Trustees' Annual Report

For the financial period 2 November 2023 to 1 November 2024

Reference and Administrative Details

Charity name: Okoh Aid

Trustees:
Doris Marcelle Sitchou
Jules Monthe
Diderot Monthe
Ghaetan Sohfeuyo

Objectives and Activities

Okoh Aid exists to relieve poverty and improve the lives of disadvantaged people, particularly children and vulnerable families in Cameroon. During the reporting period, the charity provided humanitarian support through the donation of clothing and other essential items funded by donations received in the United Kingdom.

Achievements and Performance

During the reporting period, the charity raised funds in the United Kingdom and used them to support charitable activities in Cameroon. Support included the purchase and distribution of children's clothing and other essential goods to people in need. The trustees are satisfied that the charity's funds were applied solely in furtherance of its charitable purposes.

Financial Review

The charity received total income of £5,034 during the financial period. Total expenditure amounted to £4,996, which was applied to charitable activities in Cameroon, including the purchase and delivery of aid. The charity recorded a surplus of £38 at the end of the financial period. The charity had no investments, no borrowings and no paid employees during the reporting period.

Reserves Policy

The charity is small and does not currently maintain significant financial reserves. Available funds are used to support the charity's charitable activities while ensuring sufficient funds remain to meet immediate commitments.

Structure, Governance and Management

Okoh Aid is governed by its governing document and managed by its trustees. The trustees meet as required to oversee the charity's activities, finances and compliance with Charity Commission requirements. Trustees serve on a voluntary basis and receive no remuneration.

Risk Management

The trustees regularly consider the principal risks facing the charity, including financial management, safeguarding and the delivery of aid overseas. Appropriate steps are taken to minimise these risks within the resources available to the charity.

Public Benefit

The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. They believe the charity's activities have provided public benefit by supporting disadvantaged children and vulnerable people in Cameroon.
