Opening statement

The trustees who are also directors for the purposes of company law, have the pleasure in presenting their report and the financial statements for the charitable company 'The Redeemed Christian Church of God House of Prayer for all Nations' for the year ended 31st December 2025.

The year under review shows a slight decline in the incoming resources from the comparative year figures. However, the results still show a reasonable surplus for the year. We are thankful for the unwavering commitment of the pastorate and team of volunteers which enabled the charity to continue in strength and keep up with fulfilling her visions.

Objectives and activities

The overall purpose of the charity is to achieve its charitable objectives which include the following:

- the advancement of Christian faith
- the assistance of persons who are in condition of need, suffering hardship or distress, or who are aged or sick or in condition that require help.

- charitable activities for the benefit of the local community.

The charity maintained a vibrant, inclusive and conducive place of worship where people of all nations are welcomed while we continue to welcome local and immediate communities.

Whilst most of our usual programmes and activities have returned to pre-pandemic levels, we continue to operate 'hybrid' services. which combine virtual and physical worship elements. Hence we continue to invest a lot more in financial and human resources to enable us maintain an impactful presence online.

We continue to engage the services of a professional camera technician and media consultant to help us with online service issues and enable us achieve continuous smooth running.

We have dedicated channels for You Tube, Facebook and Zoom. We have expended time and money to ensure that our online programmes and activities are effective in order to retain membership and also add

The following programmes and activities were operational throughout the year under review, using various technology-based equipment and resources:

- Sunday school classes and worship services.
- Monday morning Arise & Shine Prayer meeting
- Wednesday mid-week services.
- Morning of Joy Breakfast meeting
- Monthly Night Prayer Vigil
- New month cross over prophetic and communion services

We intend to introduce more life enriching programs in a proactive manner and as the need arises.

During the period under review, we continued to maintain connection and relationship with our members and community in many ways. All manners of human, material, moral and financial support were made available to people who fell into difficult situation as we committed ourselves to demonstrating the love of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Our charitable acts and activities are usually done through giving, in kind and in cash. Our activities were initially focused at the people in our immediate surroundings, which have now extended into the wider world.

We supported widows, widowers, distressed families and those who lost their loved ones with foodstuff and cash. We also distributed fresh food items, Christmas boxes and hampers during our annual 'Lunch with Jesus' program at Christmas period.to vulnerable adults, rough sleepers on the street and in train / tube stations within community.

We visited care homes to deliver hampers and food stuff to staff in appreciation of the great work they do. We also offered biblical counselling and support to bereaved families and those negatively impacted during the year.

In all, the year presented an opportunity to virtually share the gospel of Jesus Christ to a wider community, to allay fears created by the difficult situation of the past experience, and replacing them with hope and peace of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ..

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of RCCG House of Prayer fo all Nations
For the year ended 31 December 2025

This report on the financial statements of the RCCG House of Prayer for all Nations for the year ended 31 December 2025, which are set out on pages 1 to 5, is in respect of an examination carried out in accordance with the Church Accounting Regulations 2006 ('the Regulations') and s.145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and examiner

As the charity Trustees of the RCCG House of Prayer for all Nations who are also directors for the purposes of company law, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination, I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act. That examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Trustees and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm in connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the company as required by s 396 of the 2006 Act; or

2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or

3. the accounts do not comply with the requirements of s 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or

4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
