YIVO UK (a Charitable Incorporated Organisation)

Charity Number: 1170213

Trustees' Annual Report for the period 1 January to 31 December 2025

Objectives

The objects of the charity are the fostering of knowledge and the education of the public and scholars of the 1000-year history of Jewish life in Eastern Europe and Russia in all its aspects including language, religion, folkways, and material culture and in the furtherance of this to support the continued development, maintenance and preservation of the archive, library and educational resources of the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research, New York (YIVO Institute).

Statement of Assets and Liabilities

At 31 December 2025, the charity had no assets and no liabilities.

Reserves Policy

There are currently no reserves of the charity as it has been dormant. The policy of the Trustees has been to build up its reserves by judicious management of any investments it may make, fundraising and to make payments from those reserves so that its charitable objectives can be achieved.

Investment Policy and Performance

The Trustees' investment policy is to achieve growth in any investment portfolio it establishes while protecting those investments, avoiding investments with high risk.

Plans for Future Periods – closure of the charity

The charity has remained dormant throughout the period to 31 December 2025. The Trustees have concluded that it is not feasible for the charity to achieve its charitable objectives and so intend to apply to dissolve the charity.

Trustees' Responsibility Statement

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The charity is obligated, as a CIO, to prepare accounts and a Trustees' annual report for each financial year.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with their obligations. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Disclosure of information

Each of the persons who are Trustees at the time when this Trustees' report is approved has confirmed that:

1. So far as that Trustee is aware, all relevant audit information has been disclosed; and
2. That Trustees have taken all the steps that ought to have been taken as Trustees in order to be aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that such information has been disclosed.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the charity's obligations as a CIO.
