THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD, OASIS CHAPEL GREAT YARMOUTH
Trustees' Report For The Year Ended 31 December 2025

The trustees present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Objectives and Activities

Aims and Objectives

The aims and objectives of the charity are to advance the Christian faith in accordance with the doctrines and practices of The Redeemed Christian Church of God, and to promote the Christian religion through worship, prayer, teaching, evangelism and other related activities.

The charity also seeks to relieve persons in need, hardship or distress and to support charitable and community activities for the benefit of the public.

Significant Activities

The significant activities of the charity during the year included regular church services, prayer meetings, Bible teaching, evangelism and other activities aimed at advancing the Christian faith.

The charity also undertook outreach, conferences and seminars, welfare support and other community-focused activities, and provided grants and financial assistance in furtherance of its charitable objectives.

Public Benefit

The trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission’s guidance on public benefit in planning and carrying out the charity’s activities.

The charity provides public benefit through the advancement of the Christian faith by means of worship, prayer, teaching, evangelism and community outreach. It also provides welfare support and other charitable assistance to individuals and communities in need, without discrimination.

The trustees confirm that they have complied with the requirements of Section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission’s guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

Main Achievements

The charity’s main achievements during the year included the continued provision of regular Christian worship, prayer meetings, Bible teaching, evangelism and outreach activities in furtherance of its objective of advancing the Christian faith.

The charity also supported conferences and seminars, welfare activities and assistance to individuals and other institutions. During the year, the charity continued to serve its congregation and the wider community through its religious and charitable activities.

Financial Review

Financial Position

The charity remained in a positive financial position at the year end. Total income for the year was £56,738 and total expenditure was £58,874, resulting in a net deficit of £2,136. After taking account of a prior year adjustment of £2,816, total unrestricted funds carried forward at 31 December 2025 were £7,093, compared with £6,413 at the previous year end.

At 31 December 2025, the charity had total net assets of £7,093, comprising tangible fixed assets of £4,187 and net current assets of £2,906.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) and is registered with the Charity Commission under charity number 1152911. It is governed by its constitution, which sets out the charity’s objects, powers and arrangements for the appointment and responsibilities of its trustees.

Trustee Selection Methods

The trustees are appointed in accordance with the charity’s governing document. In selecting new trustees, consideration is given to individuals who are committed to the aims and objectives of the charity and who possess the appropriate skills, experience and willingness to contribute to its effective governance and management.

New trustees are provided with relevant information about their legal responsibilities, the charity’s activities and its internal policies and procedures.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD, OASIS CHAPEL GREAT YARMOUTH
For The Year Ended 31 December 2025

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD, OASIS CHAPEL GREAT YARMOUTH (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Responsibilities and Basis of Report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 (“the Act”).

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust’s accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent Examiner's Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and contents of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. General Information

THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD, OASIS CHAPEL GREAT YARMOUTH is a charitable incorporated organisation registered with the Charity Commission, registered charity number 1152911. The principal address is 17 Crome Drive, Great Yarmouth, NR31 0HN.

2. Accounting Policies

2.1. Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)", Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and the Charities Act 2011.

The charity is a Public Benefit Entity as defined by FRS 102.

2.2. Incoming Resources

Income is recognised when the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received, and the amount can be measured reliably.

Voluntary income, including tithes, offerings, thanksgiving, donations, gifts and other contributions, is recognised when received or when the charity becomes entitled to receive it. Income received for specific purposes is treated as restricted income where applicable. Gift Aid receivable is recognised when the charity is entitled to claim it and the amount can be measured reliably.

2.3. Resources Expended

Resources expended are recognised on an accruals basis and include all expenditure incurred in carrying out the charity's activities and in generating income.

Expenditure is classified according to the nature of the activity and includes direct charitable expenditure, grants and support costs. Support costs are those costs incurred in supporting the delivery of the charity's activities and include premises, administration, depreciation and other general running costs.

2.4. Tangible Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost of the fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives on the following bases:

Motor Vehicles	20%
Fixtures & Fittings	20%

2.5. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are basic financial assets and include cash in hand and deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and are readily convertible to a known amount of cash with insignificant risk of change in value, and bank overdrafts.
