Objectives and activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	Save the Orangutan is working to save and protect the critically endangered orangutan and its last remaining habitats. Our purpose is to; • Protect and conserve the critically endangered orangutan and its natural habitats. • Empower local communities, primarily in Indonesia, towards social, financial, and naturally resourceful sustainability. • Raise awareness of the threat to the wild orangutan populations and the deforestation of their natural habitats.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Main activities in the reporting period: 1. Raising awareness of the plight of the critically endangered orangutan and the threats to its survival through communications, including our website, social media and other publications. 2. Raising funds from the general public in the UK to support orangutan conservation and habitat protection activities, including through symbolic adoptions and regular donor support. 3. Providing donors and supporters with information about the conservation activities and the results achieved through their donations. 4. Supporting conservation and related activities undertaken by Save the Orangutan and its local partners in Indonesia, including activities relating to orangutan rescue, rehabilitation, reintroduction, habitat protection and community engagement. 5. Cooperating with other Save the Orangutan organisations and partners in order to maximise the impact of the activities for the conservation of orangutans and their habitats. The Trustees consider that these activities directly contribute to Save the Orangutan's purposes and provide public benefit through the protection of biodiversity, conservation of endangered species and increased public awareness of environmental conservation.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when planning and reviewing the organisation's activities and have ensured that the activities are undertaken in support of our charitable purposes.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider	Para 1.20	During 2025, Save the Orangutan continued to raise awareness and funds in the UK in support of orangutan conservation and the protection of orangutan habitat.

benefits to society as a whole.		We continued to work closely with our partner organisations in Indonesia and the wider Save the Orangutan network. Funds raised in the UK contributed to conservation activities in Indonesia, including BOSF Reintroduction programme for orangutans. Key achievements during the year included: 1) Support to Borneo Orangutan Survival Foundation in Indonesia, for their work with orangutan rescues, rehabilitation, sanctuaries, release, post-release monitoring and protection of their habitat. The funds contributed to the continued rehabilitation and sanctuary care of 339 orangutans, rescue of 31 orangutans from human-orangutan conflicts and reintroduction of 17 orangutans to the wild after a successful rehabilitation, reaching 556 orangutans released since 2012. 2) In 2025, Save the Orangutan Group supported our local partners on Borneo in replanting 36,665 trees in Central Kalimantan and contributed to habitat protection of more than 12,000 wild orangutans. 3) We continued our communication and engagement work through posts and publications on our website, social media and other platforms, providing information about orangutan conservation and demonstrating how donations contribute to conservation outcomes. In 2025, 20 articles were published on savetheorangutan.org and savetheorangutan.org.uk which together had 26,713 unique visitors. Information was also communicated through newsletters (862 subscribers) and social media. Facebook posts had a top organic reach by 85,038. 97 posts in total were published on Facebook in 2025, with 12,870 followers. Our Instagram account had 94 new posts in 2025 with 14,900 followers.

SAVE THE ORANGUTAN

1 Principal accounting policies

a. Basis of preparation

These accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention with items recognised at cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant note(s) to these accounts.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

b. Recognition of income

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when:
* the charity becomes entitled to the resources;
* it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources; and
* the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

c. Grants and Donations

Donations and gifts are accounted for when receivable.

d. Income from Interest

This is included in the accounts when receipt is probable and the amount receivable can be measured reliably.

e. Resources expended

Expenditure is included on the accruals basis:

Fund raising costs are those attributable to raising income for the charity.
Governance costs comprise costs for the running of the charity itself as an organisation.

f. Governance costs

Governance costs include all costs involving the public accountability of the charity and its compliance with regulation and good practice. These costs include costs related to independent examination of the charities financial statements together with an apportionment of overhead and support costs.

g. Fund structure

Unrestricted funds are donations and other incoming resources receivable or generated for the objects of the charity without further specified purpose and are available as general funds.

Restricted funds are to be used for the specific purposes as laid down by the donor.
Expenditure which meets these criteria is charged to the fund, together with a fair allocation of management and support costs.

Set out on pages

1 and 2 (remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 December 2025

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect,:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
