Risk Management
The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed and are satisfied that systems and processes are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

Key objectives of the Foundations

The prevention and relief of poverty or financial hardship particularly in Africa by

- providing items, training, and services to individual in need or other organisations
- Working to prevent or, relief poverty so as to assist the beneficiaries to improve their living conditions, achieve their potentials, be self-sufficient or generate sustainable income.

a) Providing basic essential items to orphanage homes or similar organisations
b) Providing basic essential materials to individuals or schools e.g. books to the needy in primary or secondary schools
The above objectives is subject to funding availability

Statement of Trustees Responsibilities
The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law in United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to England and Wales requires the Trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that year.

In preparing these accounts the Trustees are required to

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistent.
- Observe the methods and the principles of the charities SORP
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts, and
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation

Activities in 2025.
The Charity had limited activities in 2025 due to limited funding
a) As a Charity reviewed we our processes and procedures to ensure that they are up to date
b) The Trustees attended trainings to enhance our effectiveness going forward.

Summation
The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 1993, the Charity (Accounts and reports) Regulations and the provisions of the trust deed.
They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevent and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
