Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The relief of poverty by giving free assistance to rural village churches and church leaders by the means of teaching and mentoring in discipleship and salvation, combined with ways to cultivate their land and provide an output that will not only be self-supporting but provide an income and supply for others within their local community and through the provision of appropriate physical and financial resources;

The relief of sickness, disease and disability due to, but not restricted to a lack of medical resources, access to clean water and food supplies or acts of violence, through the provision of appropriate physical and financial resources;

To advance education within rural communities through the free provision of teaching materials and facilities, encouraging work ethics and student educational and spiritual development through the provision of appropriate physical and financial resources.

To support missionaries on the live mission field, through the provision of subsistence support and evangelical materials.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)
