- Employing diverse ways of teaching and educating members with the knowledge of God
- To give Christian care and welfare To all members of the community as it deems necessary.
- To organise children and youth activities to promote family values and unity in the course of developing deeper spiritual growth
- To provide hospitality to visiting ministers and proponents of the gospel
- Work in co-operation with other Christian organisations and support events with similar Christian aims and objectives.
- The relief of poverty

Summary of Activities during the Year

The Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG) VHR had a dynamic and impactful year in 2023, with a wide range of spirit-filled activities aimed at fulfilling the organization's charitable objectives. This report provides a comprehensive summary of the activities undertaken by the church throughout the year.

Worship Services and Spiritual Growth

The year began with an Annual Thanksgiving Service held on January 8th, setting a tone of gratitude and praise for the year ahead. Weekly Sunday services witnessed the active participation of dedicated volunteers and engaging Sunday school meetings. The church made efforts to enhance spiritual growth and fellowship by introducing two services each Sunday, except for the first Sunday of every month, which was dedicated to the monthly Thanksgiving Service.

In addition to Sunday services, the church conducted weekly Bible study services known as "Digging Deep" on Wednesdays, providing an opportunity for members to delve deeper into the scriptures. Online prayer services, known as "Fervent Prayer," were also held on Fridays, fostering a sense of unity and intercession among the church community. The first Friday of each month was dedicated to a vigil, connecting to Holy Ghost Service in Nigeria, while the last Wednesday of every month was reserved for a communion service. Furthermore, the last Friday of each month was celebrated with a special praise service known as "Hallelujah Night."

Targeted Ministry Initiatives

The RCCG VHR prioritised the spiritual well-being of its members through targeted ministry initiatives. Monthly women's prayer gatherings known as "Victorious Women on their Knees" and monthly men's prayer meetings were organised to provide spaces for gender-specific spiritual growth and support. The church also engaged in regular visitations to support and assist families in need, including the provision of groceries.

Special Events and Celebrations

In addition to the core activities, the RCCG VHR organised several special events throughout the year to commemorate significant occasions and strengthen community bonds. These events included:

- 5-day Ministers' prayer Retreat: Held from February 14 to 18. The retreat provided a dedicated time for ministers to seek spiritual rejuvenation and guidance.
- Mother's Day Celebration Service; held on March 19, this service honoured and appreciated mothers within the church community.
- Easter Sunday Celebration Service; Commemorated on April 9, this service celebrated the ressucrection of Jesus Christ.
- Children's Weekend: Organised on May 7, this event provided a special program for the children of the Stardom Church.
- Fathers' Day Celebration Service; held on June 18, this service celebrated and honoured fathers within the church community.
- Church Anniversary; Celebrated from June 29 to July 2, this milestone marked a significant achievement in the history of the church.
- Service of songs; Conducted on August 5, this was the time dedicated for worship and praise.
- Children's Sundat School Exam; held in August, this initiative recognised and rewarded the top performers, motivating children in their spiritual growth.

- Teenage Conference; Organised from September 8 to 10, this conference featured various activities such as praise sessions. Football match, awards night and a dedicated service for teenagers.
- New Ministers Ordination; welcoming and commissioning new ministers into the service of the church.
- Women's Conference; held from November 10 to 12; this conference provided a platform foe women to gather, grow and be empowered through a praise night. Seminar and praise.
- Late-Night Prayer Walk with Ministers; Organised on November 17, this event allowed ministers to engage in prayer and seek spiritual guidance.
- Christmas Celebration; the church celebrated the Christmas season with a carol service on December 22 creating a festive atmosphere of worship and praise. The Christmas Service titled " The Name Of Jesus", took place on December 24, featuring a Cristmas party, distributi of Christmas hamper and sharing of gifts, spreading joy and love during the holiday season.
- Crossover Service; The year ended with a crossover service on December 31, welcoming the new year with prayer and worship.

Conclusion

The RCCG VHR's commitment to spiritual growth, fellowship, community outreach, and targeted ministry initiatives made 2023 a transformative year for all those involved. The various worship services, special events, and celebrations provided unique platforms for ministry and edification within specific demographics of the church community. The church's dedication to fulfilling its charitable objectives and fostering a spirit-filled environment contributed to a truly impactful and memorable year.

The Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG) – Victory House Rochdale
Independent Examiner's Report on the Accounts for the Year ended 31 December 2024.

I report on the accounts of the Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG) – Victory House Rochdale set out on pages 5 - 8

Respective responsibilities of the Trustee and the Examiner

It is the responsibility of the trustees to maintain proper books and records and prepare accounts.
The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (Under Section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 (The 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.
It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in this General Directions given by the Charity Commissioner (under Section 145 (5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the Independent Examiners report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general direction given by the Charity commission.
An examination includes the review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.
It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanation from the trustees concerning any such matters.
The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in any audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners Statement

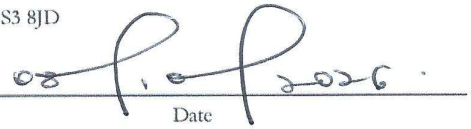

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- to keep appropriate accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
