Shining Stars

Where every child shines

"Children are the world's most valuable resource and its best hope for the future."
John F. Kennedy

CHAIR STATEMENT

A child can become used to many things they should never have to accept: being the one who cannot afford to join in, the one whose ability is underestimated, the one for whom opportunities always seem to belong to somebody else.

This is something we care about deeply at Shining Stars, and it has particular importance in our work with girls and women.

Over the years, we have had the privilege of watching girls grow in front of us. We have watched girls discover abilities, speak with greater assurance and take on responsibility that once felt far beyond them. Most rewarding of all is seeing that growth become something they pass on: older girls encouraging younger ones, young women volunteering, and former participants returning to contribute to the community that once supported them.

There is something incredibly powerful about watching a girl begin to expect more for herself.

As our girls grow older, we are also becoming much more conscious of what they need from us next. One of our developing priorities is teen girls' health and wellbeing. We want girls to have access to trusted, appropriate support and better knowledge around their health and wellbeing at a stage when questions can be difficult to raise and good support is not always easy to find. We are currently developing new provision in this area and look forward to making it an important part of our work ahead.

I also want to say something directly to our funders. Thank you for caring about these girls and young women with us. Behind every grant is a girl who got to take part, an opportunity that could be offered, a family that felt supported, or a new need we were able to respond to. Your belief in Shining Stars gives us the courage to keep looking further ahead and asking, what else do our girls and young women deserve from us?

We will keep asking that question. We will keep noticing where girls are missing out, creating opportunities where there were too few, and making space for their abilities, ideas and ambitions to grow.

Our ambition is that every girl who comes through Shining Stars leaves seeing a wider horizon for herself than the one she saw when she arrived.

That is The Sky is the Limit.

We operate with honesty and hold ourselves accountable for all words and actions.

Excellence
We set high expectations and work hard to achieve them by engaging in continuous learning and improvement.

Innovation
We seek out and embrace new possibilities that can increase our impact.

PROJECT THEMES

Our four project themes are: society, subsistence success and skills. These themes encompass the core values that we believe are essential for a child's growth and development.

Society

plays a crucial role in shaping the social skills of children, and it is our responsibility to ensure that all children are included and feel valued. Children who are often excluded from social settings can struggle with developing necessary social skills, which can have long-lasting effects on their mental health and well-being.

Subsistence

In today's world, millions of children and young people are struggling to access food and essentials due to various reasons. As a society, it is our responsibility to support these vulnerable groups and ensure that they have access to the necessities required for their survival. We believe that no child should have to bear the burden of poverty, and we strive towards making their lives better through our small efforts. Through this program, we provide nutritious meals to underprivileged children who come from low-income families. Our aim is not only to fill their stomachs but also improve their overall health and well-being.

Success

is about providing opportunities for personal growth, career development and financial stability. It involves mentorship programs, vocational training and entrepreneurship initiatives. Every child deserves the opportunity to succeed in life. Providing every child with a pathway to success is critical for their future and the future of society as a whole.

Skills

refer to the development of cognitive, emotional and physical abilities that enable children to learn and grow. This includes education, creative expression, problem-solving and critical thinking.

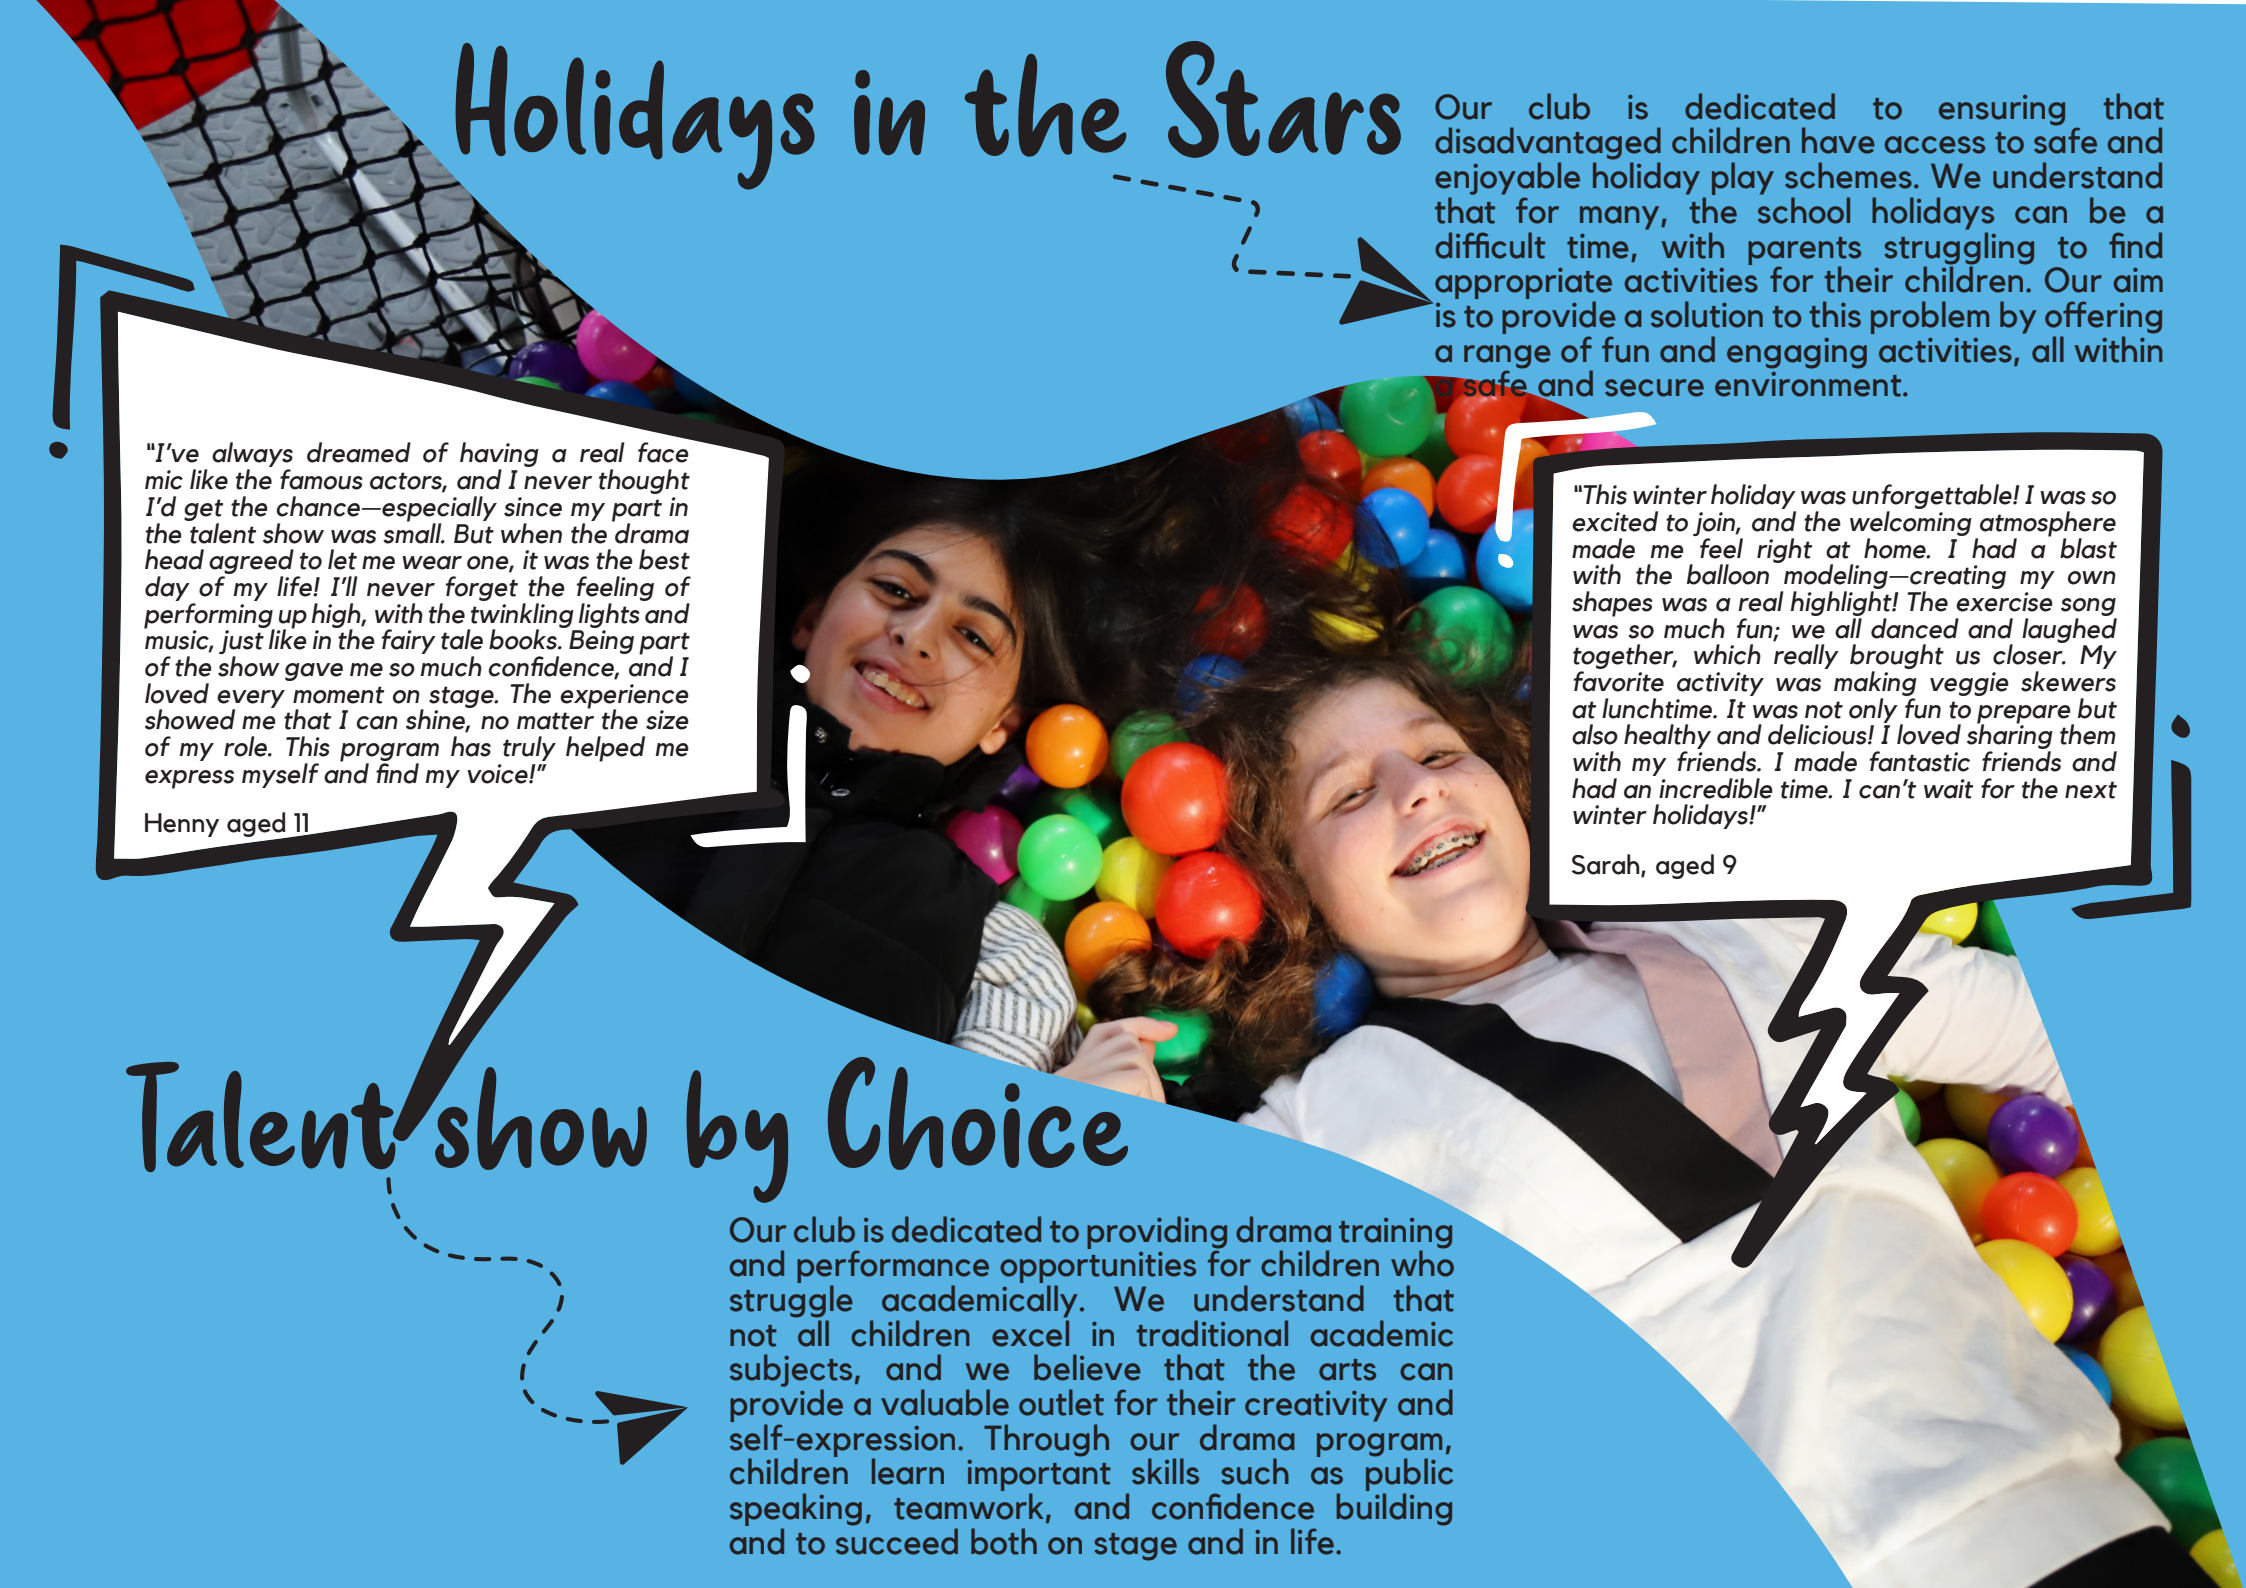

By focusing on these four project themes for supporting children we can create a holistic approach that addresses their needs at every stage of life and create a positive impact on their future.

Holidays in the Stars

Our club is dedicated to ensuring that disadvantaged children have access to safe and enjoyable holiday play schemes. We understand that for many, the school holidays can be a difficult time, with parents struggling to find appropriate activities for their children. Our aim is to provide a solution to this problem by offering a range of fun and engaging activities, all within a safe and secure environment.

"I've always dreamed of having a real face mic like the famous actors, and I never thought I'd get the chance—especially since my part in the talent show was small. But when the drama head agreed to let me wear one, it was the best day of my life! I'll never forget the feeling of performing up high, with the twinkling lights and music, just like in the fairy tale books. Being part of the show gave me so much confidence, and I loved every moment on stage. The experience showed me that I can shine, no matter the size of my role. This program has truly helped me express myself and find my voice!"

Henny aged 11

"This winter holiday was unforgettable! I was so excited to join, and the welcoming atmosphere made me feel right at home. I had a blast with the balloon modeling—creating my own shapes was a real highlight! The exercise song was so much fun; we all danced and laughed together, which really brought us closer. My favorite activity was making veggie skewers at lunchtime. It was not only fun to prepare but also healthy and delicious! I loved sharing them with my friends. I made fantastic friends and had an incredible time. I can't wait for the next winter holidays!"

Sarah, aged 9

Talent show by Choice

Our club is dedicated to providing drama training and performance opportunities for children who struggle academically. We understand that not all children excel in traditional academic subjects, and we believe that the arts can provide a valuable outlet for their creativity and self-expression. Through our drama program, children learn important skills such as public speaking, teamwork, and confidence building and to succeed both on stage and in life.

"Since my daughter, Ava, joined the Weekly Superstars, her social skills have improved tremendously. Initially, she struggled to make friends and often felt isolated, but the inclusive environment has helped her connect with other kids. Now, she actively participates in group activities and has made several close friends. This program has been a lifeline for her social development!"

Ettel S., Parent of a Weekly Superstars Participant

Weekly Superstars

This project is Part funded by Young Hackney

Our weekly youth clubs are designed to cater to the unique interests and needs of different age groups. We offer a range of activities that are both fun and educational, including sports, crafts, music, drama, and more. Our team of trained staff members ensures that each child feels included and valued while participating in these activities. Moreover, our youth clubs provide an opportunity for children to develop social skills and make new friends. We encourage teamwork, communication, and respect among all participants. We understand the importance of keeping children engaged in constructive activities during their free time.

"As a leader for the Shining Stars clubs, I've learned invaluable skills like critical thinking and effective communication that empower me to guide my peers. It's rewarding to organize events and see the positive impact we're making together. This experience has not only shaped my leadership abilities but has also helped me connect with others in a meaningful way. I'm grateful for the opportunity to grow and inspire change in my community!"

Bella, Leader of Year 5

Leadership Badge

The demand for strong character and leadership skills is increasing in classrooms and workplaces. Being able to think critically, demonstrate empathy for others, communicate effectively, solve problems and collaborate well are necessary skills for young people to navigate the challenges of adolescence and adulthood. Leadership Training promotes social-emotional skills, youth develop the strong character traits central to being effective leaders and agents of change among their peers and within their communities. This approach keeps youth engaged and challenged and builds on their existing knowledge and skills.

"Having access to healthy meals at the club has been life-changing for me. Before joining, I often went home feeling hungry and tired, but now I can count on a nutritious meal every day. The food is not only delicious but also helps me feel more energized and ready to take on activities. It's so important to know that I'm getting the nutrition I need to grow and thrive. This support makes me feel valued and cared for, and it truly enhances my experience at the club."

Libby, aged 8

The big Food Problem

In today's world, it is unfortunate that there are still children who go hungry every day. We have taken a small step towards this by providing free meals to children in our clubs. We believe that every child deserves a nutritious meal to fuel their growth and development. The food we serve is healthy and balanced, ensuring that the children get all the necessary nutrients they need. Our efforts may be small in comparison to the scale of the problem, but we firmly believe that every little bit counts.

Why youth club activities are so important, and the benefits of learning skills out of a school setting.

- Children and YP can develop new friendships when there is no history and prior knowledge of their academic and social capabilities. They can be appreciated for what they are, and not what they used to be, or where they come from.

- Knowledge without the school setting is beneficial for children who cannot sit still, struggle with concentration, or just need to be more active so that their brain can work best.

- In school, children and YP are used to being taught and receiving knowledge. In youth club settings, children are welcome to be part of the facilitating sector on many occasions.

TRACKING OUR ASCENT

At Shining Stars, we take a comprehensive and structured approach to monitoring and evaluating the impact of our services, ensuring that we can effectively measure progress and continuously improve our offerings. We use both qualitative and quantitative methods to assess the outcomes of our programs and the positive changes in the lives of the children we serve.

1. Baseline Assessments and Goal Setting

At the start of every child's journey with us, we conduct detailed baseline assessments to understand their individual needs, challenges, and strengths. This includes evaluating their social, emotional, and academic development. Based on these assessments, we collaboratively set personalized goals with the children and their families. These goals serve as the foundation for tracking progress over time.

2. Regular Feedback and Observations

We closely monitor each child's development through regular observations during activities, group sessions, and one-on-one interactions. Our trained staff take note of behavioural changes, improvements in confidence, and skills acquired. Additionally, we have a structured feedback system where staff, volunteers, and mentors provide weekly reports on the children's engagement, participation, and any breakthroughs they observe.

3. Data Collection and Surveys

We gather quantitative data through participation rates, attendance tracking, and pre- and post-program surveys. These surveys are designed for both children and parents to evaluate the child's progress in key areas such as confidence, social skills, leadership, and independence. Parents and caregivers play a vital role in providing feedback on how the children's experiences at Shining Stars are translating into real-life improvements at home and school.

4. Outcome Measurement Framework

My Star is a version of the Outcomes Star tool that we use to measure and support change in children and young people, covering eight areas of a child's life, including:

- Physical health
- Where they live
- Being safe
- Relationships
- Feelings and behaviour
- Friends
- Confidence and self-esteem
- Education and learning

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2025

1. Accounting policies

Charity information
The charity is unincorporated and is governed by its trust deed.

1.1 Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the charity's governing document, the Charities Act 2011, FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" ("FRS 102") and the Charities SORP "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)" (effective 1 January 2019). The charity is a Public Benefit Entity as defined by FRS 102. The charity has taken advantage of the provisions in the SORP for charities not to prepare a Statement of Cash Flows.

The financial statements have departed from the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 only to the extent required to provide a true and fair view. This departure has involved following the Statement of Recommended Practice for charities applying FRS 102 rather than the version of the Statement of Recommended Practice which is referred to in the Regulations but which has since been withdrawn.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the charity. Monetary amounts in these financial statements are rounded to the nearest £.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, modified to include the revaluation of freehold properties and to include investment properties and certain financial instruments at fair value. The principal accounting policies adopted are set out below.

1.2 Going concern

At the time of approving the financial statements, the trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus the trustees continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements

1.3 Charitable funds

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of their charitable objectives. Restricted funds are subject to specific conditions by donors as to how they may be used. The purposes and uses of the restricted funds are set out in the notes to the financial statements. Endowment funds are subject to specific conditions by donors that the capital must be maintained by the charity.

1.4 Income

Income is recognised when the charity is legally entitled to it after any performance conditions have been met, the amounts can be measured reliably, and it is probable that income will be received. Cash donations are recognised on receipt. Other donations are recognised once the charity has been notified of the donation, unless performance conditions require deferral of the amount. Income tax recoverable in relation to donations received under Gift Aid or deeds of covenant is recognised at the time of the donation. Legacies are recognised on receipt or otherwise if the charity has been notified of an impending distribution, the amount is known, and receipt is expected. If the amount is not known, the legacy is treated as a contingent asset

1.5 Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to transfer economic benefit to a third party, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement, and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is classified by activity. The costs of each activity are made up of the total of direct costs and shared costs, including support costs involved in undertaking each activity. Direct costs attributable to a single activity are allocated directly to that activity. Shared costs which contribute to more than one activity and support costs which are not attributable to a single activity are apportioned between those activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources. Central staff costs are allocated on the basis of time spent, and depreciation charges are allocated on the portion of the asset's use.

1.6 Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are initially measured at cost and subsequently measured at cost or valuation, net of depreciation and any impairment losses. Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost or valuation of assets less their residual values over their useful lives on the following bases:

Plant and equipment - 40% RBM
Fixtures and fittings - 20% RBM

The gain or loss arising on the disposal of an asset is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying value of the asset, and is recognised in the statement of financial activities.

Investment property

Investment property, which is property held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation, is initially recognised at cost, which includes the purchase cost and any directly attributable expenditure. Subsequently it is measured at fair value at the reporting end date. The surplus or deficit on revaluation is recognised in profit or loss.

Impairment of fixed assets

At each reporting end date, the charity reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any)

Cash and equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities.

Basic financial assets

Basic financial assets, which include debtors and cash and bank balances, are initially measured at transaction price including transaction costs and are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the transaction is measured at the present value of the future receipts discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial assets classified as receivable within one year are not amortised.

Basic financial liabilities

Basic financial liabilities, including creditors and bank loans are initially recognised at transaction price unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the debt instrument is measured at the present value of the future payments discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial liabilities classified as payable within one year are not amortised. Debt instruments are subsequently carried at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method. Trade creditors are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of operations from suppliers. Amounts payable are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less. If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade creditors are recognised initially at transaction price and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the charity' s contractual obligations expire, are discharged or are cancelled.

Employee benefits

The cost of any unused holiday entitlement is recognised in the period in which the employee's services are received. Termination benefits are recognised immediately as an expense when the charity is demonstrably committed to terminate the employment of an employee or to provide termination benefits.

2. Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In the application of the charity's accounting policies, the trustees are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods. Judgements made by the directors in the application of these accounting policies that have significant effect on the financial statements and estimates with a significant risk of material adjustment in the next year are as follows.

Property valuation

The valuation of the charity's investment property is subject to a degree of uncertainty, as the value depends on various factors including the nature of the property, its location and expected future net rental values, market yields and comparable market transactions, and is made on the basis of assumptions which may not prove to be accurate.
