sanitation, administration, house fellowship, follow-up and visitation, and community social responsibility. These channels reflect the range of roles associated with church and community activity. [2]

A workers' meeting was advertised for 25 July 2026 under the theme Acceptable Workmanship Part 2. The September workers' rally offered a further opportunity for religious encouragement and preparation for service.

Voluntary participation creates opportunities to contribute time and skills to a shared purpose. Teaching, music, welcoming, communication and practical support are ways in which people can take responsibility and work together. Their contribution helps sustain religious and community participation.

Building relationships through participation

The family and volunteer programme complements worship and learning by offering different points of connection. People may engage as parents, young participants, couples, musicians or practical helpers, contributing to a shared community while developing relationships with others.

5 Men’s fellowship and health awareness

Men’s fellowship in September 2026

A Men’s Talk Series fellowship meeting was advertised for Saturday 12 September 2026 at 3.00 pm on Zoom. The programme agenda covered finance, men’s health and men’s welfare, under the themes of men supporting one another and having a place in shared discussion. [5]

The meeting offered a setting for discussion of practical concerns alongside fellowship. Its intended value was to encourage conversation about wellbeing, financial matters and welfare, and to strengthen supportive contact between men. The online format provided a way to join remotely.

Forthcoming Total Healing health programme

At the reporting date of 15 October 2026, the church had publicised a health programme themed Total Healing, scheduled for 16–18 October 2026. The flyer brings together women’s and men’s health, with an emphasis on healthier people, families and community life. [5]

The programme is presented by the Church Rapha Team, described on the flyer as a fellowship of health professionals at KLA. It combines online prayer, a virtual conference or workshop, and a Sunday health talk.

Date	Planned programme
Friday 16 October 2026	Online prayers
Saturday 17 October 2026	Virtual conference and workshop from 11.00 am to 4.00 pm
Sunday 18 October 2026	Sunday service with a health talk

Purpose and intended public benefit

The programme seeks to create opportunities to learn about men’s and women’s health and to consider wellbeing within family and community life. Bringing health themes into an accessible church setting can encourage discussion and interest in personal wellbeing.

The health programme is forthcoming as at 15 October 2026. The activities above describe its advertised schedule and aims; attendance and results will follow after delivery.

A broader approach to community care

Men’s fellowship and the planned health programme complement the church’s food bank, family activities and spiritual support. Together, these activities reflect attention to practical needs, relationships and wellbeing alongside the charity’s religious purposes.

6 Earlier community work in Doncaster

The Doncaster trustees' report for the year ended 31 December 2013 records a broader range of community activities. The following account relates specifically to that historical period. [3]

Summer fair

The 2013 report describes a summer fair that drew people from the local area and created an experience of community bonding. Such a gathering offered neighbours a shared occasion to meet and connect with the church in a community setting.

The value of the fair lay in bringing people together around a local event. It is a historical example of the charity's interest in relationships with residents beyond its regular religious services.

Educational support

The same report describes educational activities intended to supplement schooling and support young people who had missed mainstream education. The stated approach connected the charity's community role with the learning needs of children and young adults.

The benefit sought was additional support for learning and development. This provision forms part of the charity's historical account of its work with young people.

Home and hospital visits

The historical report records prayer meetings for people in need and visits to homes and hospitals. These activities offered personal contact and spiritual support, including for people whose circumstances could make attendance at church difficult.

The associated benefit was companionship, listening and religious encouragement. Personal and health information about the people visited is not included in this public report.

Women and men conferences

Women's and men's conferences were also reported in 2013, with aims relating to poverty and social inclusion and participation by people from different walks of life. The gatherings provided opportunities for connection and engagement around the concerns of individuals and families.

A continuing emphasis on community

The historical activities illustrate the charity's longstanding interest in worship, learning, relationships and service. The recent programme described elsewhere in this report continues those themes through Bible study, local outreach, family invitations and voluntary participation. Historical activities are presented separately from the July–October 2026 programme.

Reporting approach

The report distinguishes ongoing provision, publicised programmes, forthcoming activities and historical work. Descriptions of benefit explain the purpose and opportunities associated with each activity. They do not present unmeasured changes in health, educational attainment, poverty or social isolation as established results.

The presentation draws on the Charity Commission's public benefit reporting guidance and published examples of trustees' reports. It focuses on the relationship between charitable purposes, activities and benefit to the public.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act)) and that an independent examination is required. The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of FCCA.
Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:
- examine the accounts under Section 43 of the 1993 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report
My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view ' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.
Independent examiner's statement
In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:
(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met; or
(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1.2 Change in basis of accounting

There has been no change to the accounting policies

Note 2 Accounting policies

This standard list of accounting policies has been applied by the charity except for those deleted. Where a different or additional policy has been adopted then this is detailed in the box below.

INCOMING RESOURCES

Recognition of incoming resources

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when:

- the charity becomes entitled to the resources;
- the trustees are virtually certain they will receive the resources; and
- the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Incoming resources with related expenditure

Where incoming resources have related expenditure (as with fundraising or contract income) the incoming resources and related expenditure are reported gross in the SoFA.

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the charity has unconditional entitlement to the resources.

Tax reclaims on donations and gifts

Incoming resources from tax reclaims are included in the SoFA at the same time as the gift to which they relate.

Contractual income and performance related grants

This is only included in the SoFA once the related goods or services have been delivered.

Gifts in kind

Gifts in kind are accounted for at a reasonable estimate of their value to the charity or the amount actually realised.

Gifts in kind for sale or distribution are included in the accounts as gifts only when sold or distributed by the charity.

Gifts in kind for use by the charity are included in the SoFA as incoming resources when receivable.

Donated services and facilities

These are only included in incoming resources (with an equivalent amount in resources expended) where the benefit to the charity is reasonably quantifiable, measurable and material. The value placed on these resources is the estimated value to the charity of the service or facility received.

Volunteer help

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the trustees' annual report.

Investment income

This is included in the accounts when receivable.

Investment gains and losses

This includes any gain or loss on the sale of investments and any gain or loss resulting from revaluing investments to market value at the end of the year.

EXPENDITURE AND LIABILITIES

Liability recognition

Liabilities are recognised as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out resources.

Governance costs

Include costs of the preparation and examination of statutory accounts, the costs of trustee meetings and cost of any legal advice to trustees on governance or constitutional matters.

Grants with performance conditions

Where the charity gives a grant with conditions for its payment being a specific level of service or output to be provided, such grants are only recognised in the SoFA once the recipient of the grant has provided the specified service or output.

Grants payable without performance conditions

These are only recognised in the accounts when a commitment has been made and there are no conditions to be met relating to the grant which remain in the control of the charity.

Support Costs

Support costs include central functions and have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources, eg allocating property costs by floor areas, or per capita, staff costs by the time spent and other costs by their usage.

ASSETS

Tangible fixed assets for use by charity

These are capitalised if they can be used for more than one year, and cost at least £500. They are valued at cost or a reasonable value on receipt.

Investments

Investments quoted on a recognised stock exchange are valued at market value at the year end. Other investment assets are included at trustees' best estimate of market value.

Stocks and work in progress

These are valued at the lower of cost or market value.

Note 3 Analysis of incoming resources

Incoming resources may be further analysed if this would help the reader of the accounts.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
