Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity supported the immigrants from overseas who came into the UK during the year in settling down more quickly than they ordinarily would have. Most of them are gainfully employed now and have started contributing to the society where they settled. We organised seminars in business set up and management, marriage, education, emotional balance, and other similar areas. These has yielded results as participants tend to go into entrepreneurial activities that is now aligning them aright in entrepreneurial endeavours. We engaged in massive community support where the church accepts contributions from members and distributed to the needy in our midst. We also welcome the new Arrivals/New Students into the Community with a Welcome Service which encourages Community spirit and Cultural integration. We have improved on our annual Send Forth Service for Graduating Students. Our yearly tri-annual Community Outreach activities which involve welfare and distribution of food parcels to struggling members and families in the Community has improved tremendously and now have wider coverage than it used to. With downturn in the economy, more and more persons are now becoming persons-in-need and we have taken cognisance of this in our budget for this programme. Our food bank programme was stepped up such that even African cooked food was made available to the Africans from abroad and other food items including served coffee for the members here. Collaboration with the Anglican church was increased, and impact felt by our members and non-members within the community as inter-cultural integration have improved. Our outreach activities have also increased tremendously such that other life transforming programmes that were hitherto no seen came alive. The women, men groups received a boost from fresh ideas availed by the new members from overseas and has taken a new dimension in impacting lives within the community. Sports and community event held at Eaton Park was worthy of mention as it yielded such tremendous results contributing to the health awareness and wellbeing of the participants directly and indirectly. We have improved on our light refreshments after every service on Sundays and Tuesdays, and provision of food at longer sessions every 1st Sunday tagged Thanksgiving Sunday and every 3rd Tuesday tagged Bible Feast. This has helped in the support received by the target persons in our objective statement.

		Membership and activities have grown over the years, accounting for a higher inflow of voluntary offering and donations and expenses alike. The RCCG The Chapel outreach has continued to operate as a charity committed to meeting the needs of its members and the community through different church and outreach programmes. We have expanded the programme of our Youth by incorporating sports (football) as a key community outreach to engage their emotional wellbeing. Also, our men's and women's outreach has become a vibrant space for sharing skills and supporting one another. We now dedicate one Sunday a month to Children's activities, where children's teachers offer opportunities for children of all ages to participate in a variety of activities in the church. As the church continues to grow, we have initiated additional fundraising among our members to help fund the mortgage for our worship centre

Additional information (optional)

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	Achievement of objectives set were surpassed during the year as we received a boost from the contributions of different opinions from diverse parts of the universe who have converged here from overseas.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	There were no fund-raising objectives and therefore not applicable
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	There were no investment activities, and no objectives is set, therefore not applicable
Other		Non for mentioning

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	A review of the Charity's financial position at the year-end was carried out by the trustees only as the charity fund was below the required £250,00.00 for an independent examination to take place.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	For the first time, the charity has produced reserve holding policy which explains why the need to keep money aside instead of spending it on your charity's aims, how much our charity holds in reserve, why our charity needs to hold this amount in reserve and what the charity's reserves can be spent on
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	The sum of five thousand pounds (£15,000.00) has been earmarked as reserves of the charity.
Reasons for holding reserves	Para 1.22	We are not holding zero reserve. The five thousand pounds (£5,000.00) reserves held was to be built upon on yearly basis. This is set aside to cater for unexpected shortfall in donations/receipts so that rent, and other key/basic activities of the charity can be continued in any case of emergency to avert going concern being determined.

Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	There was no fund materially deficit to report. The charity reported surplus during the year.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	We are not having any uncertainties regarding going concern of the charity.

Additional information (optional)

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The charity's principal source of fund is donations from members and non-members.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	We are not engaged in any form of investment activities at the moment and so there is no investment policy in place yet.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	We are not aware of any principal risk facing the charity at the moment. There is therefore nothing to report here.

The trustees present their annual report and financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Trustee's report and financial statements

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

Trustees

The trustees, who are also the directors for the purpose of company law, and who served during the year and up to the date of signature of the financial statements were:

Gloria ORAGBON
Jennifer Anne WHITE
Olusegun Temitope OLAYEMI

Trustee's responsibilities statement

The trustees, who are also the directors of Charity For The Redeemed Christian Church Of God, The Chapel Outreach Norwich for the purpose of company law, are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company Law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that year.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the trustees and signed on its behalf by:

1. General Information

Charity for THE REDEEMED CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF GOD, THE CHAPEL OUTREACH NORWICH is a Charitable Unincorporated Association registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales. The registered office is 2 Douro Place, Norwich, NR2 4BG.

2. Accounting Policies

2.1 Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies adopted by the Charity, which is a public benefit entity, in the preparation of the accounts are as follows.

2.2 Basis of preparation

These accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the inclusion of charitable properties and fixed asset investments and investment properties at valuation.

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with “Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)” (effective 1 January 2019) - (Charities SORP (FRS 102)), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Charities Act 2011.

These accounts are presented in pounds sterling and rounded to the nearest pound.

2.3 Going concern

The Trustees have prepared financial projections, taking into consideration the current economic conditions and have, at the time of approving these accounts, a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the accounts.
