TRUSTEES' REPORT

The Trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Structure, governance and management

St. John's church is based at the Parish Centre, 21, Housley Park, Chapeltown, Sheffield. Due to the legal closure of its building in 2003, the congregation meets for worship both at the Parish Centre and at the Newton Hall on Cowley Lane in Chapeltown. St. John's is part of the Diocese of Sheffield within the Church of England.

The PCC has enjoyed charitable status since 23 September 2009 (Charity number 1131768).

The PCC has up-to-date policies which are regularly reviewed: a Safeguarding Policy (updated and approved November 2024), covering all issues relating to the safeguarding of children and young people and vulnerable adults, a Health & Safety Policy (updated and approved January 2026) and a Domestic Abuse Policy (approved September 2024).

The method of appointment of PCC members is set out in the Church Representation Rules. All church attendees are encouraged to register on the Electoral Roll and to stand for election to the PCC.

New trustees are welcomed and receive training in their duties and responsibilities at their first PCC meeting after the Annual Parochial Church Meeting each year. They also receive a leaflet published by the Diocese of Sheffield on the responsibilities of Trustees. At each PCC meeting any further questions or issues are dealt with as they arise.

The PCC member who served during the year and is not a trustee of the charity was Mr Mikey Gilmour (Youth worker).

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

In planning our activities for the year, we kept in mind at our trustee meetings the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

The activities of our church provide tangible benefits to many in our community, and in particular by

1. The provision of weekly public worship open to all.

2. Pastoral work, including visits to the bereaved and the sick.

3. Teaching of the Christian faith through sermons, courses, special events and our cell groups.

4. Taking of religious assemblies in schools.

5. The provision of a youth group in a locality which has no other significant youth work of any kind.

6. Supporting other charities in the UK and overseas.

Objectives and activities
St. John's PCC has the responsibility of co-operating with the vicar, Rick Stordy, in promoting in the ecclesiastical parish the whole mission of the Church: pastoral, evangelistic, social and ecumenical, in accordance with the Church's vision statement:

St. John's is a church here for God, here for you, aiming to grow UP towards God, IN with each other and, OUT to others

The trustees have paid due regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

The PCC has responsibility for running costs and maintenance for the Parish Centre, which was used for a midweek communion on the first Wednesday of each month, the E68 and D:Group youth groups, the Bumps & Babies and St. John's Tots groups and Wednesday Friends who use the Parish Centre each week and contribute to the Parish Centre income. There were a number of occasional or less regular community users, including the Nigerian Anglican Mission Congregation who met at the Parish Centre on Sunday mornings until May 2025, when they moved on to their own building. The St. John's church office is also based at the Parish Centre.

Electoral Roll & Sunday worship
As is usual when the Roll is revised, there was a decrease on the Electoral Roll from 139 to 117, of whom 35 were non-residents in the parish.

Our average Sunday attendance increased only very slightly over last year, and is now 89 adults and 13 children. This figure would probably be a bit higher if you take account of about half a dozen of our regulars who attend St Saviour's on Sundays when there is communion there but not at St John's.

Our worship over the year was led by a team of clergy, our youth worker, reader and other preachers, and our music group. All of them gave of their time and skills cheerfully and with great generosity.

Christian teaching and learning
The heart of our spiritual diet is the reading of Scripture and preaching each Sunday. The year saw several sermon series:

- Come and see: John's Gospel 14-17 (January-April)
- All You Need: the letter to the Colossians (May-July)
- The Passions of the Christ: the emotions of Jesus (August)
- Mission Possible: a bigger vision of God's mission (September-November)
- we ended the year with a short series for December called Advent waiting.

Our Lent course was shared with St. Saviour's and hosted in the Parish Centre. This year it was called Changing Scenes: walking with Christ through life's journey, and featured a variety of speakers, with 40-50 people attending most weeks.

Cell groups & Christian discipleship
Alongside weekly Sunday worship, our cell groups continued to be the other side of the coin in our core activities. At year's end, there were about 70 involved in these, meeting in 8 groups. The groups meet weekly, at different venues, times and days of the week, with a threefold aim:

1. To build up Christian disciples
2. To develop new leaders
3. To reach out in evangelistic witness

There are also 2 further small groups: a fortnightly Tuesday morning Bible study and fortnightly Thursday morning Ladies Bible study, involving maybe another 10 individuals.

Our Ladies enjoyed another weekend away up at Ampleforth in June, attended by 26 women of all ages. It was a great special time for building relationships and encouraging each other spiritually.

Pastoral care
Our clergy and licensed Pastoral Worker visited members of the congregation and wider parish regularly. Over the year, the clergy conducted 13 funerals in Chapeltown and 11 in High Green. The vicar and curate, sometimes assisted by volunteers, also conduct a monthly service in one of the care homes in the Parish, which attracts healthy numbers. A number of folks who are unwell or alone are also visited by members of our Pastoral visiting team. Our Home Communion team continue to visit a number of those who are housebound and who greatly value their work.

Mothers' Union
We have a committed and active Mothers' Union group, which promotes and supports family life. The group has 20 members. Members visited the sick and the housebound and sent cards and gifts to baptism families.

Witness & serving our community
We offered the community a range of opportunities to discover the Christian faith and to see a Christian community in action by:

1. Enquirers' groups: from January-March, we had an encouraging Christianity Explored group, helping enquirers explore Christian faith, as a result of which several made commitments to follow Jesus. We then followed this up with a Discipleship Explored group for new Christians. This then fed into a wonderful Confirmation Service held jointly with St Saviour's at which 5 of our members were confirmed.

2. Work with young families: Bumps 'n' Babies and Tots had contact with around 150 children and their families over the year, offering practical friendship and Christian witness. We have had some further contact with these families, as well as those we meet through Baptism ministry – with special events like Who Let The Dads Out on the weekend of Mothering Sunday.

3. Children's holiday club: we now run a Saturday holiday club called 'BASE camp' three times a year in school half terms and a full Monday-Friday holiday club in late July. This reaches over 20 unchurched families over the year, and we are beginning to see some of those children and families drawn into the life of the church in other ways.

4. Running popular social occasions, like the Parish Quiz in March; and the regular Wednesday night football evening, which attracts a good number of non-church players.

5. Putting on popular guest events, for instance: the Good Friday Open Air witness; and at Christmas time, the extremely popular Carols in the Pub at Wetherspoons (featuring the Silver Prize Band, a Christmas quiz and short Christmas message) which was even more popular than in previous years.

6. Wednesday Friends: this group for the over-60s, offers a weekly gathering for friendship and support, with an unobtrusive but distinctly Christian presence. It welcomes over 20 people each week, and regularly sees newcomers.

7. Foodbank: our involvement in the St. Saviour's Foodbank (now Food Pantry) remains steady, with a number helping with the weekly sorting and distribution.

8. Pastoral care: our Pastoral Worker and clergy visited those in particular need. A continued blessing for St. John's regulars is the fact that David Whitehead, our Associate Minister, is a hospital chaplain and therefore a familiar face for any who find themselves in hospital.

9. Sunday worship: week by week, we regularly welcome visitors who are enquiring about faith or looking for a church, as well as new families or couples from other churches.

10. The daily witness of the whole congregation: though unseen, we regularly see the results of the faithful daily witness of church members in their streets, schools and workplaces.

Youth work
Mikey our youth worker continues to give great direction to our work among the youth, supported and encouraged by our curate Pete. Our E68 youth group on Thursdays continued to grow, made up largely of youngsters from non-church families. A smaller number gather weekly during term-time for Bible study and discipleship on a Sunday evening in our D:Group. Mikey is also one of the Sunday children's leaders and supports and assists there wherever needed.

As part of Mikey's ongoing professional development and also to benefit the children and young people he works with, Mikey is now in his final year of a Certificate in Theology with Crosslands Seminary. We contribute to the costs of this and release him a day a week for his studies.

Schools work
Our curate and youth worker visited all the local primary schools regularly for assemblies. Along with the vicar, they hosted church visits around both St. Saviour's and St. Mary's in Ecclesfield, which give a valuable chance for local children to hear the story of Jesus using the church building. An encouraging new development during the year was an invitation from staff at Ecclesfield School to help run a small lunchtime Christian Union.

Charitable giving
A total of £40 was given to our three mission partners: the work of the Oatridges, the Leprosy Mission and St Saviours Foodbank.

Achievements and performance
The full PCC met 6 times during the year with an average attendance rate of 82%. The Standing Committee (Development Team) met between meetings, and their deliberations were received by the full PCC where necessary.

Financial review
Total receipts were £154,672 of which £143,656 was the main giving from the congregation (planned giving, collections and one-off giving). This represents a sizeable and encouraging increase of £15,729 from the previous year.

Overall expenditure was £153,250, an increase of £27,355 from last year.

During the year, the guest Nigerian Anglican congregation ceased using the Parish Centre to move to their own building, which meant a drop in income and an increase in spare capacity. Expenditure was tightly controlled in 2025, and income from rentals was £6,602.

£60,000 was paid towards the Diocesan Common Fund, which largely provides stipends, housing for the clergy and all central support of the parish and its clergy (e.g. Church House and the various Diocesan departments like the Parish Support Team). The Parish remains committed to paying its full contribution in terms of supporting ordained ministry across our region, and this is a good contribution for a church of our size in a community such as ours.

The net result for the year was a surplus of £1,422. This means that the total balance carried forward at 31 December 2025 was £255,665..

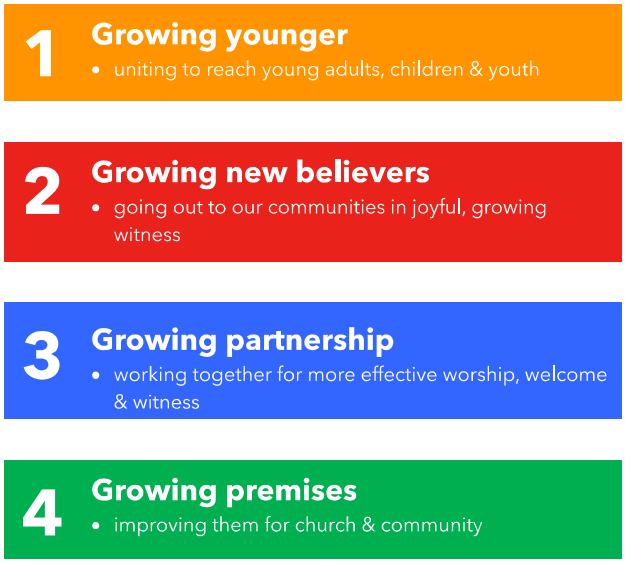

Reserves policy
As a charity we aim to have a cash balance of between 5% and 10% of annual income. This is currently being achieved. Income against expenditure is monitored monthly and any remedial action taken to remedy any cash flow or unexpected changes to income or expenditure.

Reserves are to be carried forward as they represent monies received in advance of expenditure for restricted purposes.

Going Concern
The charity's income is predominantly from contributions from individual church members (93% of total income) and the number of members has stayed consistent over the last 10 years and the church continues to attract new members to replace those who have moved away or died.

The PCC closely monitors the charity's expenditure reviewed the structural condition of its building in 2022 to mitigate against any major repairs. There are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue for the foreseeable future. The charity is a public benefit entity. The Diocese of Sheffield strategy review 2019 confirms that the Diocese supports the church's ongoing ministry and discussions would occur with the Diocese if any material uncertainties occur.

Future plans
We continue to work towards the priorities our PCC adopted in January 2024 for 2024-27:

These four priorities remain the most pressing areas for our attention. Within that big picture, as we look into 2026-27, my increasing sense is that the following three areas need to be our focus in prayer and action:

- Developing our evangelism, so we have a greater confidence in the gospel, and a wider outreach in our community, to reach beyond our existing networks of families and friends. Our new Focal Minister for Evangelism, Vicky Gardiner, is already exploring ways we can encourage each other in this.

- Deepening discipleship among younger adults and families. Though on the surface we look like a multi-generational church family, much of our life and witness is sustained in the main by those in the middle years and many who are much older. I wonder if we are truly passing the baton of the gospel on to the rising generation. How might we bring more of that generation to Christ and help them become active members of his family?

- Making Sunday special: At the heart of our spiritual growth is the way we remain rooted in Christ. In practical terms that means for each of us: making our Sunday gatherings the beating heart of our spiritual lives. For that is where we worship the Lord, hear his word together, and meet our spiritual family, to learn to love and be loved. In John 15 Jesus pictures us as branches who need to remain together in him, the real Vine, and produce fruit for his kingdom. Yet to commit to one another and to gathering on the first day of the week, every week – that's pretty counter-cultural today. All of us have many calls on our Sunday: from family events to sports and leisure to 'me-time'. But I wonder if there was ever a time when putting church first on the Lord's day wasn't a struggle? May Christ grant that it's a struggle we're up for, and that remaining in Him – together – is our joy and our priority!
