2. Structure, governance and management

United Kingdom Murid Community is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) governed by a Foundation model constitution and registered with the Charity Commission for England and Wales on 10 March 2020. The trustees are responsible for governance, strategic direction, financial stewardship and the proper administration of the charity.

The charity maintains governance policies covering safeguarding, complaints, bullying and harassment, external speakers, internal financial controls, risk management, serious incident reporting, social media and trustee conflicts of interest.

3. Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The charity's objects include advancing the religion of Islam, particularly the practices and teachings of Sufism according to the guidance of Cheikh Ahmadou Bamba Mbacke, for the benefit of the public. Its purposes include worship, prayer meetings, lectures, religious festivals, religious education and interfaith activities intended to improve understanding of Islam.

The charity also has objects to relieve people in need in Senegal because of youth, age, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage. The objects permit support for education, training, medical supplies, healthcare projects and activities designed to help individuals generate sustainable income and become self-sufficient.

Activities undertaken in 2025

During 2025, the charity organised the Great Magal of Touba, a major religious and community event. The event brought together community members and supporters to mark the Magal and provided an opportunity for religious observance, community participation and fundraising in furtherance of the charity's purposes.

The charity's wider programme is intended to support religious practice, education and community engagement. Activities associated with the charity include worship and prayer gatherings, religious education, lectures, cultural and religious celebrations, community support and charitable assistance.

Public benefit

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance when planning and reviewing activities. The trustees seek to ensure that the charity's activities further its stated purposes and provide identifiable benefit to the public or an appropriate section of the public.

4. Achievements and performance

Great Magal of Touba

A principal achievement in 2025 was the organisation of the Great Magal of Touba. The event raised £74,312.00 against a fundraising target of £80,000.00. The trustees coordinated venue hire, food and beverage, equipment, travel and other event requirements to deliver the event and support participation by the community.

Event financial summary

Item	Amount
Fundraising target	£80,000.00
Fundraising raised	£74,312.00
Event expenditure reported in supplied schedule	£69,250.33
Arithmetic difference based on these two totals	£5,061.67

The event expense schedule supplied by the trustees records: food and beverage £22,959.62; general purchases £1,201.46; hall hire £15,416.00; PPE/catering equipment £5,077.92; PPE/cultural equipment £500.00; PPE/IT and equipment £4,293.99; travel expenses £221.34; and Adiyah £19,580.00.

Volunteers

Volunteers play an important role in supporting the charity's community, religious and charitable activities, including event organisation and operational support.

5. Financial review

The trustees are responsible for maintaining appropriate financial oversight and internal controls and for ensuring that the charity's resources are applied in furtherance of its charitable purposes.

Financial summary

Measure	2025
Total income	£254,118.86
Total expenditure	£150,613.92
Surplus for the year	£103,504.94

The trustees note that total income exceeded total expenditure during the year. The final statutory accounts should provide the full analysis of income, expenditure and funds and must reconcile exactly to the figures reported in this Trustees' Annual Report.

Reserves policy

Principal funding sources

Total income for 2025 was £254,118.86. The trustees should confirm the main income categories from the final accounts, including donations, community contributions, fundraising and any restricted or designated income, where applicable.

Going concern and financial risks

6. Risk management and safeguarding

The trustees recognise their responsibility to identify and manage the principal risks facing the charity. The charity maintains policies and procedures covering internal financial controls, risk management, safeguarding, serious incident reporting, complaints, conflicts of interest and other governance matters.

7. Plans for future periods

We aim to purchase a property for the community for access to the murid community.

8. Trustee remuneration and related-party matters

The Charity Commission register currently states that no trustees receive remuneration, payments or benefits from the charity.

9. Approval

This Trustees' Annual Report was approved by the trustees and signed on their behalf by a trustee authorised to do so.

Fund basis	All funds are unrestricted. No restricted funds and no endowment funds.
Important filing note	This CC16a-style worksheet is a working draft only. For the 2025 year ending 31/12/2025, gross income of £254,118.86 exceeds the then-applicable £250,000 threshold for receipts and payments accounts, so statutory accruals accounts are required.
Great Magal discrepancy	The source schedule states a balance after expenses of £24,641.67. However, £74,312.00 less £69,250.33 equals £5,061.67. Trustee/treasurer confirmation is required before final filing.

Responsibilities and basis of report
I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2025.

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement
The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ACCA.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
