Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution adopted 28th August 2020

How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. Selection of trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO. Any person retiring as a charity trustee is eligible for reappointment.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about: • policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees; • the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works; • relationship with any related parties; • trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	1. The relief of those in need by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage in India, East Africa and such other countries as the trustees from time to time determine, by supporting the provision of healthcare, education, training, housing as well as the provision of other support intended to help individuals generate a sustainable income and be or become self-sufficient. 2. The relief and assistance of people in India, East Africa and such other countries as the trustees from time to time determine affected by natural disaster, trouble or catastrophe through the provision of money or humanitarian and emergency aid.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity was dormant and as such did not conduct any activities during the year.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The trustees will apply funds at their discretion and in accordance with the charitable purpose and objects of the charity.

Priorities for support

The amount of work or number of projects that can be supported by the trustees is necessarily limited to the amount of funds that are available for distribution each year. The trustees have determined that the current priorities for funding are;

1. The relief of those in need by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage in India, East Africa and such other countries as the trustees from time to time determine, by supporting the provision of healthcare, education, training, housing as well as the provision of other support intended to help individuals generate a sustainable income and be or become self-sufficient.

2. The relief and assistance of people in India, East Africa and such other countries as the trustees from time to time determine affected by natural disaster, trouble or catastrophe through the provision of money or humanitarian and emergency aid.

The priorities of support will be reviewed by the trustees every three years and maybe changed before then depending upon circumstances and the perceived effectiveness of the application of funds.
