CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 01st January 2025 Period start date

To 31ST December 2025 Period end date

Charity name: NURULLAHI MUSLIM COMMUNITY NORTHAMPTON

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To advance the Islamic faith for the public benefit, in accordance with the Statement of Faith attached hereto.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Religious Activities Nurullahi Muslim community provides a centre for worship and prayers and other activities associated with the Islamic faith. For the period of the year under review, we presented a range of services and activities. Festivals: Foods and drinks are available for any members of the community to celebrate Eid. More so, during Ramadan plenty of foods, fruits, and drinks are provided for any members of the public that want to break their fast. Civil marriage and Nikah Nurullahi Muslim Community provide Muslims couples with an appropriate support and avenue to carry out their Nikah during the year under review. Hifz Classes: Teaching and learning to memorise the Quran is regarded as an important element of Islamic religious education and moral training. We continue to make available this class for young people in Northampton. We are very glad this programme continues to run successfully with over 30 young people still attending till date. Programme on the Qur'an: We carry out a full Quranic recitation every quarter to help members and the public to get a crystal-clear understanding of Quran teaching. Islamic awareness: we hold public lectures by bringing external lecturers that are well qualified Islamic scholars; where members and community at large are invited to listen and ask a question on general Islamic teaching. Zakat: This is one of the important pillars of our faith. It's said that whoever can give charity should give it. Money is collected under the principle of Islamic teaching by those that have the means. The collected money is used for a number of specific reasons, such as helping others. A Muslim need not give their Zakat to Nurullahi Muslim Community, but we do provide an opportunity for those who want to contribute to giving theirs and we arrange its distribution for approved purposes. Community Activities Our rented community hall provides a valuable educational and recreational avenue to all in our local community centre

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	We can confirm that the trustee have had regard to the guidance issue by the charity commission

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Summary of the Charity's Activities Throughout the reporting period, the Charity continued to undertake a range of activities to advance the Islamic faith for the public benefit within the local community. The Charity's activities included the following: 1. Weekly Religious Gatherings The Charity organised weekly gatherings that provided members of the public with opportunities to learn about, practise and strengthen their Muslim faith. These gatherings included sharing Islamic teachings, religious discussions and prayers, helping participants to develop their understanding of Islam and strengthen their spiritual connection. 2. Financial and Practical Assistance to Those in Need In accordance with the Islamic principle of Fi Sabilillah (in the cause of Allah), the Charity provided financial and practical assistance to members of the public experiencing hardship. Upon receiving requests for support, the trustees assessed individual circumstances and, where appropriate, provided assistance in the form of food, clothing, shelter and financial support, subject to the Charity's resources and charitable objectives. 3. Islamic Religious Education and Training The Charity delivered regular Islamic education and training sessions for its members and the wider public. These sessions aimed to deepen participants' knowledge and understanding of Islamic beliefs, values and teachings, support their spiritual development, and encourage the practical application of Islamic principles in their daily lives. 4. Community Outreach Programmes The Charity conducted regular outreach programmes to engage with members of the local community, introduce them to the teachings and principles of Islam, and provide opportunities for them to learn more about the Islamic faith. These programmes also helped the Charity build relationships within the community and encourage wider participation in its religious and charitable activities. Through these activities, the Charity continued to pursue its charitable objectives by advancing the Islamic faith, promoting religious education and providing practical assistance to individuals in need for the public benefit.
