You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity considers all risks on a project by project basis ensuring that all monies received are spent in the most compliant way possible with the charity's governing set of rules.

The charity is run by the executive committee where all trustees are key members of the charity raising funds and organising events of the charity. There is no wider organisation structure beyond the executive committee and there are no related parties or conflict of interests.

As part of the charities grant given scheme they maintain a wider network of unrelated charities in order to identify projects and schemes worthwhile of their donations.

The trustees are made aware on a regular basis of the major risks associated with the above and how to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The RCRT Foundation ("RCRT") was created in 2014 with the mission to select impactful and inspiring projects and to offer them to donors who value transparency and believe in our hands-on, asset-management-like approach.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The RCRT Foundation has been set up to help children both in the United Kingdom and overseas who have been disadvantaged in a number of ways. This includes not having correct and proper access to:

- Education and schooling
- Family Support
- Clean sanitation, medical facilities and healthy diet
- Sports and similar activities

The purpose of RCRT Foundation (RCRT) is deemed to be beneficial as via its grant giving and charitable activity it will ensure that those children who are most at need will have access to the same human rights, as well as health and educational conditions similar to those in wealthier countries and areas.

RCRT do not believe that the actions and purpose of the charity will cause harm or detriment to the public, and / or people of whom it has set out to benefit.

RCRT will ensure that no trustee within the organisation will obtain a personal benefit from its activities. RCRT therefore wishes to directly effect, and have an impact on both children it will help directly via 3rd parties, but also the families and other peoples connected with the child.

RCRT hope that by creating a sustainable structure for benefiting children, i.e. those youngest and most susceptible to inequalities, it will create the foundations for a better society in the future. This will be the main drive of the educational element of RCRT.

Whilst this is the long term plan of the charity, the short and medium term ambition is to dramatically improve the lives of the people that they are working with. This is to be obtained by the family support, health and sporting elements of the charity's aim.

Family support- this will help both children and parents be aware of the benefits that a close emotional and physical bond can create. By putting into place the structure this allows for growth and structure towards the longer term plan.

Health- access to all items noted before will enrich the children's lives allowing for a more joyful and sustainable lifestyle in the future.

Sports and other activities- will bring the benefit and ethos of both team work, whilst furthering the benefit that has arisen from the health work.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The RCRT Foundation, due to the business background of its executive committee take its policy on grant making and review of the grants as a high priority.

Grant making is only provided after an extensive Due Diligence process and the signing of an MOU (Memorandum of Understanding). This details the key criteria on which the funds are spent and how it is managed. Subsequent to this the charity and the executive committee maintain a strict reporting and achievable criteria in order to ensure that the project is running as planned.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

RCRT's achievements for the year were the completion of the Phase I & II of a partnership project with two UK-based charities: the Felix Project and Magic Breakfast.

The project is structured in two activities:

1. the distribution of food and breakfasts to disadvantaged children in two schools around London (where 10,000 meals were served)
2. training school and Magic Breakfast personnel on the ways of minimizing food waste (carried out by Felix Project).

Phase II has started around mid-year and has extended the reach of Phase I even further and reaching 2 additional schools.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Reserves are maintained for the use of further grants and donations in the following financial year.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	No funds materially in deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about: • the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising); • how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity; • investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.	The charities principal sources of funds came from Trustee and corporate donations during the period. These donations supported the funds generated in the 2025 financial year. The expenditure throughout the year supported the charitable causes of the entity but directly funding overseas projects as per its set of objectives and criteria. There are no investment policies and objectives, all of the money is expected to be spent on ongoing and new projects.
