2. Structure, Governance and Management
House of Healing Nation is governed by a board of trustees responsible for strategic oversight, safeguarding, financial stewardship, and compliance with Charity Commission regulations. Trustees met regularly throughout the year to review operations, approve major decisions, and ensure alignment with the charity's objectives.
During this reporting year, the trustees formally approved the change of the charity's registered name from St Paul's New Covenant Church to House of Healing Nation. This change has been fully implemented across all legal registrations, bank accounts, and administrative records.

The charity's primary objective is the advancement of the Christian faith through worship services, teaching, community outreach, and spiritual development programmes. Activities undertaken during the year included:
*Weekly Sunday worship services
*Midweek Wednesday services

4. Achievements and Performance

4.1 Acquisition of Permanent Worship Building
A major milestone this year was securing a permanent leased building for worship services. This achievement completes our Yield Project for the year and provides long-term stability for the congregation. The new building eliminates the need to move between temporary venues and strengthens our capacity for ministry, outreach, and community programmes.

4.2 Spiritual and Congregational Growth
The church experienced significant spiritual and physical growth. Attendance increased across all services, and members reported deeper engagement in prayer, worship, and community life.

4.3 Youth, Women, and Men's Programmes
The Youth Programme successfully brought together young people from various churches and across the city, promoting unity and spiritual empowerment.
The Women's Convention offered teaching, fellowship, and support for women in the ministry and wider community. The Men's Convention strengthened leadership, faith, and community involvement among men.

4.4 Annual Convention
This year's annual convention recorded the highest attendance in the charity's history. The event was marked by powerful worship, teaching, and prophetic declarations, with many attendees reporting spiritual breakthroughs and renewed commitment.

4.5 Media and Technical Improvements
To enhance service quality and digital outreach:
All sound equipment was upgraded to modern, high-performance systems.
The media department received new cameras and a professional video mixer. These improvements have significantly enhanced livestreaming, recordings, and social media engagement.

5. Financial Review
The trustees confirm that the charity's finances were managed responsibly and in accordance with Charity Commission guidance. Expenditure this year included:
Lease and maintenance of the new worship building
Upgrades to sound and media equipment
Programme delivery costs for youth, women, and men's ministries
Operational and administrative expenses
The charity remains financially stable and committed to transparent stewardship of all funds received.

6. Public Benefit Statement
The trustees confirm that the charity has complied with the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance. All activities undertaken during the year contributed to spiritual development, community cohesion, pastoral support, and the advancement of the Christian faith.

7. Plans for the Coming Year (2026/2027)
The trustees have identified the following priorities for the next financial year:
Strengthen Sunday services, midweek services, and night prayer meetings
Continue annual conventions, conferences, and ministry programmes
Expand outreach initiatives to support families, youth, and vulnerable individuals
Begin strategic planning to establish new branches within the city and across England
Continue improving digital ministry and media capabilities
The trustees believe these plans will further the charity's mission and increase its impact in the community.

8. Trustee Declaration
The trustees are pleased to report that the 2025/2026 year has been fruitful, impactful, and marked by significant growth. We remain committed to serving our congregation and community with excellence and faithfulness. We look forward to continued expansion and spiritual development in the coming year.
