- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The protection of health, the relief of poverty and the advancement of education of the people living in Tanzania, particularly the rural communities around Arusha by the provision of items, good and services to improve living condition and quality of life.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charitable objectives of the charity are at the heart of all decision making that the Trustees undertake to ensure there is public benefit.

The Trustees have regard to the Charity Commission public benefit requirements and consider that the charities objectives meet these requirements.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has not held any events in the year, with annual Chef & Spice fundraiser being postponed. Since the year end, this has now taken place and was a great success.

During the period the charity also received specific donations for a number of projects including continued support of student's education and health promotion. Funds for these specific objectives have been used as the requirement arises to support individuals in Tanzania.

At the year end restricted funds for specific projects amounted to £12,664 and will continue to be used for the designated purposes after the year end.

Additional costs have unfortunately been incurred by the charity during this financial year end in respect of defending itself against a legal claim within Tanzania. The case was heard and charity was able to prove it had done no wrongdoing. The case was lost by the claimant and the charity cleared of any claims. The claimant has the right to appeal against the court's decision, but it is hoped that this is now concluded.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	We aim to maintain a small reserve to cover on going costs and to allow the initial funding of charitable events and for larger projects which at present includes the ongoing maintenance of the village school, provision of furniture for a children's hostel and further health projects.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	N/a

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

There has been a number of regular and one off donations received in the period, providing funds that have been used for the charity's objectives.
