The BHPA Foundation
Annual report and Accounts 2026.

The Foundation received no donations and incurred no payments or expenditure during the accounting year.

Although the Charity undertook no substantive activities during the year, the trustees have always regarded its objectives as forming part of a long-term project. The trustees remain committed to pursuing these objectives and are hopeful that meaningful progress will be made in future years.

W Bell

Chair