Governance and management
The charity is operated under the rules of its CIO-Foundation constitution adopted 06/01/2016.

New trustees are appointed for a two-year period by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of trustees. No new trustees have been appointed yet and trustees have used their delegation powers to a committee, recruited for their skills and knowledge needed for the effective running of the charity.

Objectives and activities
To promote equality and diversity for the public benefit and in particular the elimination of discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation or gender identity, including in particular but not exclusively by: (1) raising the awareness of the public with regard to all aspects of discrimination in society and issues and difficulties affecting the lives of lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans (LGBT) people; (2) cultivating a sentiment in favour of equality and diversity in particular through celebrating the diversity of LGBT communities; (3) advancing education in equality and diversity whether by signposting to other organisations or services or producing materials; (4) producing publications, lectures, media and other means of communication; (5) staging an annual LGBT festival; and such other objects as are charitable under the laws of England and wales as the trustees shall at their absolute discretion determine.

Nottinghamshire Pride

Public benefit statement
The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit, 'Charities and Public Benefit'.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit
Provides a free to attend event including information stalls, stage and cultural area and an equality march through the city. Increasing LGBT+ visibility, providing vital information to LGBT+ people and a celebration of diversity in Nottinghamshire.

Summary of the main achievements during the period
We delivered our annual Notts Pride event of which 11,000 people attended the equality march and 20,000 people attended the Notts Pride event throughout the day. Notts pride attracted an additional 54,000 people into Nottingham City. We had 50 information stalls and attracted 15 sponsors, local businesses within the Notts area. We celebrated 2 organisations at our annual LGBT+ awards during LGBT+ History Month.

Financial review
We started the year with £32,535 in the bank and ended the year w th £62,227, the total cost of the event was £90,773. We are very pleased we were able to raise the funds to fund this year's event whilst still managing to keep a balance at the end of the financial year.

The charity's policy on reserves
There is no specific reserves policy as such but the trustees continue to review the viability of performing events and will make a judgement on the size of an event based on the income generated from grant providers and the cash available, after taking into consideration future expected costs.

Financial risks
The charity has a significant risk of not being able to obtain sufficient income in order to perform its events. This is mitigated by the trustees assessing the income that has come in before making a decision on the size of the Notts Pride event. If the charity does not obtain the income it wishes, then a "light event "- low in cost to perform will occur.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Nottinghamshire Pride for the year ended 30 September 2025

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Nottinghamshire Pride (the charity) for the year ended 30 September 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
