Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Appointed at a meeting of existing trustees

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

• To educate the public in matters pertaining to animal welfare in general and the prevention of cruelty, mistreatment and suffering among animals; and

• To promote humane behaviour towards animals by providing appropriate care, protection, treatment and security for animals which are in need of care and attention by reason of sickness, maltreatment, poor circumstances or ill usage.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)	Roles have been determined between the trustees for various areas of specialisation and focus. Research and operational evaluations continued into external considerations including ongoing conflicts, wars, higher cost of living, and elevated interest rates putting pressure on finances, with trustees recognizing the current time is not conducive to launch active charity operations. As part of all of these activities, the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit, and have adhered to them wherever relevant.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year	Further Technical and Operational Planning revisions were performed keeping in mind on-going conflicts, wars, higher cost of living, and higher interest rates putting severe pressure on finances and funding availability. Trustees concluded that the prevailing environment is not conducive to launching charitable field operations, maintaining a prudent approach to safeguard the CIO's resources until viable operating conditions emerge.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	All available funds must be solely applied towards the objects of the charity. Any unspent funds and reserves need to have a valid reason for doing so, in agreement with the trustees.
