Structure, Governance and Management

The method of appointing members to serve as Trustees on the Management Committed is set out in the constitution of Wheatley House Moving Forward. Any resident of Wheatley Hill is legible to stand for election

Aims and Objectives

The Management Committee promotes the aims and objectives which are included in the constitution - to welcome everyone irrespective of age, race, Creed, religion or sexuality and run the organisation within the boundary of Wheatley Hill

The Committee is responsible for the maintenance of the building, fixtures and fittings, decoration and repairs and source local tradesmen to keep the cost to a minimum and to help the economy of the village and to ensure that the finances are in good order

Review of the Year

The Cancer Support Group is continuing to grow in attendance and have secured funding to ensure they have a more permanent base for their meetings. Holistic Therapy sessions are being held monthly. Both these sessions are utilising the building during the day as do the History Club, the Parish Council, the Heritage and History Forum and the Mothers' Club for monthly meetings. All minor repairs have been attended to immediately. The gas supplier has been changed and a better deal was made with the tariffs etc.l

Financial Review

There is an end of year has shown an increase in the income generated by the groups who hire the use of the hall hut with birthday parties, wedding anniversaries and funeral teas. Two social evenings were held during the year and raised funds to keep the building in good order. The Hon. Treasurer issues hard copies of the financial report to each member of the Committee and the account books are taken to the meetings for the Trustees to examine
