Achievements and Performance of the Charity

Community Engagement and Da'wah Activities

Throughout the year, the trustees and volunteers of GCIC continued their outreach work through individual and collective meetings with community members. These meetings were held both in person and online, focusing on:

-Explaining the purpose and objectives of the charity
-Spreading the message of Islam in light of the Qur'an and Sunnah
-Encouraging understanding, dialogue, and learning within the community

These gatherings helped to strengthen connections with our supporters and provided valuable opportunities to share our message with new audiences

Dissemination through Online and Social Media Platforms

At GCIC, we continue to focus on promoting authentic Islamic understanding through digital and social media. Our online presence has remained an effective and impactful way to reach people across the UK and beyond.

We regularly share extracts from the Qur'an, Hadith, and inspirational quotes through our website, email service, and social media platforms. These daily posts help people learn something new every day, deepening their connection with faith and encouraging reflection on the teachings of Islam. Many community members have expressed that these short reminders have become a meaningful part of their daily routine and spiritual growth.

In addition, we actively promote individual videos and articles of Mr Javed Ahmed Ghamidi through our website and email distribution. These resources are highly valued by our audience for their clarity, relevance, and depth of knowledge.

We also share weekly television programmes of Mr Ghamidi broadcast on Dunya TV. Many people are unable to watch these programmes live, so we share the official YouTube links so that community members can conveniently access and benefit from them later.

Furthermore, to make learning more accessible, we have separated each type of content - Qur'anic lessons, Hadith studies, and Question & Answer sessions - into individual categories.
Each topic is organised and labelled, allowing visitors to easily search and select the specific material they wish to study. This approach has made it simpler for people to engage with shorter, focused clips on different subjects rather than going through longer, full sessions.

Through these combined efforts, our online and social media activities have significantly contributed to spreading the message of Islam in a clear, practical, and accessible way.

Administrative and Invitational Meetings

Regular administrative meetings were conducted throughout the year to review ongoing activities and plan future initiatives.

These meetings have primarily been held online, allowing broader participation from trustees and volunteers across different locations.

Additionally, invitational and community meetings were organised where members and supporters were informed about the progress of the charity's work and its future direction.

Community Response and Feedback

During 2025, GCIC received positive feedback and encouraging comments from many individuals within the community both online and offline.

Participants appreciated the Centre's ongoing commitment to spreading authentic religious knowledge and requested that the activities continue and expand further.

This support has motivated the trustees and volunteers to carry forward their mission with even greater dedication

Overall Review

The year 2025 marked a phase of steady progress and renewed focus on our core mission - the advancement of Islamic understanding through learning, discussion, and outreach.

Our trustees, volunteers, and administrative team worked collectively to maintain consistent communication with the community, ensuring that the message of Islam reached people through multiple channels - personal interaction, online sharing, and social media presence.

We remain committed to our objective and pray that Allah enables us to continue serving the cause of Islamic education and communication with sincerity and excellence.

Financial review

We hold cash at bank of £594 all of which is unrestricted funds. These funds are held in order to meet any unforeseen expenditure that may occur.
