2. Objects

The objects of the CIO are:

1. The relief of poverty, hunger, suffering and distress caused or worsened directly or indirectly by corruption during disasters and pandemics in Chad.

2. The promotion for the public benefit of ethical standards of conduct and compliance with the law by governmental, industrial, commercial, voluntary sector and professional organisations in business transactions and humanitarian and development initiatives during disasters and pandemics in Chad.

3. Activities, achievements and public benefit

The charity was dormant throughout the year ended 30 July 2022. It received no income, made no payments and carried out no charitable activities. It had no employees and no volunteers.

The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. Because the charity was inactive, it delivered no public benefit in this period.

4. Financial review

The charity had no receipts and no payments in the year ended 30 July 2022. It held no cash, investments or other assets, and had no liabilities, at 30 July 2022.

Reserves policy: the charity held no reserves. The trustees will set a reserves policy before the charity receives funds.

5. Structure, governance and management

The charity is a foundation-model CIO: its only voting members are its trustees. The trustees govern the charity in line with its constitution. No trustee received any remuneration, expenses or other benefit from the charity in the period.

6. Approval

This report and the accounts that follow were approved by the trustees on 26 / 9 / 2026 and signed on their behalf by:
