To ensure that everyone can access judo regardless of their financial means or circumstances.

OUR OBJECTIVES

- Maintain "charity" status for Rushjudo.
- Maintain and decorate the "Dojo" to a high standard.
- Introduce a National Squad player pathway guide for parents.
- Increase the coaching staff by investing in our more experienced players and ensuring there is succession management.
- Maintain the regional Centre of excellence for performance and special needs players.

1. Overview and Introduction

Rush Judo is a registered charity that promotes judo in the local community, offering people of all ages and abilities a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment in which to participate.

Throughout 2025, the club delivered high-quality coaching, athlete development, and community outreach programmes that supported members' physical and personal growth. Rush Judo remained committed to the core judo values of respect, discipline, and perseverance while broadening participation and access.

2. Membership and Growth

Membership grew by 13% during the year, while the attrition rate remained low at just 3%. This strong performance was supported by an expanded class schedule, including the successful introduction of a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu (BJJ) section. The new offering has broadened the range of training available to existing members while also attracting new participants to the club.

3. Competitions and Results

International success: Michael Fryer secured gold at the Sarajevo European Open.
At the Adaptive European Championships, Skye Westwood won gold and Stan Walker earned silver.
British champions: Jamie Leroux, Alfie Mitchell and George Rowson each claimed a British title.
British Championship bronze medallists: Sophie Rush and Grace Wilson delivered strong performances to secure bronze.
Club-wide success: The team collected an impressive 11 medals at the NHC Split Grade Open.
English Closed: Rush Judo secured three medals, including one gold.

4. Coaching and Development

Rush Judo is committed to developing its coaching team, helping coaches grow their skills while ensuring every session meets the highest standards of instruction and safeguarding.

Three new assistant coaches now support our under-8 and adaptive junior classes. We have also created meaningful volunteering opportunities for young members completing the Bronze Duke of Edinburgh's Award. Encouragingly, many have chosen to continue volunteering after completing the required section, becoming valued members of the coaching team.

This continued investment is underpinned by full compliance with the British Judo Association's coaching, insurance, and safeguarding standards, giving members and families confidence in the quality and safety of every session.

5. Events and Community Outreach

Rush Judo remains deeply embedded in the local community. In 2025, the club expanded its outreach initiatives, focusing on inclusion and accessibility.

Highlights:

- Delivery of judo sessions in three local schools
- Continued “Adaptive Judo” sessions for children and adults with additional needs
- Collaboration with local councils to provide summer holiday sports programmes
- Participation in community events such as sports festivals and open days

These initiatives support the charity’s objective of using judo to promote health, confidence, and social inclusion.

6. Financial Summary

Rush Judo operated on a sound financial footing during 2025. The club’s income was generated through membership fees, grants, fundraising, and sponsorship, which were reinvested directly into club operations, equipment, coaching development, and community programs. The Trip to Sweden meant we went into previous years reserves, but this trip only happens every other year, in 2026 we will replenish the surplus account.

Headline figures (approximate placeholders):

- Total Income: £ 85,256.78
- Total Expenditure: £87,240.09
- Operating Surplus: £1,983.31
- The charity continues to manage its resources prudently, ensuring all funds are used to further its charitable objectives.

7. Governance and Compliance

The trustees met quarterly during 2025 to oversee governance, financial management, and strategic direction. The charity remained compliant with all regulatory and safeguarding obligations under the Charity Commission and British Judo Association frameworks.

Key governance actions:

- Annual review of safeguarding and welfare policies
- Updated risk assessment and emergency procedures
- Transparent financial reporting to members

8. Goals for 2026

Looking ahead, Rush Judo aims to build on the successes of 2025 with the following objectives:

1. Expand community engagement by increasing partnerships with local schools and community groups.

2. Enhance competitive performance through structured athlete development pathways and regional squad collaboration.
3. Develop club infrastructure, exploring funding for mat upgrades and facility improvements.
4. Support coach progression by sponsoring additional qualifications and mentoring programmes.
5. Promote inclusion by growing adaptive and female-focused judo sessions.

9. Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty under section 4 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. The trustees are satisfied that Rush Judo's activities in 2025 delivered clear and measurable public benefit through sport, education, and community inclusion.
