For the Year Ended 31 December 2025

The trustees of the CIO comply with the purposes of the Charities Act 2011, to present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of the 2nd edition of Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities' issued in October 2019.

Ruth Generation Foundation is a Christian voluntary organisation, set up as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) in June 2019.

We work predominantly with Women and families by providing a unique mentoring programme for building strength, courage and character for life. We aim to address life challenges and struggles due to family breakdowns, marriage difficulties, single parenting, teenage pregnancies and children with challenging behaviours. We provide restorative programmes and empowerment workshops through teachings, mentoring, spiritual and practical support that will strengthen their spiritual, emotional and social life in order to fulfil life purpose especially in marriage and family life. We work in partnership with community organisations, statutory agencies, churches and voluntary organisations to support women with intensive mentoring.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

As a small organisation, our main aim is to serve women & girls, mothers and children, families and marriages facing challenges, confronting various life issues especially marriage and family relationships. We focus our support on women who are broken, vulnerable, confused and struggling; mothers with children who have challenging behaviours, violence, knife and gun crimes; and dysfunctional families or marriages broken down.

We are passionate to support them with changes to:

1. Rebuild strength, confidence and courage;
2. Renew hope and restore purpose;
3. Maintain healthy relationships and family life.

We are building links to work in partnership with community organisations, external agencies, churches and statutory bodies, that will provide additional support and complement what we do to meet the needs of our service users.

Public benefit

Ruth Generation Foundation believe everyone can benefit from a mentoring relationship. We promote mental & moral Improvement, ethical standards of conduct, relief of poverty and advancement of the Christian faith for the public benefit of women, mothers, children and families in the United Kingdom.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

In pursuance of the achievement of our aims and objectives, Ruth Generation Foundation sets up activities and projects that best meet the imminent needs of our service users, to bring about positive change.

Current Activities

Naomi & Ruth Mentoring Relationships;

We offer 1-1 mentoring to women & girls who are single, single parents or married. The sessions focused on spiritual and emotional wellbeing, to be enhanced with group empowerment workshops that will ultimately ensure they build strength, courage, positive character and healthy relationship for fulfilling life purpose. The journey of a Ruth mentee is from 6 months to 24 months, with a commitment of 2 hours work per week.

The training of Naomi mentors is ongoing with the founding Naomi mentors and new interests. We continued with regular meetings online to strengthen their spiritual, emotional, physical life and wellbeing.

Restorative Programme;

We offer a tailored 1-1 intervention mentoring programme for those going through intense challenges that require emotional healing and inner strength. Like the above 1-1 mentoring relationship this also involves group mentoring sessions, retreat programmes and other techniques to improve spiritual, emotional and physical well-being.

We offer more bible study and prayer sessions for service users in the Christian faith, who require support to build their spiritual life and emotional well being.

Prayer movement;

The prayer movement Mothers On The Streets (MOTS), that focuses on praying on our streets for peace, safety and protection of children and young people in London continued monthly and weekly by various Mothers On their individual streets. As at January 2025 Mothers added praying at Schools to their monthly and weekly prayers.

Family/Marriage Intervention Plan;

We are developing our tailor-made support and guidance for this category of service users through family liaison support, techniques for improving or restoring broken families including marriage counseling; in order to i) restore love, peace, unity and harmony in the home; ii) rebuild healthy relationships and functional family lives; iii) renew hope and restore purpose in children & young people.

We are working on establishing links with social services who have expressed interest in this work, as additional support for women who are of the Christian faith on their registers. We are maintaining work with few families referred by individual Social Workers who commend our work.

Group empowerment sessions;

We are developing the following workshops in conjunction with all mentoring programmes, to focus on character building and understanding healthy relationships. These will include:

i) Self-awareness & Self-development;
ii) Strong Emotions;
iii) Foundation Stones for Life;
iv) Character building;
v) Parenting sessions (Woman & child);
vi) Series: Woman & Health, Woman & Money, Woman & Home, Woman &Beauty;
vii) Healthy relationship building sessions (Woman & Relationships).

Online tools and resources;

We are creating a First Stop Shop for online resources & information, to provide a knowledge bank for women and families to enhance life-long learning. The specific resources currently online are:

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the charity to maintain free reserves of the CIO, at a level which equates to at least 3 months of expenditure. This provides sufficient funds to cover management, administration and support costs and to respond to emergencies which may arise from time-to-time.

Funding sources

Funds utilised during the year was received from:

- Individual Donations

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

As and when we get funding, we hope to execute the following projects;

1. Mothers & Daughters' self-help groups in communities, as an extension of Naomi & Ruth mentoring relationships.

2. Befriending & Outreach service for lonely, isolated and hard to reach women & families.

3. Financial literacy & planning programme.

4. Ruth Generation Residential Restoration Home for women and children.

5. Ruth Generation Mentoring Centre

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom

Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Charity Act requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the CIO and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the CIO for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;

- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the CIO and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the CIO and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on 30th Nov 2025.
