Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Unincorporated charitable association
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees are appointed in accordance with the charity's Constitution. Additional trustees may be appointed by the existing trustees in accordance with the procedures set out in the Constitution.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The trustees are responsible for the governance and oversight of the charity and meet periodically to consider its activities, finances and other matters requiring trustee action. The charity carries out its activities in the British Isles and provides pastoral support to members in other areas for which it has responsibility.

The charity maintains a relationship with Church of God, a Worldwide Association, Inc., while remaining governed by its own Constitution and subject to the requirements applicable to charities in England and Wales. The trustees consider significant risks affecting the charity and take appropriate measures to manage those risks.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Our mission is to preach the gospel of the Kingdom of God and make disciples from among those whom God calls.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In furtherance of its charitable objects, the Church provides regular worship services, biblical teaching, pastoral care and opportunities for Christian fellowship and spiritual development. The Church also observes its annual religious festivals and Holy Days and provides pastoral support and assistance to members and others as appropriate.

In planning and carrying out the charity's activities, the trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During 2025, the Church continued to advance its religious purposes through regular worship services, biblical instruction, pastoral care and congregational activities. These activities provided opportunities for worship, spiritual instruction and fellowship.

The Church also supported activities for young people and the observance of its annual Holy Days and religious festivals.

During 2025, COGWA-BI supported the observance of the Feast of Tabernacles in Ireland, an internationally administered event attended by more than 300 people. The Charity also provided a location in Tunbridge Wells for those unable to travel to Ireland.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The charity intends to maintain reserves sufficient to meet its foreseeable operating costs for at least three months.
Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal sources of funds are voluntary donations, tithes and offerings. The trustees approve an annual budget designed to support the charity's religious and charitable activities and monitor income and expenditure during the year.

The charity does not pursue an investment programme. Cash reserves not required for immediate expenditure may be held in interest-bearing bank accounts.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS

Report to the trustees/members of	Church of God - a Worldwide Association - Britihs Isles
Accounts for the year ended	31 December 2025	Charity no. (if any)	1141326
Set out on pages	6 to 7

RESPONSIBILITIES AND BASIS OF REPORT

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 December 2025.
As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").
I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:
• accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or

• the accounts do not accord with the accounting records.
I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
