About Voices Alive Foundation

Voices Alive Foundation was established in the United Kingdom and registered as a charity in England in 2021. The Foundation was founded with a commitment to protecting and promoting the physical and mental health and wellbeing of individuals affected by child sexual abuse, with a particular focus on supporting survivors in the United Kingdom and Nigeria.

The Foundation recognises that child sexual abuse can have profound and lasting effects on survivors, often impacting their emotional wellbeing, self-esteem, relationships, physical health and ability to lead fulfilling lives. It is committed to creating safe, supportive and compassionate spaces where survivors can feel heard, understood and empowered to begin or continue their healing journey without fear of judgement or stigma.

Through support groups, online programmes, awareness-raising initiatives and community engagement, Voices Alive Foundation seeks to break the silence surrounding child sexual abuse, challenge stigma and encourage open conversations about its impact. The charity aims to empower survivors by providing opportunities for connection, emotional support and access to relevant resources, while also promoting greater awareness of the importance of prevention, early intervention and safeguarding to help protect children from further abuse.

The Foundation believes that every survivor deserves dignity, compassion, understanding and access to appropriate support. Its work is guided by the belief that, although the effects of abuse can be far-reaching, recovery, renewed confidence and hope are possible when survivors are supported in a safe and caring environment. By raising awareness and encouraging individuals and communities to recognise and respond appropriately to child sexual abuse, the charity also seeks to contribute to a culture in which abuse is less likely to remain hidden and survivors are more likely to seek and receive help.

During the 2024–2025 period, Voices Alive Foundation continued its commitment to supporting adult survivors of child sexual abuse through online programmes and events designed to provide opportunities for engagement, awareness, connection and emotional support. These initiatives helped create accessible spaces in which survivors could engage with others, share experiences where they felt comfortable doing so, and learn more about available sources of help.

Recognising that every survivor's circumstances and support needs are different, the Foundation also signposted individuals to other relevant support organisations and agencies where appropriate. This approach aimed to help survivors identify additional services and resources that could address their individual needs, including support beyond the scope of the Foundation's own activities.

Through these activities, Voices Alive Foundation continued to promote hope, healing, awareness and empowerment among adult survivors. Its ongoing mission is to ensure that survivors are not left to navigate the consequences of abuse alone, while encouraging greater understanding, compassion and collective responsibility in addressing child sexual abuse in the United Kingdom, Nigeria and the wider community.

The Foundation remains committed to building awareness, strengthening access to support and helping create an environment in which survivors' voices are valued, their experiences are acknowledged, and their journeys towards healing are met with dignity, care and hope.
