Para 1.17 and 1.19	Regular fortnightly online webinar to educate our members and the public of Islam and its unique culture, and to also build a social and spiritual hub for them. We have helped members and non-members with flexible interest-free loans in their times of need or even gift them when appropriate. Summer family conference in August 2025 at PGL Dearne Valley, which brings people together across UK, for both members and non-members. This afforded them the opportunity to socialise, and also network, aside providing spiritual education nourishment that we need on a regular basis. In 2023, we launched an outreach – Sadaqah Network to provide vital assistance to the impoverished and indigent masses in Africa, Britain, and around the globe. With a particular emphasis on Africa, we strive to alleviate poverty, promote sustainable development, and empower communities for a better future. Focus areas include poverty alleviation, education &empowerment, Health & wellbeing, Water & sanitation and Emergency relief. We are in the process of finalising the registration of this outreach as a separate Charity for the commencement of full operation of it own. We also held several regular youth conferences discussing issues specific to youth and aimed at empowering, educating and making them good citizens of this country and the world at large. We hold 3 conferences in a year, winter, easter and summer conferences, this is a mix of online and face to face conferences. Asie from above we had specific conferences focused on groups like couples, women, men, where we discussed issues related to them, with the hope of fostering strong individuals, couples that will have positive impacts in the society .
