Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	Please note: We attempted to close the charity after ten years, but something seems to have gone wrong. We have not applied for any funding and have not received any. We are not attempting to operate at this moment in time. Except, if appropriate in a voluntary capacity. There any finance will be recorded as nil. We want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has supported us, worked with us or participated in any way. It has been a wonderful time for which we are very grateful. Our overarching aim is to support young people to thrive and grow into confident, capable, and responsible members of society. We do this by: (a) Offering meaningful recreational and leisure activities that are rooted in social purpose and designed to enhance young people's well-being and overall quality of life. (b) Providing targeted support and engaging opportunities that help young people build the skills, capacities, and confidence they need to make positive contributions to their communities and navigate adulthood with resilience and purpose.

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Final Impact Report – Celebrating 10 Years of Youth Empowerment (2015–2025) As we close our tenth and final year of operation, we reflect with pride on the lasting impact we've made in the lives of young people. Since launching in 2015, our charity has championed inclusive, creative, and skills-focused programmes that have reached thousands. ## Highlights from Our Final Year This year, we delivered dynamic debating sessions in schools, helping young people grow in confidence, develop persuasive communication skills, and express themselves on important issues. We are proud to have reached over 1,000 children through our school-based debating work. Thanks to support from the Brent Youth Foundation, we strengthened our delivery and expanded access to our projects. We also published Debating Definitions, a comprehensive and accessible book capturing the essence of our debating programme. Now available on Amazon, the book is being widely disseminated to the young people we've worked with, offering a lasting educational resource with all the topics we've covered through the years. Through our involvement in London Youth's Heritage Programme, young people interviewed each other about their cultural backgrounds and the influences on their lives—celebrating identity, community, and shared stories. We proudly nominated a participant for a Jack Petchey Achievement Award, recognising dedication and growth. We completed an academic year of provision at Unitas Youth Zone in Barnet, providing consistent support, activities, and mentoring in a safe and inclusive setting.
