DIRECTOR'S REPORT 2025

20 Report of the Trustees for the Year ended 31 December 2025

The trustees, who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act, submit their annual report and the financial statements for the period ending 31 December 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in 2005 in preparing the annual report and financial statements of the charity.

The charity is a charitable company limited by guarantee and was formed on 23rd October 2006. It is governed by a memorandum and articles of association. Its objects are to advance the education of the public in all areas of human ecology from a Christian perspective.

Reference and administrative details of the charity, its trustees and advisers

The Administrative duties of the charity are performed by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee structure enables the organisation to respond to the day to day management efficiently and in accordance with the aims of the charity. It provides support for national and international projects.

Regular meetings are held with the Chairman of the Board of Trustees and are also held with the Trustees of the Charity to make policy decisions and to provide updates on the activities of the Charity.

Executive Committee members:
Sir Bryan K Sanderson C.B.E (Chairman)
Mercedes Jaureguibeitia (Executive Director)
Antonio Argandona (Director)

ORGANISATION

The day to day organisation is looked after principally by two of the Trustees who monitor the running of the Charity in accordance with the agreed aims and needs. The annual accounts, reports and policy are agreed by the Trustees. The Charity does not own property. Its assets are the equipment and the bank balances, and it has no further reserves.

RESERVES POLICY

The Charity allocates the income received from donors to support different ventures in keeping with its principal objects, the amount depending on the level of donations obtained in any one period. Each period the income received is expended in furthering the Charity's objectives and it has no investments. Its ability to support different ventures relies on the level of donations obtained in any one period, but it has no specific forward commitments or contractual requirements to fulfil financial obligations and as such there are no risks involved. The Charity does not expend more than it has available and does not go into deficit.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The trustees have examined the major strategic and operational risks which the Charity faces and confirm that systems are in place to enable regular reports to be produced so that the necessary steps can be taken to lessen these risks.

PUBLIC BENEFIT

The Trustees confirm that in accordance with Section 4 of the Charities Act 2006, they have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charities Commission. They confirm that the activities of the Charity are for the benefit of the public in general.

25 has been another successful year for HRF as we continue to place the home at the centre of society, recognising that the concept of home is fundamental to what is specifically human in all forms of work. Focusing on the home highlights relational and social dimensions that are increasingly recognised in interdisciplinary research.
This year has been marked by the development of the vision and mission for our forthcoming Experts Meetings, the search for both academic and financial partners, and the announcement of two new publications: one on Climate Change, led by Prof. Abdelmonem, and another on Nurturing Relationships, led by Prof. Marc Grau.
In addition, our website received more than 115,000 visits during the year.

AHEAD: RESEARCH AND ACADEMIC PROJECTS

Experts Meeting: Home and Engaged Fatherhood (29–30 June 2026)
This Experts Meeting will be held in partnership with ICWF (IESE), Harvard University, and the International University of Catalonia (UIC). Academic directors are already in place, and 60% of the required funding has been secured with the support of STI and the Panamericana University of Mexico.
This initiative builds on existing expertise and research highlighting a significant social trend: the growing recognition of both the societal and personal need for engaged fatherhood. A home that nurtures, supports, and provides children with the best start in life creates positive and lasting effects.

Experts Meeting: The Anthropological Value of Work and Its Impact on the Home (2027)

We have established a partnership with the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross as co-organisers of the 2027 Experts Meeting.

PARTNERSHIPS AND COLLABORATION

In 2025, we continued our partnership agreement with the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross to support interdisciplinary research and analysis on the culture of care, with the aim of contributing possible responses to the current anthropological crisis.

In addition to participating in the Scientific Committee of the research project, HRF led a round table titled "The Home Factor: Between Caring for Oneself, Others, and the Environment" during the International Conference "Perspectives on Altruism: Empathy, Compassion, Care," held in Rome from 6–8 March at the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross.

HRF will also contribute on 14 April 2026 to the second international conference on the theme "Human Ecology: Dwelling as Care for the Environment and for Relationships," which will take place at the Pontifical University in Salamanca, Spain. The objective is to initiate reflection on another crucial dimension of the culture of care, moving beyond superficial forms of environmentalism in order to identify the anthropological and scientific foundations of care for creation and for persons. https://www.ifanthropology.org/en/culture-care-response-anthropological-crisis and https://en.pusc.it/article/international-conference-human-ecology-dwelling-and-care.

HRF BOOK LAUNCHES IN 2025

Home and Migration

March 2025 Madrid – Complutense University

Ángela de Miguel presented the Home and Migration book at the Complutense University of Madrid at the invitation of the Faculty of Communication.

March 2025 | Rome – Luigi Sturzo Institute

The book was launched in Rome with the participation of Prof. Sophia Aguirre, Vincenzo Bassi, Alberto Michelini, Marco Impagliazzo, and Monsignor Robert J. Vitillo.

April 2025 | Bogotá – Universidad de los Andes

The Universidad de los Andes invited Prof. Antonio Argandoña and Prof. Magaly Sanchez to present the HRF Migration book.

Nurturing Relationships (Publication in 2026)

June 2025 | Barcelona – IESE Business School

Prof. María José Bosch and Prof. Marc Grau-Grau presented our forthcoming book Nurturing Healthy Relationships at Home and Work at IESE. The book will be published by Springer in 2026.

LEGACY PLAN

In June, we launched our Legacy Page on our website www.homerenaissancefoundation.org, promoting the idea that something far more valuable than material goods can be passed on: the gift of a good home.
Through this initiative, we hope to reach individuals who may wish to dedicate part of their inheritance to supporting HRF's mission. Teresa Payne from Parfitt Cresswell Solicitors is assisting and advising us in this matter.

COMMUNICATION

The HRF website experienced strong growth in 2025, with 74,439 unique visitors and more than 29,300 document downloads. In total, the site recorded 115,610 visits and nearly 900,000 hits.
These results indicate an expanding global reach, strong demand for our content, and a high level of user engagement.

In collaboration with IFFD and its PAUSE communication platform, we interviewed five of our HRF directors about the home as the place where each person is loved as they are; where we learn about care, entrepreneurship, and leadership; where we give meaning to work; and where we discover that even the distribution of physical spaces can influence family life.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also directors of Home Renaissance Foundation for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for the period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the charity and financial information included on the charity's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of Financial Statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Sir Bryan K Sanderson CBE – Chairman

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees of Home Renaissance Foundation

I report on the accounts of the company for the period ended 31 December 2025 which are set out on pages 10 to 20.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 (the Act). The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this period under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to an audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

2. I have no concerns and have come across no matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

For the periods ending 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 the company was entitled to exemption from audit under section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Directors' responsibilities:

- The members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the period in question in accordance with section 476;

- The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Act with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts.

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008).

These financial statements were approved and authorised for issue by the Board on _____ 2026.

On behalf of the Board

Sir Bryan K Sanderson CBE - Chairman

Notes forming part of the Financial Statements for the Year ended 31 December 2025

1 Accounting policies

(a) Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, with the exception of investments which are included at market value. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP), "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" published in 2005 and applicable accounting standards.

(b) Company status

The charity is a company limited by guarantee. The members of the company are the trustees named on page 2. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member of the charity.

(c) Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the trustees for particular purposes. The aim and use of each designated fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements. Restricted funds are funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors or which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The cost of raising and administering such funds are charged against the specific fund. The aim and use of each restricted fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

Endowment funds represent those assets which must be held permanently by the charity, principally investments. Income arising on the endowment funds can be used in accordance with the objects of the charity and is included as unrestricted income. Any capital gains or losses arising on the investments form part of the fund. Investment management charges and legal advice relating to the fund are charged against the fund.

Investment income and gains are allocated to the appropriate fund.

(d) Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the charity is legally entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. For legacies, entitlement is the earlier of the charity being notified of an impending distribution or the legacy being received.

Gifts in kind donated for distribution are included at valuation and recognised as income when they are distributed to the projects. Gifts donated for resale are included as income when they are sold. Donated facilities are included at the value to the charity where this can be quantified and a third party is bearing the cost. No amounts are included in the financial statements for services donated by volunteers.

(e) Resources expended

All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with use of the resources. Premises overheads have been allocated on a floor area basis and other overheads have been allocated on the basis of the head count.

Fund-raising costs are those incurred in seeking voluntary contributions and do not include the costs of disseminating information in support of the charitable activities. Support costs are those costs incurred directly in support of expenditure on the objects of the charity. Management and administration costs are those incurred in connection with administration of the charity and compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

(f) Investments

Investments are stated at market value at the balance sheet date. The Statement of Financial Activities includes the net gains and losses arising on revaluations and disposals throughout the period if relevant.

(g) Foreign currencies

Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded at the rate ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities are retranslated at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. All differences are taken to the Statement of Financial Activities.

(h) Tangible fixed assets and depreciation
Depreciation is provided on all tangible fixed assets at rates calculated to write off the cost on a straight line basis over their expected useful economic lives.
