Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	The governing document referred to as "CIO" can be found on the Charity's website.
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Advertisement, Interview, Discussion amongst relevant Trustees, References where considered necessary. All new appointments need ID verification.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Charity is managed by the board of Trustees in monthly meetings, and all volunteers and Trustees get together in the monthly All Team Meeting.
New Trustees (and volunteers too) are given an induction pack on joining the Charity, and also a "Buddy" to help integrate them into the team.
Major risks and the systems to manage them are discussed and agreed as required in the board meetings and recorded in the minutes. Where necessary they are circulated to the volunteers.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document The Governing document is set out overleaf in "Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit".

"To advance the education of the public in the subject of Personal Peace"

Work with Partners to achieve that aim

How we put that into practice is set out in the box: "Additional Details of Objectives and Activities"
The Governing document is set out overleaf in "Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit".

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)	Governing Document Peace Partners is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO). The Governing Document also referred to as the CIO is presented in full (23 pages) on the Peace Partners website; but as a useful introduction: - the Objects outlined in the CIO are printed below: a) To advance the education of the public in the subject of Personal Peace through the Message of Peace and the Peace Education Program based upon the teachings of Prem Rawat, throughout the UK, and also across the world. b) To support production of various promotional, multi-media teaching materials and support to help facilitate structured curriculum courses through the Peace Education Program courses which are held in education institutions, community groups, Prisons, veteran groups, and other interested parties throughout the UK, and also across the world. c) For the public benefit, to help with relief and assistance of people who need food and access to safe clean water, by supporting and partnering with international charity organisations, in particular The Prem Rawat Foundation – www.tprf.org - and other similar charitable organisations across the world. d) Advancing health for the public benefit through supporting the teaching of basic hygiene skills and agriculture techniques, in the communities where the Food for People facilities are operational (currently India, Nepal and Ghana), to improve the health and hygiene standards in that community.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Public Benefit As a charity Peace Partners is required by the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 to produce an annual report which makes clear the Public Benefit arising from its activities in 2025 Having been previewed on the meeting of TBA, this report was discussed and signed by the Trustees on ? June 2026, having given due consideration of "Public Benefit" as laid out in the above regulations.

Peace Partners performs its functions through a group of unpaid volunteers who collaborate on specific projects such as Promotions, Fundraising Events and individual Peace Education Programs. Meetings; organisation and communication are conducted through the internet. Wherever possible we work with Partners with similar goals to achieve these objectives, in particular the Prem Rawat Foundation.

Underpinning this is the website which lays out what the Charity does, lists the volunteers with their duties, profile and photo. The site also promotes appeals, accepts and processes online donations. There is an accessible archive containing important documents such as this one, and News updates.
This Charity is entirely managed and supported by Volunteers; this includes those who volunteer in a Trustee capacity.
The making of Grants is decided and agreed by the Trustees in one of their monthly meetings. The objective of helping people find personal peace would include basic needs such as nourishment and shelter.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Peace Education Program
An innovative series of video-based workshops; it helps people discover their own inner strength and personal peace. “The program gives participants the opportunity to focus and reflect on their own humanity, and their inner resources such as choice, hope, and dignity. Rather than describing or defining personal peace, the program empowers individuals to reach their own understanding; it has proven effective in a variety of settings including community centres, youth groups, schools, adult education programs, veterans’ groups, healthcare settings, senior centres, homeless shelters, drug rehabilitation facilities, and correctional facilities.
The Prem Rawat Foundation (TPRF) provides access to the course materials to organizations and volunteers free of charge, making the Peace Education Program readily available to diverse populations in more than 80 countries and in 40 languages”.
Peace Partners promotes funds, assists and runs TPRF Peace Education Programs (PEP) in the UK. There are two types Physical – i.e. in a hall and Virtual – Zoom.
This year, in addition to running and supporting existing Peace Education Programmes we have:

- Trained 22 PEP facilitators using a Virtual format in a manner approved by TPRF. We also have expressions of interest from a further 35 people.
- Supporting PEPs run by the Mental Health Teams in Wales for their own staff.
- Agreed to continue supporting Greek virtual PEP courses by continuing to include them in our Zoom Account. This helps support what is still a fledgling project.

Promoting the Peace Education Programme

- Grant to TPRF to help support volunteer stand at the Rotary International Conference in Calgary, Canada
- Arranging provision for printed materials at the Peace Education Programme stands in the Launch events of the book “Breath” by Prem Rawat, London and Dublin.

Within Peace Partners

- Reorganisation of Finance team through the recruitment of a Treasurer
- Successful adoption of Xero accounting Software.
- Recognition of “Authorised Official” by HMRC - the backlog of the whole of 2023 being successfully claimed.

Fundraising and other Grants

- Funding support from our wonderful subscribers and donors who responded to appeals. This year we raised £12,226.
- Grant to Bedrock Books in response to an appeal.
- Responses to Appeals by TPRF throughout the year.
- Total awards on Grants and Appeals was £9,563.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Minimum of £3,000 in the bank
Details of any funds materially in deficit	No Gift Aid claims were made last year (2024) due to the lack of an "Authorised Official" with HMRC. This has been remedied and claims have been put through in 2025 as normal by our Authorised Official rendering the charity profitable again.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The principal source of the Charity's funds are long standing donors who support the aims of Peace Partners and the Prem Rawat Foundation.

This core group and a larger cohort also respond to online appeals by the Foundation, supported by Peace Partners.
In this way the charity fulfils one of its core tasks which is the financial support of the Prem Rawat Foundation's activities worldwide.

This Charity promotes, funds, provides materials and also runs TPRF Peace Education Program courses in the UK.

Section F Other optional information

The annual accounts were presented to Celtic Bookkeeping in early March 2026. In the subsequent meeting of 20th March we agreed that there was no need for audit of this year's accounts due to the low turnover, and our positive response to the recommendations in their 2024 inspection report. However with the change in personnel in 2026, an inspection would be required for that year. The 2024 inspection report is attached as is a communication from Celtic Bookkeeping confirming that no inspection was needed this year.

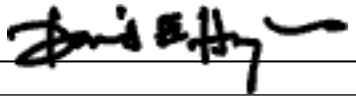

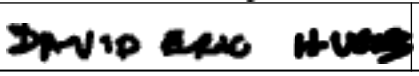

Most of the £12,226 donated in 2025 was raised for TPRF our major partner based in the USA. In previous years this has been balanced by much greater distribution to partners within the UK.
In common with all UK charities, it is acknowledged that recruitment of volunteers has been a major issue for Peace Partners since the pandemic. Never the less, recruitment of a replacement Partnership Manager must be a major priority in 2026. Resolution of this should drive fundraising at a partnership level, which in turn would also address the drop in fundraising income raised by the independent inspector in 2024.

On a positive note the Charity successfully recruited and began the induction a Treasurer in 2025.
