Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	The charity's objects (purposes) are: (1) The prevention or relief of poverty in the United Kingdom and overseas by providing grants, items, and services to individuals in need and to charities or other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty. (2) The relief of financial needs and suffering among victims of natural or other kinds of disaster by providing money or other means deemed suitable to affected persons, bodies, organisations, and countries, including the provision of medical aid.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

1) The prevention or relief of poverty in the UK and overseas by providing grants, items and services to individuals in need and/or charities, or other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty.
Elaboration:
This objective addresses both the immediate symptoms and root causes of poverty, operating at local, national, and international levels. Activities may include:

Direct support to individuals: Providing essential items such as food, clothing, hygiene products, household goods, and educational materials. Services may include advice on welfare benefits, debt management, budgeting, access to training, and employment support.

Grants to families and individuals: Financial assistance for urgent needs such as utility bills, emergency housing costs, travel to medical appointments, or school uniforms.

Capacity-building for other organisations: Offering grants or pro bono resources to charities, community groups, and social enterprises working on poverty relief. This could include funding for food banks, homeless shelters, fuel voucher schemes, or childcare programmes.

Preventive measures: Supporting initiatives that tackle the structural drivers of poverty, such as financial literacy workshops, digital inclusion projects, and programmes aimed at reducing food waste or improving access to affordable credit.

Overseas focus: In developing countries, funding may support sustainable agriculture, clean water projects, microloans, or emergency feeding programmes, in partnership with reputable local organisations.

2) The relief of financial needs and suffering among victims of natural or other kinds of disaster in the form of money (or other means deemed suitable) for persons, bodies, organisations and/or countries affected, including the provision of medical aid.
Elaboration:
This objective enables rapid, flexible, and compassionate responses to disasters—whether sudden (e.g., earthquakes, floods, storms) or slow-onset (e.g., droughts, famines, conflict-induced displacement). Activities may include:

Emergency financial assistance: Direct cash transfers or vouchers to affected individuals and families to meet their most urgent needs (food, water, shelter, clothing) with dignity and choice.

Provision of physical goods: Distribution of emergency kits (hygiene, shelter, cooking utensils), blankets, portable stoves, water purification tablets, and children’s supplies.

Medical aid: Sourcing and delivering essential medicines, first aid supplies, mobile clinic units, or funding temporary health posts and trauma counselling services in disaster zones.

Support to local responders: Grants or material aid to local charities, health bodies, community organisations, or government agencies coordinating disaster relief, ensuring culturally appropriate and timely action.

Longer-term recovery: Assistance with rebuilding homes, restoring livelihoods, or providing psychosocial support to reduce long-term suffering and vulnerability to future disasters.

International scope: Aid may be directed to any country or region, subject to the charity's capacity and compliance with UK charity law (including ensuring funds reach legitimate beneficiaries without supporting prohibited entities).

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

No charitable activities were undertaken during the financial year ended 31 March 2025. The charity made no grants, distributed no items or services, and conducted no operational programmes in the UK or overseas.

This pause in activities resulted from [select and adapt one or more of the following as truthful]:

- Limited trustee capacity due to personal circumstances
- A period of strategic review and restructuring
- Insufficient funds to safely carry out activities
- No suitable grant applications or partnership opportunities arising during the year

Despite the absence of recent activities, the charity's two core objectives remain very much at the centre of the trustees' intentions. The charity has not been wound up or dissolved because the trustees believe there remains a genuine need for its purposes and a realistic prospect of resuming activities in the future.
