Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	For the public benefit the prevention of sickness and the preservation of health by financially supporting various selected charities that are focused on both the treatment and support of people suffering from cancer, and cancer research

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Sono Vivo benefits the public through the prevention of sickness and the preservation of health by financially supporting various selected charities that are focused on both the treatment and support of people suffering from cancer, and cancer research.

The organisation is grant-making and it supports the organisations listed below. The trustees have a formal grant-making policy which lays down the relevant criteria for making a grant to another organisation.

- The Royal Marsden Charity
- Oracle Cancer Trust
- Macmillan Cancer Support
- Institute of Cancer Research
- Cancer Research UK

Other cancer charities will be considered for financial support over time but currently these are the ones the trustees have identified as ones they wish to support.

In its decision making, the trustees of Sono Vivo specifically take into consideration their duty to give due regard to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The founders of Sono Vivo are cancer survivors and professional musicians. Part of Sono Vivo's activities are to stage music concerts, the proceeds of which are used to provide grants for other cancer charities.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Sono Vivo did not stage music concerts during the year.

The founders of Sono Vivo are professional musicians who are also cancer survivors. We support our charitable aim by staging music concerts, the proceeds of which are used to provide grants for other cancer charities.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The trustees of Sono Vivo have determined that the minimum level of reserves of Sono Vivo are £500. This amount represents the maximum level of expenses the organisation would reasonably expect to incur in the period of one year. Our closing bank balance is £1,506.02, leaving reserves well in excess of this minimum.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	Not applicable

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F Other optional information
