Report of the Trustees for the year ending 31 December 2025

Ministry Information

- Name of Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO): The Elyott Generation
- CIO Registration Number: 1159926
- Registered Address: 28 Barclay Fold, Overdale, Telford, England TF3 5GY

Who we are

The Elyott Generation is a member of Churches in Community (CIC). 'Churches in Communities International' is the legal body established in the UK for the development and co-ordination of 'Churches in Communities' around the world. The Elyott Generation benefits directly from CIC International's experience in providing recognition, influence, accountability, accreditation, representation, encouragement and sharing of expertise.

Our Aim

To help people develop in their Christian faith and maintain an intimate relationship with God in a personal way, growing to their full potential in their daily lives.

Our Mission

- To stir hearts to seek and discover a deeper and more intimate relationship with the Lord, by hosting events that create the environment for such moments.
- To help people discover their full potential in Christ and live it out, by teaching and journeying with others.
- To support the welfare of individuals and communities, by praying, giving and serving where possible.

Our Objectives

The objectives of the CIO, for the public benefit, is the advancement of the Christian faith primarily throughout the United Kingdom, and also the rest of the world. This is done by all means consistent with the teachings of the Christian Bible including worship, prayer, teaching, evangelism, education, community service and the support of churches and individuals and other charitable organisations.

Achieving the stated objective includes:

1. A structure of discipleship for Christians
2. Prayer support by trained intercessors
3. Pastoral care
4. Christian courses and training
5. Organising events, social activities and conferences which are open to all looking to draw closer to God and know Jesus. And any other activities as identified by the trustees to further our aims and objects.

Policies

Code of Conduct: This Code of Practice provides guidelines on appropriate boundaries for staff, team members, trustees and volunteers.

Conflict of Interest Policy: All staff, volunteers, and trustees of The Elyott Generation strive to avoid any conflict of interest between the interests of The Elyott Generation and personal, professional, and business interests. This includes avoiding actual conflicts of interest as well as the perception of conflicts of interest.

The purpose of this policy is to protect the integrity of the CIO's decision-making process, to enable stakeholders to have confidence in the organisation's integrity, and to protect the integrity and reputation of all volunteers, staff and trustees.

Governance

The Elyott Generation is governed by its constitution dated November 2013. The charity trustees manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO. The Trustees give of their time freely, and receive no remuneration for their activities.

Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy

The Elyott Generation facilitates an environment in which children, young people and vulnerable adults are able to worship and grow in Christ safely and are protected from any form of abuse. The Elyott Generation has a moral duty to ensure that it functions with a view of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and those that are vulnerable. To reduce risk and safeguard the people we host; The Elyott Generation has volunteers, staff and trustees who work closely with children, young adults and vulnerable adults. They have received enhanced DBS checks and The Elyott Generation strives to ensure their behaviour constitutes safe and good practices.

What We Do

Our mandate is to continue stirring hearts to seek a deeper and more intimate relationship with the Lord. We focus on supporting individuals in their pursuit of purpose and personal development, in Christ. We also focus on raising and equipping people to embrace their identity in Christ and step into fulfilling the Lord's desire and callings for their lives.

We do this via:

- Encounter Room: Encounter Room is a regular event that provides a safe space for quality time with the Lord in worship, prayer, teaching, and fellowship with other Christians. This event, which is free to attend, provides an opportunity to be refreshed, encouraged, ministered to and supported in developing an intimate relationship with the Lord. The event also includes refreshments and a light lunch, and is facilitated by Rev. Valerie Elyott and the 1Aflame team.
- 1Aflame: 1Aflame is the name of our serving community and provides opportunities for people to serve the Lord and others with their time, gifts and resources. It also provides the opportunity to grow in community.
- Holding His Gaze: Holding His Gaze is a discipleship fellowship that helps people grow in intimacy with God. It is our way of recapturing the promises of God and staying sensitive to His heart, by taking time to reflect on Scripture, align with His heart and embrace His love.
- As for Me and My House: As for Me and My House is an online prayer and intercessory meeting focused on families and communities. Sessions take place fortnightly online and include open discussions, reflections on Scripture and prayer.
- Love Gifts: Our 'Love Gifts' are given to recipients as a constant reminder of how known and loved they are by the Lord. Each gift is a very personal and symbolic expression of God's love and provision.

Review of Activities and Achievements

The Elyott Generation is committed to providing its activities, events, training, retreats and other services to all who would benefit from them. Our activities include unrestrained worship, heartfelt prayers, reflection on God's word and in-depth teaching sessions.

Encounter Room

Our Encounter Room gatherings were held 8 times over the course of 2025 at the Mercure Telford Centre Hotel. This location served as a suitable and intimate venue with the opportunity for refreshment service, serving each attendee with complimentary refreshments and lunch as a treat from the Lord. We were able to achieve our aim of hosting events that were inclusive of refreshments without charging the attendees any fees. The meetings were well attended with many testimonies following.

Holding His Gaze - Discipleship Fellowship - Fortnightly

Holding His Gaze is our way of recapturing God's truths concerning us and staying sensitive to His heart. We do this by taking time to reflect on Scripture, align with His heart and embrace His love. Sessions successfully took place over the year.

As for Me and My House - Prayer and Intercession - Fortnightly

As for Me and My House launched in September 2025. As for Me and My House focuses on prayer and intercession for families and communities and sessions successfully took place over the year.

Team conference calls - Weekly

We continue to have our weekly conference calls to grow as a team. During these calls, the team is encouraged in their Christian faith while furthering their knowledge and understanding. We continue to pray together on our conference calls and utilise it as a time to share with one another.

Trustee conference calls - Twice a month

We continue to hold regular trustee conference calls to discuss, plan and enact strategic decisions to ensure we are acting in the best interest of the beneficiaries of the ministry. We also continue to pray together on these conference calls and utilise it as a time to share with one another.

Public Benefits and Achievements

Most of our activities are free of charge and meet public benefit requirements for a religious charity by delivering activities and programmes that meet the aims and purposes of the organisations. These are offered to anyone interested in the Christian faith.

Our provision is open to the public and offered to all via 1:1 appointment, in-person gatherings, our website, and various social media platforms.

Volunteers

Our volunteers are made up of Christians from different church backgrounds. They make up the majority of the serving team of the charity and work together as a friendly and supportive community, and do so of their own free will. As a matter of due diligence, at the end of the year all volunteers are offered the opportunity to move on or continue with the charity.

Compassion Sponsorship

Our sponsorship activities are currently focused on children in Africa. We have been sponsoring children via the Compassion project since July 2025.

Our donations help to support the work of the Compassion project in local communities, home-based care and in education.

Finances

Finances are raised by donations that are made to the charity.

Financial Review

Overview:

The ministry's main source of income is primarily donations. This allows us to effectively achieve our stated objectives of helping people develop in their Christian faith and in intimacy with God, via the different arms of the ministry. The income received also supports the ministry's outreach activities and sponsorships.

Income

The financial statements indicate that we received a total income of £61,733 over 2025. This comprised of £58,878 in unrestricted income, and £2,855 in income from Gift Aid.

Expenses

Total expenditure amounted to £57,506 unrestricted funds. This represents a decrease of £3,922 in total expenses from 2024.

One of the factors for the decrease in total expenses was the decrease in ministerial allowances. There was a decrease in the Minister's parsonage and related bills due to a relocation in the previous year.

Reserves

The current reserves are £5,002 which is a £723 increase from last year.

We successfully accomplished one of our financial objectives which was to ensure sufficient funds for the charity as we remain committed to our core mission of supporting individuals in their pursuit of purpose and personal development in Christ.

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustees of the charity

Report of the Independent Examiner to the trustees on the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025

I report on the financial statements of the Charity on for the year ended 31 December 2025 which have been prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 and with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (FRSSE), effective April 2008, adapted to meet the needs of unincorporated organisations, as modified by the Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting issued by the Charity Commissioners for England & Wales, effective April 2005 as revised in June 2008. (The SORP), under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. The trustees are satisfied that the audit requirement of Section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) does not apply, and that there is no requirement in the governing document or constitution of the Charity for the conducting of an audit. As a consequence, the trustees have elected that the financial statements be subject to independent examination.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit, and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

a) examine the accounts under section 145 of the Act;
b) to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act; and;
c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion and scope of work undertaken
I conducted my examination in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners for England & Wales in relation to the conducting of an independent examination, referred to above. An independent examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and of the accounting systems employed by the Charity and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning such matters. The purpose of the examination is to establish as far as possible that there have been no breaches of the Charities legislation and that the financial statements comply with the SORP, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and information supplied by the trustees in the course of the examination is not subjected to audit tests or enquiries, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the financial statements, and in particular, I express no opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charity, and my report is limited to the matters set out in the statement below.

I planned and performed my examination so as to satisfy myself that the objectives of the independent examination are achieved and before finalising the report, I obtain written assurances from the trustees of all material matters.

Independent Examiner's Statement, report and opinion
Subject to the limitations upon the scope of my work as detailed above, in connection with my examination, I can confirm that this is a report in respect of an examination carried out under section 145 of the Act and in accordance with any directions given by the Commission under subsection (5)(b) of that section which are applicable;

and that, no matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

(i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act;

(ii) to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act and;

(iii) that the financial statements be prepared in accordance with the methods and principles set out in the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in my report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention
The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (FRSSE), effective April 2008, and all other applicable accounting standards, as modified by the Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting issued by the Charity Commissioners for England & Wales, (revised June 2008).

Incoming resources
All incoming resources are included on the Statement of Financial Activities when the charity is legally entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy.

Resources expended
Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation
The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting
Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Hire purchase and leasing commitments
Rentals paid under operating leases are charged to the statements of financial activities on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

2. TRUSTEES' REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

There were no trustees' remuneration or other benefits for the year ended 31 December 2025 nor for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Trustees' Expenses
There were no trustees' expenses paid neither for the year ended 31 December 2025 nor for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustees of the charity

Report of the Independent Examiner to the trustees on the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025

I report on the financial statements of the Charity on for the year ended 31 December 2025 which have been prepared in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 and with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (FRSSE), effective April 2008, adapted to meet the needs of unincorporated organisations, as modified by the Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting issued by the Charity Commissioners for England & Wales, effective April 2005 as revised in June 2008. (The SORP), under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. The trustees are satisfied that the audit requirement of Section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) does not apply, and that there is no requirement in the governing document or constitution of the Charity for the conducting of an audit. As a consequence, the trustees have elected that the financial statements be subject to independent examination.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit, and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

a) examine the accounts under section 145 of the Act;
b) to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act; and;
c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of opinion and scope of work undertaken
I conducted my examination in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners for England & Wales in relation to the conducting of an independent examination, referred to above. An independent examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and of the accounting systems employed by the Charity and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. I planned and performed my examination so as to satisfy myself that the objectives of the independent examination are achieved and before finalising the report, I obtain written assurances from the trustees of all material matters.

Independent Examiner's Statement, report and opinion
Subject to the limitations upon the scope of my work as detailed above, in connection with my examination, I can confirm that this is a report in respect of an examination carried out under section 145 of the Act and in accordance with any directions given by the Commission under subsection (5)(b) of that section which are applicable;

and that, no matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

(i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act;

(ii) to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act and;

(iii) that the financial statements be prepared in accordance with the methods and principles set out in the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities
