Charity name: Coalition for Genocide Response

Charity registration number: 1192979

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the CIO, the Coalition for Genocide Response (CGR), are the promotion of human rights (as set out in the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide (the Genocide Convention), the Universal Declaration of Human Rights ("UDHR") and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations and in regional codes of human rights which incorporate those rights) and the elimination of the infringement of the Genocide Convention anywhere in the world by all or any of the following means: • Raising awareness of human rights issues with a specific focus on mass atrocities that may amount to genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes; • Monitoring abuses of human rights; • Promoting public support and engagement for the protection of human rights; • Providing technical advice to government and others on human rights matters; • Contributing to the sound administration of human rights law; • Commenting on proposed human rights legislation; • Working toward more effective redress mechanisms for the victims of human rights abuse and relieving the needs of victims of human rights abuse; • Promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations; • International advocacy of human rights; • Eliminating infringements of human rights; • Commissioning and conducting research into human rights abuse.

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	• Monitoring abuses of international human rights law globally, including but not limited to: Ukraine, Iraq, China, Nigeria, DRC, Ethiopia, and Afghanistan, among others. • Raising awareness of human rights issues (in line with international law and norms) with a specific focus on mass atrocities that may amount to aggression, genocide, crimes against humanity, and war crimes in Ukraine, Iraq, China, Nigeria, DRC, Ethiopia, and Afghanistan, among others. • Promoting public support and engagement for the protection of human rights (in line with international law). • Providing technical advice to government stakeholders and others (in line with international legal obligations) on human rights matters, especially on the jurisprudence surrounding the duty to prevent genocide under Article I of the Genocide Convention. • Contributing to the sound administration of international human rights law. • Commenting and advising, to bring state practice into line with international law and rule of law standards, on proposed human rights legislation, including the Genocide (Prevention and Response) Bill, the Genocide Determination Bill, and universal jurisdiction. • Working toward more effective redress mechanisms for the victims of human rights abuses and relieving the needs of the victims of human rights abuses; • Promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations; • International advocacy of human rights; • Conducting research into human rights abuses.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In the past year, [from 1 January 2025 until 31 December 2025], the main achievements of the CGR included the following: - The CGR curated and organised several in-person events on genocide, raising awareness of situations of genocide or the serious risk of genocide globally and legal responses available, including a series of Parliamentary education sessions covering the situation in Ukraine, Iraq, China, DRC, Ethiopia, and Afghanistan, among others. - The CGR produced briefings on legislative developments, informing stakeholders about the legal consequences of individual or state actions in line with international law. - The CGR produced briefings on situations around the world, including on the issue of conflict-related sexual violence. - The CGR contributed to inquiry reports on the DRC and other situations. - Raising awareness and conducting advocacy on mass atrocity prevention and the obligations of States, including the UK. The work of CGR helped to achieve the following goals: - Improve awareness of the dire situation in the DRC; - Improve the understanding of current challenges to the implementation of the duty to prevent under Article I of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide; - Work towards changes in States' approaches to genocide and other atrocity crimes in line with internationally applicable norms and laws. - Improve knowledge in relation to the principle of universal jurisdiction. The CGR, together with partners, worked on the Standing Group on Atrocity Crimes to review the UK Government's approaches to prediction, prevention and responses to atrocity crimes globally.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	The trustees are satisfied that the work of the CGR has been in accordance with its constitution, its aims and objectives. Its achievements have been impactful, reached those who have an obligation to uphold international law and have been beneficial directly and indirectly to intended beneficiaries. Some of its work will have long-term consequences which are not immediately foreseeable.
		The CGR is a lean and small organisation relying largely on volunteers. The charity

Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	would, of course, like to raise more funds to help facilitate this work and will continue discussing this with trustees, as well as how a sustainable fundraising model may be built.
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	N/A

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	During this year, the balance on the unrestricted fund on 31 December 2025 (financial year-end) was £948. The CGR has no significant fixed assets.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The CGR has not held any reserves in the last financial year, as there were no outgoing expenses/expenditures. Only very small administrative expenditures were incurred.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	0
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	As the work of the CGR to date has been undertaken almost exclusively on a volunteer basis, and there are no uncertain expenditures, reserves are not deemed necessary. The trustees continue to assess this policy proactively.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	N/A

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The charity largely operates on the goodwill and offices of its trustees and volunteers; as such, it has a very small financial footprint. The other funds for the operational expenses come from one-off donations from private donors or philanthropists. A general fundraising was organised once by a trustee via the crowdfunding platform GoFundMe. Furthermore, the CGR now has a PayPal account that allows for donations from the general public.

Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	N/A
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	Potential risk 1 The possibility of a State or state-supported repression of human rights defenders working on genocide in certain regions. Mitigation 1: Exercising caution and discretion at all times to minimise any possible risk of retaliation on the part of the state. Mitigation 2: Operating on a 'do no harm' principle so as to gauge and assess any possible risk. Mitigation 3: Monitoring risks to human rights defenders working in the regions or working on specific cases and identifying available steps to mitigate the risks. Potential risk 2 An inherent risk of re-traumatisation due to the type of human rights work the charity undertakes. Mitigation: Sensitive and professional methods of dealing with survivors, including adopting the Murad Code for dealing with victims of conflict-related sexual violence.
Other		(a)The CGR does not give any guarantees; (b) The CGR does not have any outstanding debts.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	Charity Constitution (Trust Deed)
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	CIO
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	According to Para. 10 of the Constitution, '(a) Apart from the first charity trustees, every appointed trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. (b) In selecting individuals for appointment as appointed charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.'

Additional information (optional)
You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	According to Para. 11 of the Constitution, '11. Information for new charity trustees. The charity trustees will make available to each new charity trustee, on or before his or her first appointment: (a) a copy of the current version of this constitution; and (b) a copy of the CIO's latest Trustees' Annual Report and statement of accounts.' Furthermore, trustees are individuals with knowledge and expertise in the area of work of the CGR. Trustees are encouraged and actively attend lectures, conferences and events that relate to human rights issues, charity governance, and in particular, genocide and atrocity crimes, to be kept informed of the work of the charity.

The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	The internal structure of staff members is flat and non-hierarchical. This is to enable proper and comprehensive discussions, critique, and cooperation. All members are updated about the work and given the opportunity to share concerns and contribute with expertise. The CGR works with experts, research centres, national and international NGOs and other bodies. The CGR also works with victims and survivors of human rights violations. CGR works with local partners to ensure the exchange of accurate information, verification of information and ensure a complementary approach to its work.
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	The CGR is fully independent of any organisation or political party, or institution. The CGR has formed informal cooperation with various organisations for the purposes of webinars and briefings.
