for the Year Ended 31st December 2025

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

Significant activities

1. Education support: Education remains the focus of charity activities. The charity supports students in their education on regular basis through payments of fees and other school expenses. During 2025. Charity support 300+ students. All students are from either from shaheed families or under privileged background. All students progressed to the next year of education during 2025. Three students have completed their education and now working.

These students are from Hazara Community, Parachinar, Skardu and Karachi. 46% of the students are female and 54% are Male. There has been a 4% increase in Female students compared to last year, 22% of the students are in University or College,

The cost of school fees varies based on nature of school and the level of education, for example, the total cost of graduate program is around £40-50 per month While school students average cost is about £25 per month.

Student distribution in %:

	Girls	Boys	Total
Reception	17%	11%	20%
Junior School	44%	39%	34%
Senior School	17%	30%	24%
Uni/College	22%	20%	22%
Total	100%	100%	100%
No of students	130	180	310
	42%	58%	100%

2. Ramazan ration support: The charity distributed basic Iftar ration to 300 families in Pakistan for the month of Ramazan. The ration included flour, rice, different varieties of lentils, oil, tea, milk, sugar, concentrated drinks, vermicelli, gram flour and dates etc. The distribution was done in Skardu, Parachinar, northern Punjab, and Karachi.

3. Qurbani support: The charity helped community in performing their Eid ul Azha duties by performing 30 qurbanis on their behalf. The meat was distributed amongst more than 300 families. The qurbanis were performed in Parachinar, Skardu, Karachi and Wah in Pakistan.

4. Winter blanket support: The charity provided more than 110 blankets and quilts to people in need in Pakistan. In addition, firewood was provided to some homes in Skardu, Northern Pakistan.

5. One-off support:
a. The charity contributed the cost of 250 pairs of shoes for "Malls of Smile" orphanage market. This is once a year event held in Karachi by Cure Pakistan. About 500 orphans are invited to the marketplace. They are given paper token money to buy things. The marketplace has all kinds of necessities for the children.

b. The charity provided financial support for weddings of 2 different families.

c. As part of Cholistan/South Punjab water project, 15 additional water pumps were installed during 2025.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Supporting Hands (UK)

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Supporting Hands (UK)

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Supporting Hands (UK) (the Trust) for the year ended 31st December 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements
The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income
All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure
Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation
The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting
Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
