The Faye Knowles-Chapman Foundation

Trustees' report for the year ended 31 March 2026

Administrative details of the charity

1. Structure, governance and management
   The charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) registered on 19th March 2014 and is governed by a foundation constitution.

2. Method of recruitment and appointment of trustees
   The trustees of the charity are appointed by the existing members at the AGM.

Objectives and activities

3. Objectives of the charity
   To relieve sickness and promote and protect the physical and mental health of sufferers or those at risk of cervical cancer in England in particular but not exclusively through the provision of financial assistance, support, education and practical advice and campaigning to lower the age of cervical cancer screening from the age of 25.
   To spread awareness in the general public of all areas relating to cervical cancer.

4. The charity's main activities
   Raising awareness through Faye's Fest and other events of HPV and cervical cancer and screening. Educating women of all ages and giving advice where needed.
   Providing private consultations and examinations for those ladies under 25 who have worrying signs of the illness.

5. Public benefit statement
   In setting our objectives and planning our activities our Trutees have given serious consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit and in particular the advancement of education and the saving of lives.

6. Achievements and performance
   Annual balls are now being organised usually every April. We also continued to raise awareness through social media.

7. Financial review
   The net surplus for the year was £827 which were all on unrestricted funds.

8. Reserves policy

The charity's free reserve, excluding fixed assets, at the year end were £25,578

The trustees have set £15,000 aside as reserves for raising awareness and covering the costs of private consultations and examinations in the event of not receiving any income in any particular year. Any funds above this level will be used to offer private conselling to those under the age of 25, following an abnormal smear test.

Signed on behalf of the board of trustees on 16th July 2026
